

Spotlight on: exam results

Results day is the culmination of a huge amount of hard work from you and from your students. Once you've finished celebrating, you may want to dig deeper into their marks, analyse their performance and better understand how papers are graded. Here we've rounded up everything you'll need in terms of post-results support for languages qualifications.

Results dates	ResultsPlus	Access to Scripts
Check the dates that results go out to centres and to students for each qualification and exam series on our key dates for results page.	ResultsPlus is our free, online results analysis tool for teachers. It gives you a detailed breakdown of your students' performance on each exam question. Use it to compare exam performance at class, department, centre, multi-academy trust and national levels. ResultsPlus also helps to inform your planning, identifying topics, skills and question types where learners may need to develop. Find out more.	Our free Access to Scripts service enables you to view and download your candidates' online marked scripts. You will be able to evaluate how your candidates performed on individual questions and how that is reflected in their final grade. It will also help you identify skills gaps to inform future teaching and learning. Find out more.

Enquiries about results	Paper availability	Understanding marks and grades
If you have any concerns about a student's results, find out more about our post-results services, including clerical checks and re-marking requests.	We publish question papers and mark schemes on our website following the completion of the exam session. Examiner reports are published following results day. All materials are initially uploaded with a silver padlock, which means they can be accessed only by teachers and administrators with an Edexcel Online login.	We set new grade boundaries each time a new exam or assessment is completed. Get an overview of how we mark assessments and consistently award grades that fairly reflect each learner's performance on our understanding marks and grades page. You can also look at the available exemplars on the relevant qualification pages of our website. These include past candidate answers with marks and examiner commentaries.

Quality marking	Converting raw marks	Grade boundaries
We take our responsibility to issue the correct results first time very seriously. Quality assurance procedures are in place throughout every stage of the exam cycle, from the recruitment and training of examiners through to issuing certificates. Find out more about the marking process.	Ever wondered why final marks are different to the total scores from the exam papers? 'Raw' marks from papers are converted to scaled marks for linear qualifications and to UMS (uniform mark scale) for modular qualifications. Find out more and use the raw mark conversion tools on our converting marks, points and grades page.	You can find all available grade boundaries using our online search tool. 