Pearson BTEC Level 3 Extended Diploma in Creative Media Production (QCF)	500/7878/1

The appropriate qualification title will appear on learners' certificates. Learners need to be made aware of this when they are recruited by the centre and registered with Pearson.

The qualifications covered by this specification are BTEC Level 3 qualifications that were developed under the Qualification and Credit Framework (QCF). First teaching for most of the qualifications and associated units was from September 2010. The qualifications are now regulated by Ofqual under the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF).

The qualification titles were developed under the QCF rules. In order to enable centres, learners and end users to differentiate these titles from earlier and later BTEC Level 3 qualifications, we are retaining the use of the term (QCF) in the qualification titles and this term will continue to be shown on learners' certificates.

The qualifications were developed using a basis of credits, with the concept that units might be shared by or jointly developed with other organisations. At the introduction of the RQF, ownership of all unit content has transferred to the awarding organisation. For consistency with the original qualifications, we have retained the use of the term 'credit' in relation to the sizing of units, however in line with RQF requirements, information has been added regarding the Guided Learning Hours and total qualification time. (See page 2).

Recognition for progression in work-based routes

Since they were first introduced, the qualifications in this specification have been used for progression to employment and further work-related training. During the period leading up to the full introduction of reformed occupational routes, these BTEC Level 3 qualifications continue to provide progression to training, Apprenticeship and higher vocational study. Centres should ensure that the way in which qualifications are delivered remains relevant to learners' aspirations, taking account of local employment needs.

UCAS points and progression to higher education

BTEC Level 3 qualifications attract UCAS points and are recognised by higher education providers as contributing to admission requirements for many courses. Please go to the UCAS website for full details of points allocated. When selecting their programme of study, learners should check the degree entry requirements with the relevant provider.

Total Qualification Time

For all regulated qualifications, Pearson specifies a total number of hours that it is expected the average learner can be expected to undertake in order to complete and show achievement for the qualification: this is the Total Qualification Time (TQT).

Within the TQT, there are Guided Learning Hours (GLH), which a centre delivering the qualification is likely to need to provide. Guided learning means activities that directly or immediately involve tutors and assessors in teaching, supervising, and invigilating learners, such as lessons, tutorials, online instruction, supervised study, giving feedback on performance.

As well as guided learning, there is other required learning directed by tutors or assessors. This includes private study, preparation for assessment and undertaking assessment when not under supervision, such as preparatory reading, revision and independent research.

These qualifications also have a credit value which is equal to one tenth of TQT. Pearson consults with users of these qualifications in assigning TQT and credit values.

The TQT and GLH values for the qualifications in this specification are:

- Certificate – 300 TQT – (180 GLH)
- Subsidiary Diploma – 600 TQT – (360 GLH)
- 90-credit Diploma – 900 TQT – (540 GLH)
- Diploma – 1200 TQT – (720 GLH)
- Extended Diploma – 1800 TQT – (1080 GLH).

Purpose of these BTEC qualifications in Creative Media Production

Rationale for these BTEC qualifications in Creative Media Production

The creative media sector is a dynamic, growing and rewarding sector. The UK's creative industries as a whole are worth over £84 billion per year to the UK economy. There are a range of different production roles across areas such as film, TV and radio, digital publishing, VFX and games. Working in the creative media industry might involve researching audiences and generating new ideas for programmes and products; being involved in the production of media products, for example recording sound, filming and creating assets; working in post-production editing digital footage or creating animated sequences. In the games industry, job roles can also involve testing and debugging new games. These creative industries are linked by the need to inform, entertain and engage audiences.

BTEC Level 3 qualifications in creative media production give learners the opportunity to progress in the creative sector, whether their chosen route is employment, an apprenticeship or university. All qualifications for this sector introduce learners to pre-production techniques for the creative media industries and communication skills for creative media production. These areas of learning focus on the planning and communication techniques needed to research, organise and collaborate on media productions and products.

The BTEC Certificate and Subsidiary Diploma qualifications are structured in specialist pathways related to a specific discipline and career direction that develop professional understanding related to creative media production. The pathways are:

- Radio
- Sound Recording
- Print-based Media
- Interactive Media
- Games Development
- Television and Film.

