T.U.K.

TUK (Tread United Kingdom) are one of the few remaining boot makers based in the UK, but also have connections with America and many punk bands endorse them. TUK shoes are inspired by a rich history in music, art and fashion that represent individuality and expression. They are original and known for their signature look and craftsmanship. They mainly produce high heels, but also trainers.

out of all of their brands these are my favourite! The pink in them (hearts, faces) give them a girly edge whilst the skulls give the shoes a punk feel.

TUK do many different styles of shoes in different styles I think they are very nice and unique.

I left the stitching of the boots visible to make this page a bit different like the shoes.

IMVU

IMVU is a 3D virtual (chat) messaging service. Other members (developers) create the avatars, top-ups etc.

GLORI

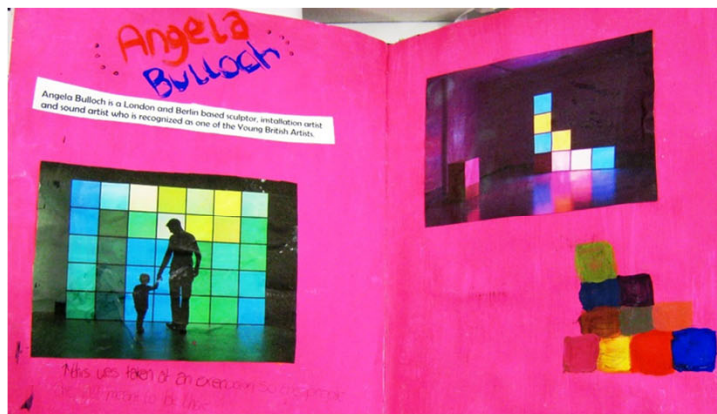

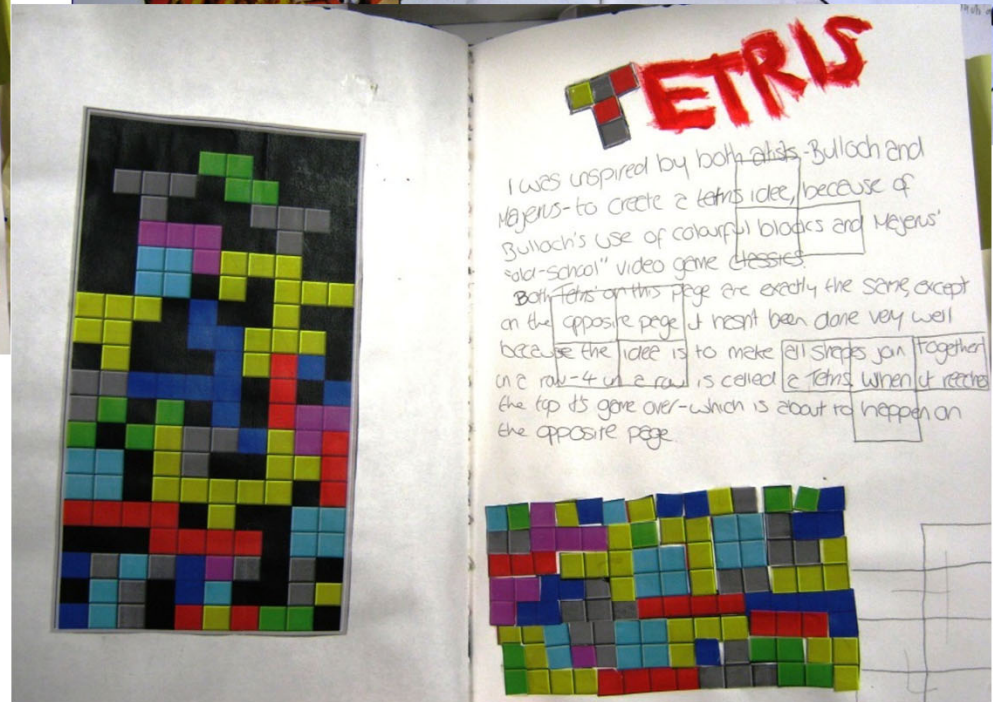

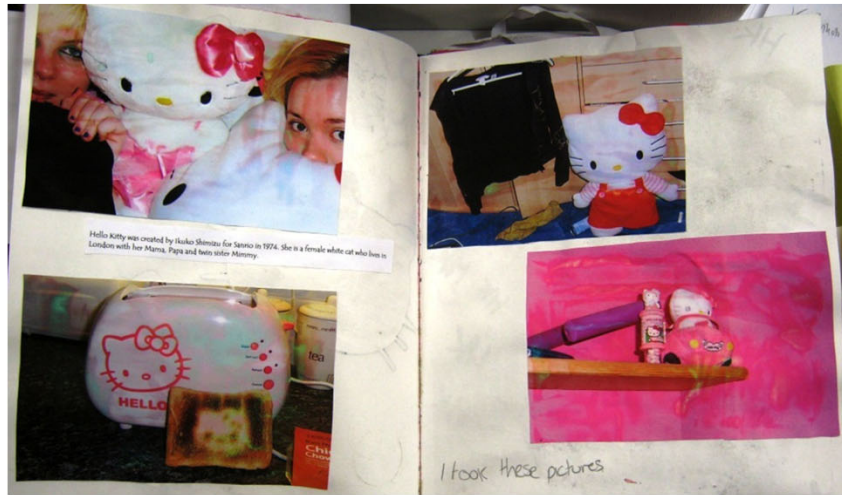

Glow is a professional (PRO) designer/created developer. She made this top - The sample card opposite shows some of her creations (used with permission)

Niki De Saint Phalle

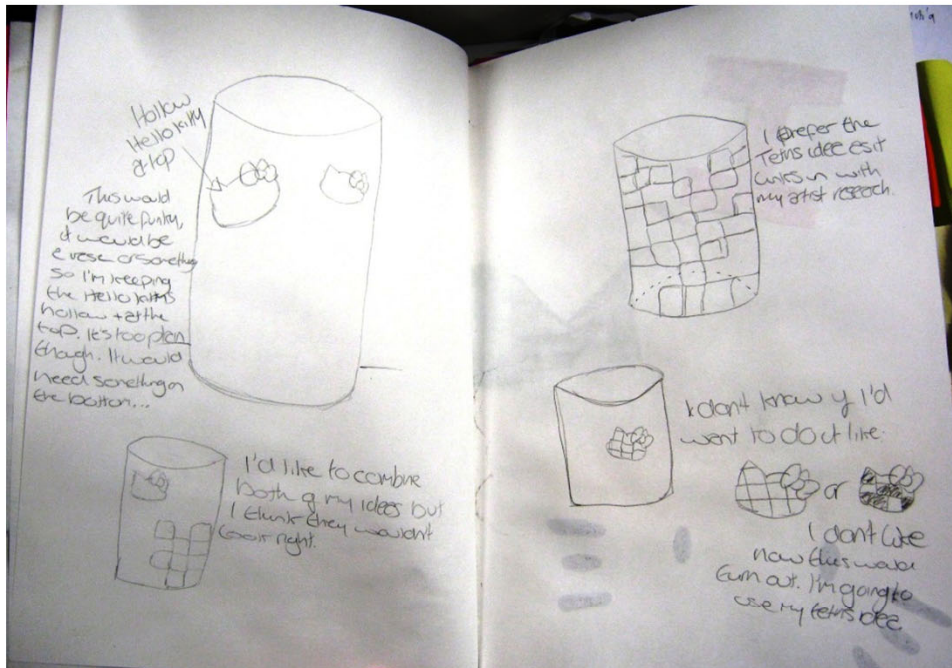

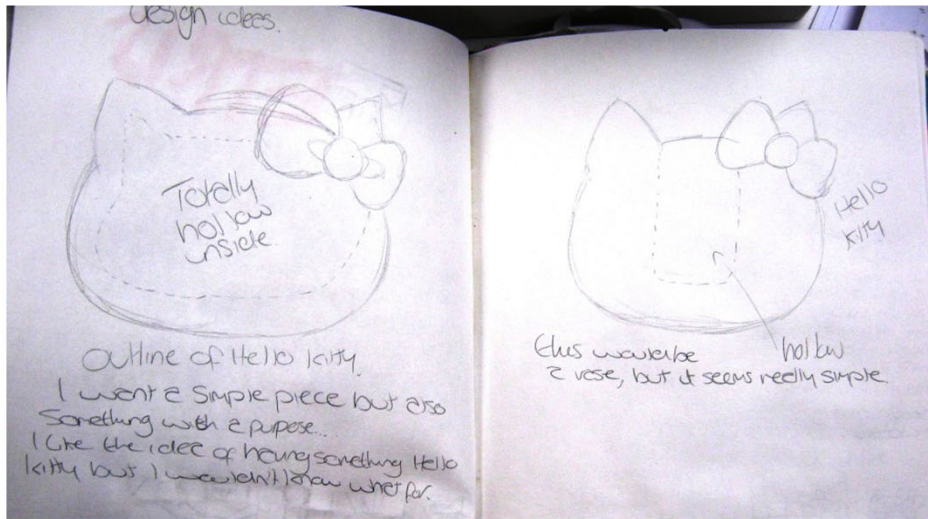

I love her sculptures which have lots of personal items built into them.

This piece is called Pink Heart but the only image I could find was in black & white - nevertheless I like it. It has doll parts, flowers, toy animals, wire masks, leaves and vines.
