Dear Danielle

Letter of support for the Pearson BTEC Level 3 in Agriculture

As a professional body in the sector, we recognise the following qualifications as being fit for purpose:

- BTEC Level 3 National Extended Certificate in Agriculture
- BTEC Level 3 National Foundation Diploma in Agriculture
- BTEC Level 3 National Diploma in Agriculture
- BTEC Level 3 National Extended Diploma Agriculture

The qualifications will support learners to progress to employment or within employment in a range of job roles across the industry, for example:

BTEC Level 3 National Extended Certificate in Agriculture: general farm worker, trainee agricultural technician, trainee trials officer, trainee crop technician

BTEC Level 3 National Foundation Diploma in Agriculture: assistant herdsman, assistant stockman, assistant machinery operator, assistant Trials officer

BTEC Level 3 National Diploma in Agriculture: herdsman, stockman, machinery operator, trials officer

BTEC Level 3 National Extended Diploma in Agriculture: stockman, herdsman, livestock contractor, crop contractor, agricultural technician, arable operator, farm mechanic, unit manager (e.g. dairy, pigs, poultry)

For such roles, we believe that these qualifications provide an appropriate level of knowledge and skills, meeting the needs of the business and the individual, ensuring employees are appropriately skilled for the job and able to deliver to the standard that the sector expects.

The qualification will also support the individual, should they chose to progress in to further training.

We are happy for Pearson to use this letter in support of its work with government and its agencies, to ensure that this invaluable qualification can continue to be recognised for college performance tables and 19+ funding.

Yours sincerely

Jack Ward
Chief Executive