The 90-Credit Diploma, Diploma and Extended Diploma qualifications allow learners to continue with one of these six specialist pathways by offering greater depth in a particular specialism. Alternatively, learners could choose to study a broader general media programme, reflecting convergence of media disciplines in the sector and opening up further opportunities for career progression.

The specification has been structured to allow learners maximum flexibility in selecting optional units so that their particular interests and career aspirations in the creative media sector can be reflected in their choice of unit combinations.

After further study or training, learners could progress into a range of job roles in the creative media sector, for example:

- Production Assistant
- Animator
- Broadcast Journalist
- Camera Person
- Director

- Content Producer
- Games Designer
- Games Tester
- Sound Operator
- Radio Producer.

Assessment and grading

All units are internally assessed in the BTEC qualifications in this specification.

All assessment for the BTEC qualifications in this specification is criterion referenced, based on the achievement of specified learning outcomes. Each unit has specified assessment and grading criteria which are used for grading purposes. A summative unit grade can be awarded at pass, merit or distinction:

- to achieve a 'pass' a learner must have satisfied all the pass assessment criteria
- to achieve a 'merit' a learner must additionally have satisfied all the merit grading criteria
- to achieve a 'distinction' a learner must additionally have satisfied all the distinction grading criteria.

Learners who complete the unit but who do not meet all the pass criteria are graded 'unclassified'.

Grading domains

The grading criteria are developed in relation to grading domains which are exemplified by a number of indicative characteristics at the level of the qualification.

There are four BTEC grading domains:

- application of knowledge and understanding
- development of practical and technical skills
- personal development for occupational roles
- application of generic skills.

Please refer to Annexe A, which shows the merit and distinction indicative characteristics.

Guidance

The purpose of assessment is to ensure that effective learning has taken place to give learners the opportunity to:

- meet the assessment and grading criteria; and
- achieve the learning outcomes in the units.

All the assignments created by centres should be reliable and fit for purpose, and should build on the assessment and grading criteria. Assessment tasks and activities should enable learners to produce valid, sufficient and reliable evidence that relates directly to the specified criteria. Centres should enable learners to produce evidence in a variety of different forms, including written reports, graphs and posters, along with projects, performance observation and time-constrained assessments.

Centres are encouraged to emphasise the practical application of the assessment and grading criteria, providing a realistic scenario for learners to adopt, and making maximum use of practical activities and work experience. It is important that assignments are fit for purpose as they are vital to achievement.

The assessment and grading criteria must be clearly indicated in the fit-for-purpose assignments. This gives learners focus and helps with internal verification and standardisation processes. It will also help to ensure that learner feedback is specific to the assessment and grading criteria.

When looking at the assessment and grading grids and when designing assignments, centres are encouraged to identify common topics and themes.

The units include guidance on appropriate assessment methodology. A central feature of vocational assessment is that it allows for assessment to be:

- current, i.e. to reflect the most recent developments and issues
- local, i.e. to reflect the employment context of the delivering centre
- flexible to reflect learner needs, i.e. at a time and in a way that matches the learner's requirements so that they can demonstrate achievement.

Calculation of the qualification grade

Pass qualification grade

Learners who achieve the minimum eligible points will achieve the qualification at pass grade (see Structure of the Pearson BTEC Level 3 qualifications in this specification).

Qualification grades above pass grade

Learners will be awarded a merit or distinction or distinction* qualification grade (or combination of these grades appropriate to the qualification) by the aggregation of points gained through the successful achievement of individual units. The number of points available is dependent on the unit level and grade achieved, and the credit size of the unit (as shown in the points available for unit credits achieved at different levels and unit grades below).

Points available for unit credits achieved at different levels and unit grades

The table below shows the number of points scored per unit credit at the unit level and grade.

Unit level	Points per unit credit
	Pass	Merit	Distinction
Level 2	5	6	7
Level 3	7	8	9
Level 4	9	10	11

Learners who achieve the correct number of points within the ranges shown in the Qualification grade table will achieve the qualification merit or distinction or distinction* grade (or combinations of these grades appropriate to the qualification).

