A second man directed them to a disused outside lavatory. Inside, there was a small hole in the floor, just big enough for a man to slip through. A third conspirator showed them how to get in: you had to lower yourself in backwards, then slide into the tunnel. Tillemann stepped in. He found himself in a narrow tunnel, two feet high and three feet wide, and started crawling. He was under the Berlin Wall, on his way to freedom.

From the extract, give TWO ways the writer describes the place to escape.
