

Are you interested in sharing your Higher National experience and becoming one of our trusted Ambassadors?

Higher Nationals

We are looking for individuals from all over the world, across a range of BTEC Higher National (HN) subject areas, to become a key part of our community as HN Ambassadors.

Our HN Ambassadors are there to support us in representing the BTEC Higher National brand and inspire students to achieve their full potential.

What can you expect?

All our Ambassadors will be asked to provide their story and experience with HNs. This will be featured on our website, as well as in the dedicated ambassador space on our global platform, HN Global.

If you are interested in becoming one of our HN Ambassadors, please reach out to us at highernationals@pearson.com, and we'll be in touch soon.

As an Ambassador, you may be involved in a range of activities, such as:

- Promoting the Higher National brand and sharing content online
- Talking about your journey at events (either online or face to face)
- Communicating with prospective and current HN students
- Providing valuable feedback on new products and services
- Writing blogs
- Engaging with local schools or communities about higher-technical qualifications.

Who are we looking for?

- Completion of either an HNC or HND
- Currently in employment
- Approachable
- Enthusiastic
- A confident communicator
- Reliable
