Question 1

Translate the following passage into Italian.

San Marino is the third smallest state in Europe and is considered the oldest republic in the world. According to tradition, it was founded in the fourth century, when Saint Marino established a small community on Mount Titano. Its economy is based on industry, finance, trade and tourism. Those who visit this tiny country can buy pottery but also old coins and rare stamps. Despite not being part of the European Union, San Marino has adopted the euro as its official currency.
