

Answer ALL questions in the spaces provided.

1.

The British Crime Survey in 2000 showed that black and Asian adults were twice as likely to be worried about suffering some form of personal attack than white adults.

Tyrone, a 17-year-old black Caribbean youth, was recently mugged on his way home from college. His attackers left him beaten and unconscious by the side of the road.

(a) Being mugged is an unpredictable life event.

Identify two other unpredictable life events.

- (i)
 -
 - (ii)
 -
- (2)

(b) Tyrone was taken by ambulance to the local hospital's Accident and Emergency Department. He was admitted into hospital.

Describe two ways in which Tyrone's named nurse could promote his independence while in hospital.

- (i)
 -
 -
 -
 -
 -
 - (ii)
 -
 -
 -
 -
- (4)

Leave blank

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

(10)

(Total 30 marks)

Q1

--	--

(c) Daria rents a house with five other Eastern Europeans. The house is cold and damp and situated in a deprived area. They do not have enough money to heat the house properly. Daria is considered to be living in relative poverty.

Define relative poverty.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

(2)

Leave
blank

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

(10)

Q2

(Total 30 marks)

--	--