Quality assurance of centres

Pearson's qualification specifications set out the standard to be achieved by each learner in order for them to gain the qualification. This is done throughout the learning outcomes, and assessment and grading criteria in each unit. Further guidance on delivery and assessment is given in the Essential guidance for tutors section in each unit. This section is designed to provide guidance related to the unit to support tutors, deliverers and assessors and to provide coherence of understanding and a consistency of delivery and assessment.

Approval

Centres that have not previously offered BTEC qualifications will first need to apply for, and be granted, centre approval before they can apply for approval to offer the programme.

When a centre applies for approval to offer a BTEC qualification they are required to enter into an approvals agreement.

The approvals agreement is a formal commitment by the head or principal of a centre to meet all the requirements of the specification and any linked codes or regulations. Sanctions and tariffs may be applied if centres do not comply with the agreement. Ultimately, this could result in the suspension of certification or withdrawal of approval.

Centres will be allowed 'accelerated approval' for a new programme where the centre already has approval for a programme that is being replaced by the new programme.

The key principles of quality assurance are that:

- a centre delivering BTEC programmes must be an approved centre and must have approval for programmes or groups of programmes that it is operating
- the centre agrees, as part of gaining approval, to abide by specific terms and conditions around the effective delivery and quality assurance of assessment; it must abide by these conditions throughout the period of delivery
- Pearson makes available to approved centres a range of materials and opportunities intended to exemplify the processes required for effective assessment and examples of effective standards. Approved centres must use the materials and services to ensure that all staff delivering BTEC qualifications keep up to date with the guidance on assessment
- an approved centre must follow agreed protocols for standardisation of assessors and verifiers; planning, monitoring and recording of assessment processes; and for dealing with special circumstances, appeals and malpractice.

The approach of quality assured assessment is made through a partnership between an approved centre and Pearson. We are committed to ensuring that we follow best practice and employ appropriate technology to support quality assurance processes where practicable. Therefore, the specific arrangements for working with centres will vary. We seek to ensure that the quality assurance processes that we use do not place undue bureaucratic processes on centres and we work to support centres in providing robust quality assurance processes.

Pearson monitors and supports centres in the effective operation of assessment and quality assurance. The methods which we use to do this for these BTEC programmes include:

- ensuring that all centres have completed appropriate declarations at the time of approval undertaking approval visits to centres where necessary
- the requirement that all centres appoint a Lead Internal Verifier for designated groups of programmes and that the Lead Internal Verifier is trained and supported in carrying out the role
- the requirement that the Lead Internal Verifier completes compulsory online standardisation related to assessment and verification decisions for the designated programme
- assessment sampling and verification, through requested samples of assessments, completed assessed learner work and associated documentation
- overarching review and assessment of a centre's strategy for assessing and quality assuring its BTEC programmes.

Pearson Quality Assurance Handbook

Centres should refer to the Pearson Quality Assurance Handbook for detailed guidance.

An approved centre must make certification claims only when authorised by Pearson and strictly in accordance with requirements for reporting.

Centres that do not fully address and maintain rigorous approaches to quality assurance will be prevented from seeking certification for individual programmes or for all BTEC programmes. Centres that do not comply with remedial action plans may have their approval to deliver qualifications removed.

Pearson BTEC Centre Guide to Internal Assessment

For further information regarding malpractice and appeals, please see Pearson's BTEC Centre Guide to Internal Assessment, available on our website.

Programme design and delivery

The BTEC qualifications in this specification consist of mandatory units and optional units. Optional units are designed to provide a focus to the qualification and more specialist opportunities.

In BTEC qualifications each unit has a number of Guided Learning Hours and centres are advised to take this into account when planning the programme of study associated with this specification.

Mode of delivery

Pearson does not define the mode of study for the BTEC qualifications in this specification. Centres are free to offer the qualifications using any mode of delivery (such as full time, part time, evening only, distance learning) that meets their learners' needs. Whichever mode of delivery is used, centres must ensure that learners have appropriate access to the resources identified in the specification and to the subject specialists delivering the units. This is particularly important for learners studying for the qualification through open or distance learning.

