Dear Tara

I write following your request to the Hospitality Guild, as a representative organisation for hospitality employers, to include Pearson qualifications within the school and college performance tables for 16-19 year olds. Having considered the list you provided, we are pleased to support of the following qualifications that are considered appropriate for this age range:

Qualification Accreditation Number (QAN)	Qualification Title
600/2243/7	Pearson BTEC Level 3 Certificate in Food and Beverage Service Supervision
600/2244/9	Pearson BTEC Level 3 Diploma in Food and Beverage Service Supervision
600/2003/9	Pearson Edexcel Level 3 Diploma in Craft Cuisine
600/0872/6	Pearson BTEC Level 3 Certificate in Hospitality & Catering Principles (Professional Cookery)
Will be confirmed by September	Pearson BTEC Level 3 Diploma in Advanced Professional Cookery
As above	Pearson BTEC Level 3 90 credit Diploma in Hospitality (QCF)
500/8197/4	Pearson BTEC Level 3 Subsidiary Diploma in Hospitality (QCF)
500/8209/7	Pearson BTEC Level 3 Extended Diploma in Hospitality (QCF)

We are confident that the content within the qualifications above prepare learners for a career in this industry, by providing a substantial number of units which represent the core competencies of the role alongside a range of options. Our support, however, is based on the assumption that these qualifications are a basis for progression onto other industry qualifications and/or programmes that provide work based learning, as set out in the Hospitality Guild careers portal.

We also confirm permission for the Hospitality Guild to be named on the DfE and Pearson website to demonstrate our support for these qualifications.

Yours sincerely

Simon Tarr
