

Meet your History Team

Mark Anstee

Hello, I'm Mark, Product Manager for History and Politics at Pearson. I've been at Pearson for 12 years, mostly spent working in Maths publishing and product management, but my background is in History, and I'm a historian at heart. My aim here is to understand better the requirements of you and your learners, so that we can support you more effectively in delivering our History and Politics qualifications.

Mark Battye

Hi, I'm Mark, the History Subject Advisor. I've been at Pearson Edexcel for 20 years and in that time I've performed a number of roles and worked on the development of a number of new History specifications. My main responsibility is to help teachers to understand the content and assessment requirements of our specifications and to keep you up to date with all the latest qualification and resources news. I look forward to supporting you in the future.

Laura Westcott

Hi, I'm Laura Westcott, Senior Qualification Manager for Humanities at Pearson Edexcel. I have been with Pearson for over seven years and am passionate about promoting high quality education that enables young people to make sense of the world around them. I've found it extremely helpful to understand specifications and assessments from both teacher and student perspectives as well as Pearson's, so I know we're designing great qualifications that are engaging, clear and accessible.

Jo Cleary

Hello, I'm Jo and I'm the Head of Humanities at Pearson. I have worked at Pearson for over 15 years and managed Humanities for over 5 of those, where we have been responsible for developing the strategy and support for Humanities qualifications. My aim in my role is to support the team in creating qualifications that are clear, accessible and engaging as well as being accompanied by all the support you need to teach them successfully.