Learners studying for the qualification on a part-time basis bring with them a wealth of experience that should be used to maximum effect by tutors and assessors. The use of assessment evidence drawn from learners' work environments should be encouraged. Those planning the programme should aim to enhance the vocational nature of the qualification by:

- liaising with employers to ensure that the course is relevant to learners' specific needs
- accessing and using non-confidential data and documents from learners' workplaces
- including sponsoring employers in the delivery of the programme and, where appropriate, in the assessment
- linking with company-based/workplace training programmes
- making full use of the variety of experience of work and life that learners bring to the programme.

Resources

The BTEC qualifications in this specification are designed to prepare learners for employment in specific occupational sectors. Physical resources need to support the delivery of the programme and the proper assessment of the learning outcomes and should, therefore, normally be of industry standard. Staff delivering programmes and conducting the assessments should be familiar with current practice and standards in the sector concerned. Centres will need to meet any specific resource requirements to gain approval from Pearson.

Where specific resources are required these have been indicated in individual units in the Essential resources sections.

Delivery approach

It is important that centres develop an approach to teaching and learning that supports the specialist vocational nature of BTEC qualifications and the mode of delivery. Specifications give a balance of practical skill development and knowledge requirements, some of which can be theoretical in nature. Tutors and assessors need to ensure that appropriate links are made between theory and practical application and that the knowledge base is applied to the sector. This requires the development of relevant and up-to-date teaching materials that allow learners to apply their learning to actual events and activity within the sector. Maximum use should be made of the learner's experience.

An outline learning plan is included in every unit as guidance to demonstrate one way of planning the delivery and assessment of the unit. The outline learning plan can be used in conjunction with the programme of suggested assignments.

Where the qualification has been designated and approved as a Technical Certificate and forms part of an Apprenticeship scheme, particular care needs to be taken to build strong links between the learning and assessment for the BTEC qualification and the related NVQs and Functional Skills that also contribute to the scheme.

Meeting local needs

Centres should note that the qualifications set out in this specification have been developed in consultation with centres, employers and the Sector Skills Councils or standards setting bodies for the relevant sector. To meet learners' needs, and local skills and training needs, centres should make maximum use of the choice available to them in the optional units. However, in certain circumstances, the optional units given in this specification might not allow centres to meet a local need. In this situation, centres are allowed to seek approval to use units from other BTEC (QCF) qualifications; this is called Meeting Local Needs (MLN).

The following conditions must be met when using units from other BTEC (QCF) qualifications for MLN purposes:

- centres must seek approval from Pearson before delivering or assessing units from other qualifications, they must do this before 31st January in each academic year
- MLN units cannot replace mandatory units
- units must be from BTEC (QCF) qualifications only
- the coherence, purpose and vocational focus of the qualifications must be maintained
- the content of MLN units cannot overlap with content in units already available in the qualification structure
- the number and level of units used must comply with the rules set out in the qualification structures.

The process of seeking MLN approval:

- check the rules for MLN in the specification
- submit an MLN request to Pearson. This should outline the rationale for the proposed units, explaining how the change is important for learners and how the viability and vocational purpose of the qualification will be retained
- wait for approval from Pearson before delivering or assessing the units.

For the Level 3 qualifications in this specification, the meeting local needs allowance for each qualification size is:

Pearson BTEC Level 3 Certificates in Creative Media Production (QCF)

These qualifications are not designed to include credit from other Level 3 BTEC units.

Pearson BTEC Level 3 Subsidiary Diplomas in Creative Media Production (QCF)

Optional units with a credit value up to 10 can come from other Level 3 BTEC qualifications.

Pearson BTEC Level 3 90-credit Diplomas in Creative Media Production (QCF)

Optional units with a credit value up to 10 can come from other Level 3 BTEC qualifications.

Pearson BTEC Level 3 Diplomas in Creative Media Production (QCF)

Optional units with a credit value up to 20 can come from other Level 3 BTEC qualifications.

Pearson BTEC Level 3 Extended Diplomas in Creative Media Production (QCF)

Optional units with a credit value up to 30 can come from other Level 3 BTEC qualifications.

