Network 3: 22nd March 2022

Title: Question Setting using Existing Materials

The third in our series of monthly spring term Business GCSE network events, focuses on supporting you as you gear up towards revision for the Summer series, by looking at how to use all of the available existing materials to develop a plan for question setting. In this session you will see examples and take away materials to help you prepare and deliver a concise and broad revision programme of assessment using materials available already.
