

Vocabulary

Unit 2 Quiz answers

Where possible, reasons for incorrect answers have been given to provide you with specific feedback. The number of the relevant booster activity addressing the error is included in brackets after each incorrect answer, e.g. (B1).

Question 1: Recognising the purpose of words

	Instruct	Explain	Persuade	Describe
You must prepare well.	✓
It is easy to change your lifestyle to prevent health issues.			✓
It was such an incredible experience.				✓
The amazing opportunity is just too good to miss.			✓
This is because it is against health and safety regulations.		✓

If you have selected other options, you might need more practice recognising descriptive and persuasive vocabulary (B1), explanatory words (B5) and / or explanatory texts (B6).

Question 2: The purpose of words 1

Correct answer:

persuade you to listen to music

If you have selected another option, you may need more practice recognising persuasive words (B1).

Question 3: The purpose of words 2

Correct answer:

(a) explains where people listen to music

If you have selected another option, you may need more practice recognising persuasive vocabulary (B1) and / or identifying explanatory words (B5).

Question 4: The purpose of words 3

Correct answer:

(c) to instruct

If you have selected another option, you may need more practice identifying descriptive and persuasive words (B1) and / or identifying explanatory words (B5), and / or identifying explanatory texts (B6).

Question 5: The purpose of words 4

Correct answer:

(d) to explain

If you have selected another option, you may need more practice identifying descriptive and persuasive words (B1) and / or recognising explanatory words (B5), and / or identifying explanatory texts (B6).

Question 6: Formal words

According to research published today, young people are being criticised for a lack of awareness of what are necessities in life. One young person quoted in the study says that renting a home 'would mean giving up my car and cutting down on essentials like hair and make-up products, my mobile phone and the internet'.

If you have selected another option, you may need more practice identifying formal words (B7) and / or informal words (B8).