Functional Skills

The BTEC qualifications in this specification give learners opportunities to develop and apply Functional Skills.

Functional Skills are offered as stand-alone qualifications at Level 2. See individual units for opportunities to cover ICT, Mathematics and English Functional Skills.

Personal, learning and thinking skills

Opportunities are available to develop personal, learning and thinking skills (PLTS) within a sector-related context. PLTS are identified in brackets after the unit pass criteria to which they are associated and they are also mapped in Annexe B. Further opportunities for learners to demonstrate these skills may arise as they progress through their learning.

Access and recruitment

Pearson's policy regarding access to its qualifications is that:

- they should be available to everyone who is capable of reaching the required standards
- they should be free from any barriers that restrict access and progression
- there should be equal opportunities for all wishing to access the qualifications.

Centres are required to recruit learners to BTEC qualifications with integrity. This will include ensuring that applicants have appropriate information and advice about the qualifications and that the qualification will meet their needs. Centres should take appropriate steps to assess each applicant's potential and make a professional judgement about their ability to successfully complete the programme of study and achieve the qualification. This assessment will need to take account of the support available to the learner within the centre during their programme of study and any specific support that might be necessary to allow the learner to access the assessment for the qualification. Centres should consult Pearson's policy on learners with particular requirements.

Centres will need to review the entry profile of qualifications and/or experience held by applicants, considering whether this profile shows an ability to progress to a Level 3 qualification. For learners who have recently been in education, the profile is likely to include one of the following:

- a BTEC Level 2 qualification in Creative Media Production or a related vocational area
- a standard of literacy and numeracy supported by a general education equivalent to four GCSEs at grade 9–4
- other related Level 2 qualifications
- related work experience.

More mature learners may present a more varied profile of achievement that is likely to include experience of paid and/or unpaid employment.

Restrictions on learner entry

Most BTEC qualifications are for learners aged 16 years and over.

In particular sectors, the restrictions on learner entry might also relate to any physical or legal barriers, for example people working in health, care or education are likely to be subject to Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks.

The BTEC qualifications in this specification are listed on the DfE funding lists under Section 96 of the Learning and Skills Act 2000.

Access to qualifications and assessments

We are committed to working with centres that deliver our qualifications to ensure that duties under the Equality Act 2010 (UK) and any other equalities legislation relevant in the UK are fulfilled. Our equality policy requires all learners to have equal opportunity to access our qualifications and assessments, and that our qualifications are awarded in a way that is fair to every learner.

We are committed to making sure that:

- when they are undertaking one of our qualifications, learners with a protected characteristic are not disadvantaged in comparison with learners who do not share that characteristic

- all learners achieve the recognition they deserve for undertaking a qualification and that this achievement can be compared fairly to the achievement of their peers.

Further information on access arrangements can be found in the Joint Council for Qualifications (JCQ) document Access Arrangements, Reasonable Adjustments and Special Consideration.

Details on how to make adjustments for learners with protected characteristics are given in the policy document Reasonable Adjustment and Special Considerations for BTEC and Pearson NVQ Qualifications, which can be found on our website.

Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is a method of assessment (leading to the award of credit) that considers whether a learner can demonstrate that they can meet the assessment requirements for a unit through knowledge, understanding or skills they already possess and so do not need to develop through a course of learning.

Pearson encourages centres to recognise learners' previous achievements and experiences, whether at work, home and at leisure, as well as in the classroom. RPL provides a route for the recognition of the achievements resulting from continuous learning.

RPL enables recognition of achievement from a range of activities using any valid assessment methodology. Provided that the assessment requirements of a given unit or qualification have been met, the use of RPL is acceptable for accrediting a unit, units or a whole qualification. Evidence of learning must be valid and reliable.

Unit format

All units in BTEC qualifications have a standard format. The unit format is designed to give guidance on the requirements of the qualification for learners, tutors, assessors and those responsible for monitoring national standards.

Each unit has the following sections.

Unit title

The unit title will appear on the learner's Notification of Performance (NOP).

