

Pearson Edexcel A level History: coursework marking training

Welcome to this series of recordings to support teachers in understanding the requirements for the Pearson Edexcel A level History coursework component.

This training was originally recorded in 2019. The old recordings are no longer available, and so new recordings were made in January 2024.

A new coursework guidance document, bringing together the guidance on our website into one place, is being drafted and will be made available in spring 2024.

This zipped file contains the following materials:

- Slides for Modules 1–3
- Coursework generic mark scheme (from the specification, pp.125 – 127)
- Exemplar scripts 1 and 2 (for Module 2)
- Exemplar scripts A, B, C, D and E (for Module 3)

We have previously run live Q&A events with the Principal Moderator as a Module 4. You can download the slides from past sessions from the Edexcel website (here).

Our subject advisor will notify you when Module 4 next runs. You will be able to submit questions in advance on any aspect of coursework marking.
