

Edexcel A Level English qualifications (2008 specification) - coursework resubmission guidance 2016-2017

The following provides guidance to centres wishing to resubmit coursework for the last time in summer 2017.

English Literature

- Coursework for Units 2 and 4 can be resubmitted in May (in 2017 the deadline is 15th May)
- Resubmitted coursework can be on the same texts as the original submission
- Resubmitted coursework must be on new titles
- However, the new title can be a revision of the previous title, such that it changes the focus of the piece
- If a resubmitted piece is based on a revised title of the original submission, feedback can be given by the teacher to the student on the original piece only in relation to the Assessment Criteria
- When resubmitting coursework the whole folder, i.e. both pieces, must be resubmitted
- However, it is possible to submit one new piece with the second piece being unchanged

English Language

- Coursework for Units 2 and 4 can be resubmitted in May (in 2017 the deadline is 15th May)
- Resubmitted coursework can either be completely new pieces or substantial revisions of the previously submitted pieces, retaining the original titles
- If submitting revised pieces, feedback can be given by the teacher to the student on the original piece only in relation to the Assessment Criteria
- When resubmitting coursework the whole folder, i.e. both pieces, must be resubmitted
- However, it is possible to submit one new (or revised) piece with the second piece being unchanged
