Teacher Guidance

The synoptic project is compulsory for both Advanced (Single Award) 9711 and Advanced (Double Award) 9712. The project is internally devised and assessed, but externally moderated and is the external assessment for the A2 award. The project must be completed and assessed by the OPTEMS deadline date.

Centres are free to devise their own themes, scenarios, briefs and constraints for the synoptic project. These briefs should be written up and monitored at key times: the only restriction in briefing is that any work that is set should enable candidates to satisfy the criteria for Unit 11. Briefs should therefore be checked against the guidance provided below.

The Synoptic project serves two main purposes:

- It is the project for the delivery of Unit 11: Develop and Produce Own Ideas.
- It enables candidates to bring together the knowledge, skills and understanding they have acquired into one piece of vocationally focused work which shows their best achievement at A2 level.

Delivering the Synoptic project

- The work produced for Unit 11: Develop and Produce Own Ideas is intended to be a major project, taken towards the end of the programme, to show the candidates at their best. This should be taken into account when delivering the project in the centre. Candidates should be taught and advised as with other units.
- Edexcel will not supply briefs for the synoptic project. Centres should generate their own briefs to allow candidates to develop and produce their own ideas and to build on the knowledge developed during the exploration of their chosen specialist pathways.
- The work needs to be managed so that an outcome is produced to meet the requirements and constraints of the brief in the time available.
- Information should be discussed and negotiated with candidates as the work produced will be heavily influenced by the chosen A2 specialist units – Unit 12: Fine Art, Unit 13: Design, Unit 14: Multimedia.
- The unit builds on the work produced for Unit 6 and 7 (Summative Project) and links with the A2 compulsory units, in particular Unit 9: Contextual References and Unit 8: Personal, Portfolio Development and Progression. It also builds on the investigation into professional practice in Unit 10: Professional Practice and Progression.
- Visual sources help to start the development of ideas. The greater the breadth and depth of investigation from primary and secondary sources, the greater the potential for creating visually exciting and imaginative ideas.

- It must be remembered that the vocational aspects of this unit need to be addressed. Health and safety practice must be followed when using specialist materials, processes and equipment.
- Candidates need to provide evidence of developmental and finished work, produced through a specialist pathway of their choice. They will need to provide evidence of planning, use of resources, working methods and evaluation.
- Evaluation is about reviewing ideas and analysing strengths, weaknesses, originality and effectiveness in response to the brief. A well-constructed synoptic project brief will enable both formative and summative evaluation skills to be used in making judgements, justifying and explaining work.
- The synoptic project should be submitted as a complete, full, substantial project, from inception to completion. It must be presented as a separate and distinct portfolio of work.

Instructions for the conduct of the synoptic project

Note:

These instructions are for GCE in Applied Art and Design

- The synoptic project (Unit 11: Develop and Produce Own Ideas) is compulsory for both Single and Double Award Qualifications.
- Apart from this document there will be no examination paper for the synoptic project.
- Assessment will be carried out by the teacher-assessors, whose decisions will be subject to moderation by an Edexcel external moderator. All moderation will be carried out by centre visit and will take place at the same time as the moderation of the portfolio units in the summer moderation series.
- There are no restrictions on the size of work, the type of work or the quantity of work that is produced for this project. Candidates may work using any medium, material or technique which is appropriate to the brief.
- There are no special conditions under which the work has to be carried out, as long as the final outcome for Unit 11: Develop and Produce Own Ideas is completed in the centre, under staff supervision.
- Work for the synoptic project should be carried out in any suitable environment, such as workshop, art room, darkroom, etc.
- A minimum of 60 hours should be allowed for the synoptic project. There are no other restrictions or set hours in which the project must be carried out. It must be completed and assessed by the deadline for submission of marks for moderation. The synoptic project may be started at any time and take as long as deemed appropriate by teachers and candidates.
- Following assessment by the centre, the marks must be entered on the appropriate OPTEMS forms or online through EDI (electronic data input) and submitted to Edexcel by the published deadline.
- Preparatory and finished work, together with research, development, notes, sketchbooks, workbooks and work journals, maquettes, models, trials and tests may all contribute to the project evidence for this unit.
- Evidence to be assessed against the unit must be produced specifically to meet the requirements of the synoptic project brief. However, the same evidence may also be cross-referenced to address other portfolio units.

Centres should note that this unit is moderated in summer only. There is no January moderation series.

Guidance for writing the brief

Each candidate is required to complete a Project brief outline. This document can be found on page 9. This must be presented at moderation.

The quality of the brief is likely to be a major factor in the success of this unit.

The brief must:

- enable candidates to cover the unit content and meet the grading criteria
- be vocational, specific and clearly related to the candidates' specialist pathway
- be set as a normal assignment and delivered in the usual way. However, it should be recognised that it is an important piece of work and should be carefully devised to address the criteria for Unit 11: Develop and Produce Own Ideas
- provide scope for individual response and elaboration
- stimulate professional practice and offer opportunities to apply understanding of current practice in the art, design or craft sectors
- allow candidates to investigate specialist media, materials, techniques, processes and associated technologies.

Assessment guidance

- Assessment must be recorded on the assessment grid supplied with this document – one grid per candidate.
- Teacher-assessors should indicate the location of evidence and justify their assessment decisions in the comments section of the assessment grid.
- Following assessment by the centre, the marks must be entered on the appropriate OPTEMS forms or online through EDI (electronic data input) and submitted to Edexcel by the 15 May 2008.
- The centre must present a completed Project brief outline, an annotated Assessment grid and an Authentication form for each candidate at the moderation visit.

Teacher-assessors are directed to the Mark Band Descriptors for the unit.

These can be found in the Specification – GCE in Applied Art and Design (9711; 9712).

Internal standardisation

If assessment is carried out by more than one assessor in a centre, there must be a process of internal standardisation to ensure that there is a consistent application of the criteria as detailed in the assessment grid.

External moderation

The centre assessment will be subject to external moderation by Edexcel. Moderation is carried out during centre visits.

There is no moderation series in January.
