

GCSE English September 2022 reminders

November 2022 exam series for GCSE English Language 1EN0 and 1EN2

Resit rules

Entry deadline: 4 October 2022

Eligibility: any student who was aged at least 16 on 31 August 2022

SLE: enter grades on Edexcel Online by 5.11.22; no audio-visual recordings required

Exam format for 1EN0: we have made some minor amendments to the format to improve the experience for students. See the issue 3 sample assessment materials for details.

Exam dates 1EN0/1EN2:

31 October 22, am: 1EN0 01 & 1EN2 01

2 November, am: 1EN0 02 & 1EN2 02

AI

1EN0: transactional writing: a section for a guide or a speech

1EN2: transactional writing: a blog or an article

You will find two 'blog' exemplars in this pack (see pages 51-54)

June 2023 exam series

No adjustments (AI/optionality) for the June 2023 exam series

1EN0/1EN2

- Both specifications now include a list of the transactional writing text types that will be set in exams
- 1EN0: article, letter, review, text for a speech, section for a guide/textbook/leaflet/booklet.
- 1EN2: article, blog, formal email, letter, report, review, text for a speech, section for guide/textbook/leaflet/booklet
- 1EN0: minor format changes to the question papers

SLE: audio-visual samples and submitting on the LWT

- A sample of audio-visual recordings of SLE assessments is required

- For cohorts of 30 students or more: 10 distinctions, 10 merits and 10 passes from across teaching groups. Centres select their own sample
- Full details are in the 1EN0/1EN2 specifications and in the administrative support guide.
- Submit SLE grades on Edexcel Online by 15 May 2023
- Submit audio-visual recordings on the Learner Work Transfer (LWT) portal by 15 May 2023

1ET0

- Assessed as in the specification.
- Students are assessed on 4 texts (Shakespeare, post-1914 literature, 19th-century novel and poetry since 1789)
- Paper 2 returns to 2 hours and 15 minutes