

Ideas for the independent research project

A level Italian speaking

Requirements

The DfE A level MFL subject content states that A level specifications in a modern language must require students to:

- develop research skills in the language of study, demonstrating the ability to initiate and conduct individual research on a subject of personal interest, relating to the country or countries where the language is spoken
- identify a key question or subject of interest and select relevant information in the language of study from a range of authentic sources, including the internet
- use information to illustrate knowledge and understanding of the research subject
- analyse and summarise research findings, elaborating on key points of interest, as appropriate, through oral presentation and discussion
