PART 2 - AN ARTICLE ABOUT VOLUNTARY WORK

Note to candidate: this question has three sections; a plan, a draft and a final piece of writing.

You have often worked as a volunteer, sometimes on environmental conservation projects, gardening and clearing land. At other times you have worked for organisations which help the elderly, arrange holiday activities for children or provide companions for people who are ill or disabled.

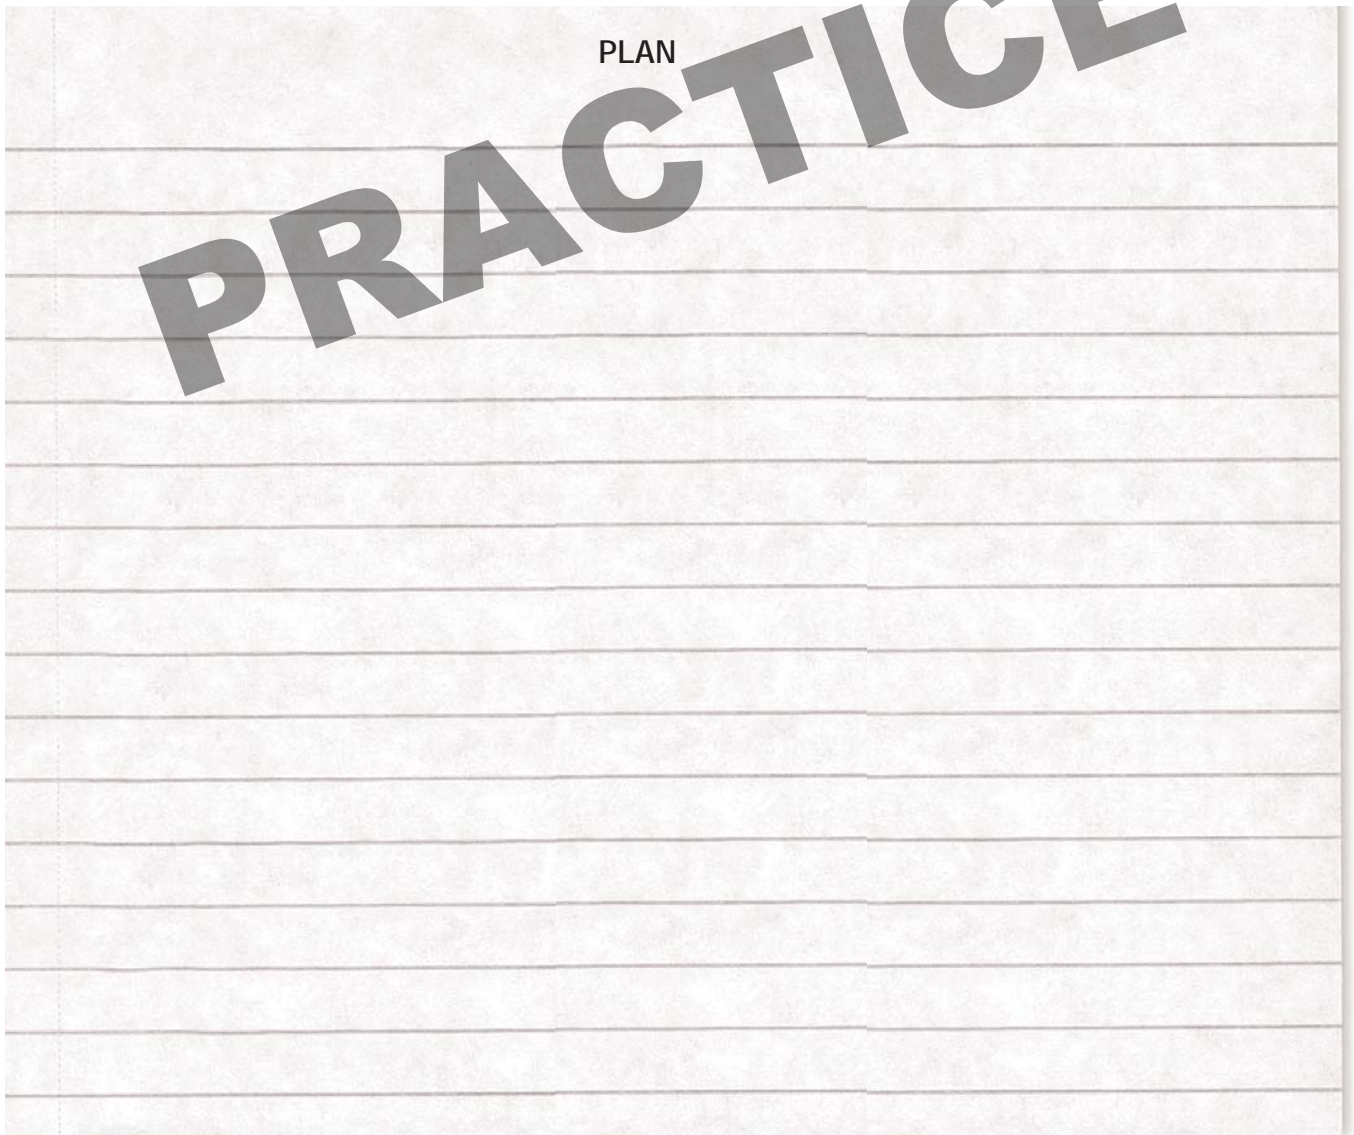

You would like more people to know how rewarding voluntary work can be. You decide to write an article for the local newspaper. You could write about:

- where you have worked.
- what you have done.
- the people you have helped.
- why voluntary work should be encouraged.
- how other people can help.

Use the box below to help you plan your article. You can use a diagram or rough notes for your plan. Your final article should be no more than 150 words.

PLAN

PRACTICE

Write your draft here. You should link your ideas and show correct use of paragraphs.

DRAFT

A large, spiral-bound notebook is shown on the left side of the page. The notebook is open, and the right-hand page is visible. The page is ruled with horizontal lines. The word "DRAFT" is printed at the top center of the page. A large, diagonal watermark reading "PRACTICE" is overlaid across the page. The notebook's spiral binding is on the left edge.

Check your draft for spelling and punctuation and write your final, corrected article in the space below.

- write clearly and neatly
- use complex sentences
- ensure proper use of pronouns
