

GCSE and A level English

Whatever guidance you're looking for, we're always here to help

Over the last year we held 94 GCSE and A level free Network events

You told us:

Really useful ideas for teaching.

Brilliant! Productive, engaging and thoroughly useful.

The focus on Q4/Q6 was excellent.

Great to have clarification of language in the exam and mark scheme.

Next year our free Network events will include even more exemplar material, more literature materials and more time for networking. You can access all the resources from the 2015/2016 Network events from our website.

- ▶ GCSE
- ▶ A level English Language
- ▶ A level English Literature
- ▶ A level English Language and Literature

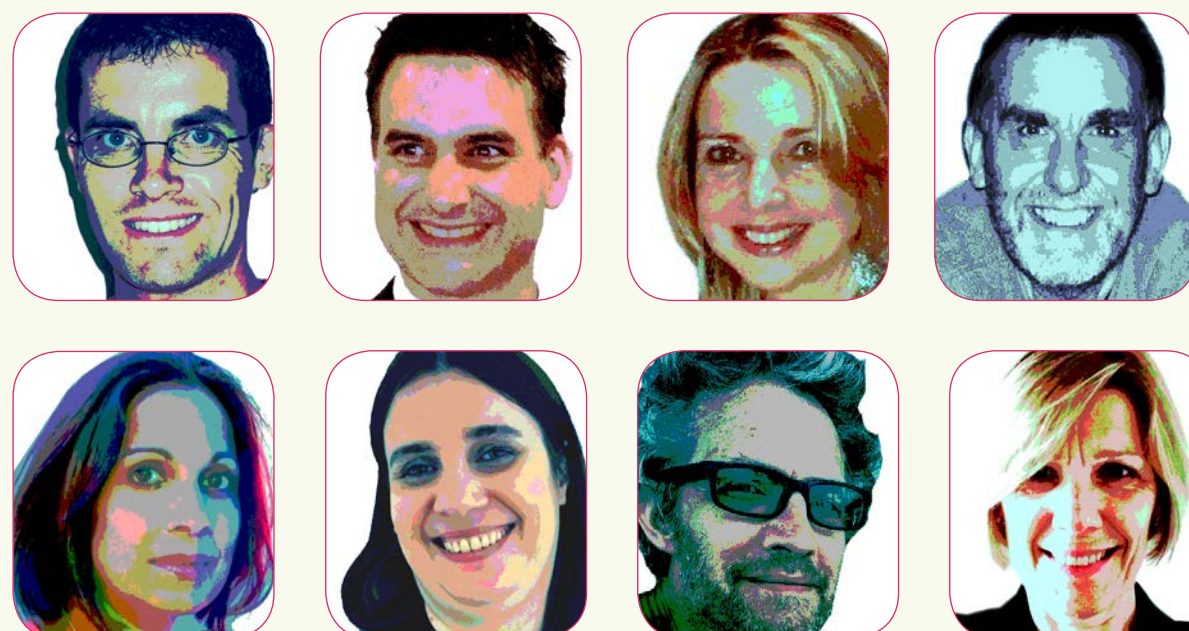

Last year our English subject specialists made 161 visits to centres

You told us:

It was excellent: erudite... We really enjoyed it and came out feeling clearer on the spec, which incidentally we're enjoying very much.

Supportive visit confirmed our decision.

Meet our expert team and book an appointment for a visit to your centre.

Training Events

✔ Mocks Marking - NEW for 2016

Help with applying the new mark schemes, so you can be confident you're getting a clear picture of how your students are performing during the new, linear GCSE and A level English courses.

We also have free training events for:

- ✔ Getting Ready to Teach
- ✔ Coursework marking and standardisation training for A level English Literature, English Language and English Language and Literature
- ✔ More support with the GCSE specification

Book now for 2016/17

- ▶ GCSE (9-1) English Language
- ▶ GCSE (9-1) English Literature
- ▶ A level English Language
- ▶ A level English Literature
- ▶ A level English Language and Literature

Get the support you need

If you're planning to teach our Edexcel GCSE or A level, fill out our short Intention to Offer form so that we can keep you updated and send your free welcome pack with all the information you need to get started.

Thank you to everyone that attended one of our events last year and gave us invaluable feedback.

