Expert training and support
Our network events, are a great opportunity to meet other schools in your area and always have a different teaching and learning focus as suggested by you.

New locations added every year!

This year our specialists will deliver 30 GCSE and A level Network events

You told us:

“Clear information, will help with future planning. Excellent trainer subject knowledge.”
Nicola Henderson, Graham School

“Useful as we were very interactive so good practice was shared and informative for Ao3.”
Aslam Dabhelia, Green Oak Academy

“Thank you Bob for delivering an insightful event, being open to questions, and being exceptionally understanding, thoughtful and helpful in your responses. A brilliant training, that will inevitably assist the students through better teaching, as it got to the core of what it means to be a good geographer”
Deborah Syme, Woodhouse 6th form College
Meet our subject specialists

Andrea Wood was a teacher for many years, having roles as an AST and Head of Faculty. Recently Andrea has taken up a role as an Associate Tutor at Edge Hill University on the PGCE Geography course and has been heavily involved in the writing and delivery of the online and face to face training for the new GCSE and A level Pearson specifications. Andrea has contributed to the writing of support materials for the new Pearson Edexcel GCSE Geography qualifications and was an author for the Pearson paid for resources. She is currently the Assistant Principal examiner for the Pearson Geography B Paper 2 and a ATE officer for Pearson GCSE Geography. Alongside this Andrea is a freelance Geography consultant and teaching and learning trainer.

Simon Holland is an RGS Chartered Geographer who has taught for many years in a successful Sixth Form College. He is a passionate geography teacher with a wealth of experience as an examiner, coursework advisor, subject specialist and CPD trainer and is a strong advocate for the subject.

Ben Ward is a Senior Assistant Headteacher in a secondary comprehensive school in Lancashire. Ben has worked as a Geography consultant for Lancashire County Council hosting subject networks, leading CPD and supporting NQTs. Through his role as the Director of Teaching School he has worked in partnership with a large number of schools across the North West, supporting whole school leadership as well as working with a number of geography departments on a broad range of topics including curriculum, assessment and teaching and learning. Ben has been a member of our examiner team since 2004 and is a former Principal Examiner for GCSE Geography. In addition to marking, Ben has produced a wide range of support materials for Pearson, including curriculum planners, schemes of work and getting started guides. Ben remains an avid geographer and a passionate teacher.

Dan Mace is an Assistant Head at Langley Grammar School in Slough, and Specialist Leader of Education for Geography and Gifted/Talented. He arrived as an NQT in 2006 and has worked at the school as an AST and Lead Practitioner specialising in creativity, technology and pedagogy. He has also been the Subject Leader for Geography and PSHE. Dan is a Pearson examiner, trainer and author.

Bob Digby works as a freelance education consultant, having taught for 35 years. He spent 24 years working in three secondary schools in Leeds and London, and 11 years as a PGCE tutor at Sheffield, Manchester, and Brunel universities. He has been published extensively, writing course textbooks for Pearson Edexcel GCSE and A level specifications as well as articles in student journals such as ‘Wideworld’. He is a former President of the Geographical Association and is currently its Honorary Treasurer. Bob currently marks for both GCSE and A level. He lives in Cornwall and therefore spends a good deal of time on trains!

Christian Goude is Faculty Leader for Humanities and Subject Leader for Geography at the City of Norwich School having taught in various Norfolk schools for 14 years. Christian is a Specialist Leader of Education for Ormiston Academies Trust.
Our specialists not only deliver our network events up and down the country, but are available to provide support and expert advice to you and your department. Below are some examples of what they can deliver:
