The BTEC Awards 2020

Terms and conditions

Full terms and conditions for the BTEC Awards 2020.

- 1) These rules shall be binding upon submitting a nomination for The BTEC Awards 2020 (the "Awards").
- 2) The Awards are promoted by Pearson Education Limited, with registered office at 80 Strand, London, WCR2 0RL, United Kingdom and registered number 872828 ("Pearson"). Enquiries relating to the Awards (including enquiries about the name of the eventual winners or the personal data collected about the name of the eventual winners or the personal data collected about you (a "nominator") as a result of your submission should be addressed to "BTEC Awards 2020" and sent to Pearson at the following address; 80 Strand, London, WCR2 0RL. Personal details of nominators and nominees provided will be used only for informing shortlisted nominees and winners of results and will thereafter be destroyed unless wider use has been permitted by the nominator or nominee. Pearson reserves the right to disclose the names of the winners on request from a third party. Pearson will not pass on details of a nominator to anyone making a general enquiry.
- 3) The Awards are open to nominators who are eligible to make a nomination in accordance with the eligibility criteria outlined.
- 4) Nominations may be submitted for students, apprentices, teachers/tutors, schools/multi-academy trusts, colleges or apprenticeship providers based who satisfy the eligibility criteria outlined.
- 5) If a nominee is under 18 years old permission must be obtained from their parent or legal guardian before their name and address and that of their school, college or training provider is forwarded to Pearson to be considered for an award. If a nominee is under 18 years old and is invited to attend the Awards ceremony, the nominee must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian.
- 6) Employees, agents, contractors or consultants of Pearson or their families or anyone connected to the Awards are not eligible to nominate or be nominated for an award.

7) Only one nomination per nominee is permitted. Automated entries will be invalidated, including multiple entries from the same IP address. A nominator cannot nominate themselves for an award.

8) To be entered into the Awards, nominations must be made by completing and submitting the form. All nominations must be made with the full knowledge, consent, and co-operation of the nominee. Each nominator agrees to indemnify Pearson from and against any claims or liability under the Data Protection Act 1998 arising from the supply to Pearson by that nominator of any third party personal data made without such knowledge, consent, and cooperation.

9) Proof of sending email/SMS, making a phone call or completing an online entry, is not proof of our receipt of your nomination. Pearson is not responsible for nominations that are lost, delayed or damaged or for problems with nominations outside its control. Any nominations emailed, posted, faxed or sent by SMS text will not be accepted.

10) Each nomination must be the nominator's own original work and must not include anyone else's material. Each nominator agrees to indemnify Pearson from and against any and all liability arising from their nomination infringing any third party intellectual property rights (including without limitation copyright) being defamatory, libelous, or otherwise unlawful. All material submitted as part of any nomination and the copyright in such material shall become the property of Pearson. No nomination or supporting material will be returned.

11) The nominator and the nominee shall give all necessary consents for Pearson to produce publicity material based on the nomination and judges' decision, which may be edited by Pearson if required, and agree to participate without financial reward in interviews and publicity which may be used by Pearson in any media worldwide (including but not limited to incorporating it into any of Pearson's websites and in email communications and publishing the nominee's name and details of their nomination and the nominee's photograph).

12) The panel of judges will be made up of member(s) of the Pearson senior leadership team, journalists and external employers. Pearson reserves the right to request further information and evidence supporting a nomination. Nominations successfully shortlisted to stage two will be required to provide additional information to support their initial nomination and will be required to accept these terms and conditions prior to continuing in the process. The final judging panel will shortlist finalists and runners up under each award category. Shortlisted nominees will be contacted on or after the date of the final judging panel with an update regarding their nomination.

to taking part in photographs and video interviews which may be used by Pearson in any media worldwide. Award winners may be required to take part in or co-operate with post-event publicity and consent to providing their contact details for such purpose.

24) Award winners must agree to keep confidential any information about Pearson and its business and personnel received by them as a result of the Awards.

25) Use of false name, or address, e.g. name by which a nominee is not usually known, will disqualify them from receiving any prize. Pearson reserves the right to oblige any potential winner to provide documentary proof of their identity and address as directed by Pearson before such person may claim their prize.

26) We will keep the personal details of all shortlisted nominees for a reasonable time so that we can send them any prize that they have won, to verify that these rules have been complied with and for accounting purposes. We may pass such details to our service providers and agents for the purposes of sending Award winners the prize on our behalf.

27) By submitting a nomination you confirm that you have read and agree to our Legal Policy and Privacy Policy.

28) These rules are governed by the laws of England and Wales.

29) In the event of unforeseen circumstances, Pearson reserves the right to alter, amend or foreclose the Awards (including changing any award category) without prior notice.

30) Pearson reserves the right to amend these rules at any time. By submitting a nomination all nominators will be deemed to have accepted and be bound by the rules and by any other requirements set out in the Awards material.
