Question Number	Indicative Content
4(b)	Explanations could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An advantage of travelling by train is that it is cheaper than travelling by air. • Travelling by train takes less time than travelling by train. • A disadvantage of travelling by train is that the actual journey takes longer and is more tiring • An advantage of travelling by air is that it is more relaxing because there is less time on the actual journey most time is spent waiting at the terminal building. • A disadvantage of travelling by air is the inconvenient location of the airport so time is wasted getting to the airport. It takes 4 hours to travel their by train and 6 hours to travel to Manchester by air. This is a disadvantage because Mr Hardwick would have to get up earlier and get back later. It might also be more tiring as he is travelling for longer.
Level	Mark	Descriptor
	0	No rewardable material
1	1-2	A basic response. Simple descriptive statements about the advantages and disadvantages of the different journeys using the information in the table. Such as: the train cost £100. The aeroplane takes longer.
2	3-4	A limited response with some development. The top of the level has some explanation. Advantages and disadvantages are considered but limited to 1 method of transport.
3	5-6	A fully developed response. For the top of the level advantages and disadvantages should be discussed for both forms of transport.
