SECTION A: TRANSLATION

- 1 Traduci il brano seguente in italiano.

(20)

The traditional image of the large family is no longer a reality in contemporary Italy, where numerous social and legal changes have had a significant impact on family life.

Divorce was legalised in 1970 but the Church was against this law. However, in a referendum four years later, almost 60% of Italians supported it. The number of marriages has been declining for decades and nowadays more and more people are getting divorced.

Many Italian couples now live together instead of getting married and choose not to have children. In fact, the birth rate in Italy is one of the lowest in the world.