Level

All units and qualifications have a level assigned to them, which represents the level of achievement. There are nine levels of achievement, from Entry Level to Level 8. The level of the unit has been informed by the level descriptors and, where appropriate, the National Occupational Standards (NOS) and/or other sector/professional benchmarks.

Credit value

Each unit in BTEC qualifications has a credit value related to the size of the unit.

Guided Learning Hours

Guided Learning Hours (GLH) for the unit, as defined on page 2.

Aim and purpose

The aim is a succinct statement that summarises the learning outcomes of the unit.

Unit introduction

The unit introduction gives the reader an appreciation of the unit in the vocational setting of the qualification, as well as highlighting the focus of the unit. It gives the reader a snapshot of the unit and the key knowledge, skills and understanding gained while studying the unit. The unit introduction also highlights any links to the appropriate vocational sector by describing how the unit relates to that sector.

Learning outcomes

Learning outcomes state exactly what a learner should 'know, understand or be able to do' as a result of completing the unit.

Unit content

The unit content identifies the breadth of knowledge, skills and understanding needed to design and deliver a programme of learning to achieve each of the learning outcomes. The content provides the range of subject material for the programme of learning and specifies the skills, knowledge and understanding required for achievement of the pass, merit and distinction grading criteria.

Each learning outcome is stated in full and then the key phrases or concepts related to that learning outcome are listed in italics followed by the subsequent range of related topics.

Relationship between content and assessment criteria

The learner must have the opportunity within the delivery of the unit to cover all of the unit content.

It is not a requirement of the unit specification that all of the content is assessed. However, the indicative content will need to be covered in a programme of learning in order for learners to be able to meet the standard determined in the assessment and grading criteria. The merit and distinction grading criteria enable the learner to achieve higher levels of performance in acquisition of knowledge, understanding and skills.

Content structure and terminology

The information below shows how unit content is structured and gives the terminology used to explain the different components within the content.

- Learning outcome: this is given in bold at the beginning of each section of content.
- Italicised sub-heading: contains a key phrase or concept. This is content that must be covered in the delivery of the unit. Colons mark the end of an italicised sub-heading.
- Elements of content: the elements are in plain text and amplify the sub-heading. The elements must also be covered in the delivery of the unit. Semi-colons mark the end of an element.
- Brackets contain amplification of content that must be covered in the delivery of the unit.
- 'e.g.' is a list of examples used for indicative amplification of an element (i.e. the content specified in this amplification that could be covered or that could be replaced by other, similar, material).

Assessment and grading grid

Each grading grid gives the assessment and grading criteria used to determine the evidence that each learner must produce in order to receive a pass, merit or distinction grade. It is important to note that the merit and distinction grading criteria require a qualitative improvement in a learner's evidence and not simply the production of more evidence at the same level.

Essential guidance for tutors

This section gives tutors additional guidance and amplification to aid understanding and a consistent level of delivery and assessment. It is divided into the following sections.

- Delivery – explains the content's relationship with the learning outcomes and offers guidance about possible approaches to delivery. This section is based on the more usual delivery modes but is not intended to rule out alternative approaches.
- Outline learning plan – the outline learning plan has been included in every unit as guidance and demonstrates one way in planning the delivery and assessment of a unit. The outline learning plan can be used in conjunction with the programme of suggested assignments.
- Assessment – gives amplification about the nature and type of evidence that learners need to produce in order to pass the unit or achieve the higher grades. This section should be read in conjunction with the grading criteria.
- Suggested programme of assignments – the table shows how the suggested assignments match and cover the assessment and grading criteria.
- Links to National Occupational Standards, other BTEC units, other BTEC qualifications and other relevant units and qualifications – sets out links with other units in the qualification. These links can be used to ensure that learners make connections between units, resulting in a coherent programme of learning. The links show opportunities for integration of learning, delivery and assessment.
- Essential resources – identifies any specialist resources needed to allow learners to generate the evidence required for each unit. The centre will be asked to ensure that any requirements are in place when it seeks approval from Pearson to offer the qualification.
- Employer engagement and vocational contexts – provides a short list of agencies, networks and other useful contacts for employer engagement and for sources of vocational contexts.

