Hakan is 86 years of age and came to the United Kingdom from Turkey 60 years ago.

Hakan was recently diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease. His condition has progressed rapidly and he now has difficulty remembering what day of the week it is, the time and familiar places. He rarely goes out and has few friends because his English is poor. His daughter helps with his care but is struggling because of her work commitments. Two weeks ago Hakan was found wandering in the town centre late at night. Social services were called immediately.

(a) Hakan's English is poor and an interpreter has been appointed by social services.

Describe the role of an interpreter.
