

Answer ALL questions in the spaces provided.

1.

Ali is one year old and just learning to walk. His mother Julie is 17 years of age and her boyfriend Hassim is 20 years of age. At first, Julie and Hassim lived together but now he has returned to live with his parents. This has caused arguments between Julie and Hassim.

(a) Identify the life stage of each individual in the table below.

Name of individual	Identification of life stage
Julie
Ali
Hassim

(3)

(b) Puberty involves a series of physical changes which can be different in males and females. Identify three physical changes which are different in boys like Hassim and girls like Julie.

1

.....

.....

2

.....

.....

3

.....

.....

(3)

Leave
blank

(c) Learning to walk is one example of physical development in Ali's life stage. Describe one example of social, emotional and intellectual/cognitive development that Ali might show in this life stage.

(i) Social development

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

(ii) Emotional development

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

(iii) Intellectual/cognitive development

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

(6)

2.

Julie and Ali have a low income and live in a one-bedroom flat. Julie, an only child, was doing well at school until she became pregnant by Hassim. Her parents did not approve of their relationship and asked Julie to leave the family home. At that time, Julie's mother was starting the menopause and this was a difficult time for the whole family.

(a) (i) Identify three physical features of the menopause.

- 1
-
-
- 2
-
-
- 3
-
-

(3)

Leave
blank

(b) (i) Julie is a heavy smoker. State one effect this might have on Ali's health.

.....

.....

(1)

(ii) Explain the effects of smoking on Julie's physical health.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

(8)

Leave
blank

3. (a) Identify and explain how two factors influence personal views of health.

1

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

2

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

(6)