Personal, learning and thinking skills

A FRAMEWORK OF PERSONAL, LEARNING AND THINKING SKILLS 11–19 IN ENGLAND

The framework comprises six groups of skills that, together with the Functional Skills of English, Mathematics and ICT, are essential to success in learning, life and work. In essence, the framework captures the essential skills of: managing self; managing relationships with others; and managing own learning, performance and work. It is these skills that will enable young people to enter work and adult life confident and capable.

The titles of the six groups of skills are set out below.

For each group there is a focus statement that sums up the range of skills. This is followed by a set of outcome statements that are indicative of the skills, behaviours and personal qualities associated with each group.

Each group is distinctive and coherent. The groups are also inter-connected. Young people are likely to encounter skills from several groups in any one learning experience. For example an independent enquirer would set goals for their research with clear success criteria (reflective learner) and organise and manage their time and resources effectively to achieve these (self-manager). In order to acquire and develop fundamental concepts such as organising oneself, managing change, taking responsibility and perseverance, learners will need to apply skills from all six groups in a wide range of learning contexts 11–19.

Wider curriculum mapping

The BTEC qualifications in this specification give learners opportunities to develop an understanding of spiritual, moral, ethical, social and cultural issues, as well as an awareness of citizenship, environmental issues, European developments, health and safety considerations and equal opportunities issues.

The BTEC qualifications in this specification make a positive contribution to wider curricular areas as appropriate.

Spiritual, moral, ethical, social and cultural issues

These qualifications contribute to an understanding of:

- spiritual issues – individual production practice might be informed by the spiritual beliefs of the practitioner
- moral and ethical issues – learners should be brought to appreciate the need to take responsibility for their own actions when making media products, and to recognise the possible effects of their productions on others; they should also be introduced to the codes of professional practice relevant to the medium (or mediums) within which their programme is contextualised
- social and cultural issues – learners should understand the wider cultural and ideological issues relating to the media industries; they should be introduced to issues such as the positive role of the media as a mechanism for learning and socialisation when it acts as a vehicle for campaigning on social and moral issues, supporting economic development, and circulating discussions relating to race, gender and cultural differences. They should also begin to think about the possible negative effects in such areas as ownership, control and corporate domination, bias, representation of minorities, propaganda, and cultural imperialism; questions around the effects of the media on society – in relation to advertising and consumerism, or the depiction of violence, for example – could also be considered.

Citizenship issues

Learners undertaking BTEC qualifications in this specification will have the opportunity to develop their understanding of citizenship issues, for example when working as a member of a team and negotiating group decisions.

Environmental issues

Environmental issues can be brought into the programme if learners wish to use them as a starting point for their own work or wish to study the work of other media professionals who use it as subject matter in their work. Learners should be made aware of the possibilities of using sustainable resources. This may relate to paper-based products or the use of biodegradable materials for recording, packaging and distributing media products.

European developments

There are opportunities within this specification to undertake work with a European dimension even though it is taught in a UK context. This could be done through investigating the work of European media producers or producing original work with a European focus.

Health and safety considerations

As the BTEC qualifications in this specification are practically based, health and safety issues are encountered throughout the qualification and health and safety factors will play a major part in the development of skills. The practice and implementation of safe working practices is required in all units that involve practical production activity. Learners will develop awareness of the safety of others as well as themselves in all practical activities and will be expected to observe safe working practices at all times when in a media production environment. Learners should be made aware of the requirements for handling heavy objects, electrical and electronic equipment, and the legislation governing time spent working with VDUs. There is a requirement for learners to be aware of the need to comply with public safety and local by-laws when working off the centre's premises.

Equal opportunities issues

Equal opportunities issues are implicit throughout the BTEC qualifications in this specification.

Examples of calculation of qualification grade above pass grade

Pearson will automatically calculate the qualification grade for learners when unit grades are submitted. The generic examples below demonstrate how the qualification grade above pass is calculated.

Points available for unit credits achieved at different levels and unit grades

The table below shows the number of points scored per unit credit at the unit level and grade.

Unit level	Points per unit credit

Level 2	5	6	7
Level 3	7	8	9
Level 4	9	10	11
