	Plenary Remind students of the learning objective and recap on what they have learnt in this and the previous two lessons. Use Wrapping up on page 10 to (1) remind students what skills they need when working with text and images, and (2) explain what they are and what they are not expected to do in the test. Tell students that the next couple of lessons are about paper-based publications.	10 mins
