Edexcel, BTEC and LCCI qualifications
Edexcel, BTEC and LCCI qualifications are awarded by Pearson, the UK’s largest awarding body offering academic and vocational qualifications that are globally recognised and benchmarked. For further information, please visit our qualification websites at www.edexcel.com, www.btec.co.uk or www.lcci.org.uk. Alternatively, you can get in touch with us using the details on our contact us page at qualifications.pearson.com/contactus

About Pearson
Pearson is the world’s leading learning company, with 40,000 employees in more than 70 countries working to help people of all ages to make measurable progress in their lives through learning. We put the learner at the centre of everything we do, because wherever learning flourishes, so do people. Find out more about how we can help you and your learners at qualifications.pearson.com

References to third party material made in these sample assessment materials are made in good faith. Pearson does not endorse, approve or accept responsibility for the content of materials, which may be subject to change, or any opinions expressed therein. (Material may include textbooks, journals, magazines and other publications and websites.)

All information in this document is correct at time of publication.

Original origami artwork: Mark Bolitho
Origami photography: Pearson Education Ltd/Naki Kouyioumtzis

ISBN 978 1 4469 2583 6
All the material in this publication is copyright © Pearson Education Limited 2015
Contents

Introduction

Paper 1: Thematic study and historic environment

- Option 10: Crime and punishment in Britain, c1000–present and Whitechapel, c1870–c1900: crime, policing and the inner city

- Option 11: Medicine in Britain, c1250–present and the British sector of the Western Front 1914–18: injuries, treatment and the trenches

- Option 12: Warfare and British society, c1250–present and London and the Second World War, 1939–45

Paper 2: Period study and British depth study

- Option 20: Spain and the ‘New World’, c1490–c1555 and medieval depth options

- Option 21: Spain and the ‘New World’, c1490–c1555 and Tudor depth options

- Option 22: British America, 1713–83: empire and revolution and medieval depth options

- Option 23: British America, 1713–83: empire and revolution and Tudor depth options

- Option 24: The American West, c1835–c1895 and medieval depth options

- Option 25: The American West, c1835–c1895 and Tudor depth options

- Option 26: Superpower relations and the Cold War, 1941–91 and medieval depth options

- Option 27: Superpower relations and the Cold War, 1941–91 and Tudor depth options

- Option 28: Conflict in the Middle East, 1945–95 and medieval depth options

- Option 29: Conflict in the Middle East, 1945–95 and Tudor depth options

Paper 3: Modern depth study

- Option 30: Russia and the Soviet Union, 1917–41

- Option 31: Weimar and Nazi Germany, 1918–39

- Option 32: Mao’s China, 1945–76

- Option 33: The USA, 1954–75: conflict at home and abroad
Introduction

The Pearson Edexcel Level 1/Level 2 GCSE (9–1) in History is designed for use in schools and colleges. It is part of a suite of GCSE qualifications offered by Pearson.

These sample assessment materials have been developed to support this qualification and will be used as the benchmark to develop the assessment students will take.

This document contains the question papers.
The mark schemes can be found in a separate publication.
Instructions

- Use black ink or ball-point pen.
- Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
- There are two sections in this question paper. Answer Questions 1 and 2 from Section A. From Section B, answer Questions 3 and 4 and then EITHER Question 5 OR Question 6.
- Answer the questions in the spaces provided – there may be more space than you need.

Information

- The total mark for this paper is 52.
- The marks for each question are shown in brackets – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.
- The marks available for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology are clearly indicated.

Advice

- Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
- Check your answers if you have time at the end.
SECTION A
Whitechapel, c1870–c1900: crime, policing and the inner city

Answer Questions 1 and 2.

1 Describe two features of accommodation for the poorer people in the Whitechapel area.

Feature 1

Feature 2

(Total for Question 1 = 4 marks)
2 (a) Study Sources A and B in the Sources Booklet.

How useful are Sources A and B for an enquiry into the effectiveness of the police in Whitechapel in 1888?

Explain your answer, using Sources A and B and your knowledge of the historical context.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
(b) Study Source A.

How could you follow up Source A to find out more about the effectiveness of the police in Whitechapel in 1888?

In your answer, you must give the question you would ask and the type of source you could use.

Complete the table below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Detail in Source A that I would follow up:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Question I would ask:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>What type of source I could use:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>How this might help answer my question:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(Total for Question 2 = 12 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 16 MARKS
SECTION B
Crime and punishment in Britain, c1000–present

Answer Questions 3 and 4. Then answer EITHER Question 5 OR Question 6.

3 Explain one way in which smuggling in Britain during the eighteenth century was similar to smuggling during the twentieth century.

(Total for Question 3 = 4 marks)
4 Explain why there were changes in the prison system in the period c1700–c1900.

You may use the following in your answer:

- John Howard
- hard labour

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain two more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 4 = 12 marks)
Explain why there were changes in the prison system in the period c1700–c1900.

You may use the following in your answer:

• John Howard
• hard labour

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER Question 5 OR Question 6.

Spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology will be assessed in this question.

EITHER

5 ‘The role of local communities was the most important factor affecting law enforcement during the Middle Ages.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

- tithings
- trial by ordeal

You must also use information of your own.

(Total for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)
(Total for Question 5 = 20 marks)

OR

6 ‘The main purpose of punishment during the period c1000–c1700 was to deter people from committing crimes.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

- corporal punishment
- the introduction of transportation

You must also use information of your own.

(Total for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)
(Total for Question 6 = 20 marks)
The role of local communities was the most important factor affecting law.

EITHER

The main purpose of punishment during the period c1000–c1700 was to deter people from committing crimes.

You must use information of your own.

You may use the following in your answer:

• tithings

Also use information of your own.

Spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology

Answer EITHER Question 5 OR Question 6.

(Total for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)

(Total for Question 5 = 20 marks)

(Total for Question 6 = 20 marks)

DO NOT WRITE IN THIS AREA

Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☑ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑.

Chosen question number: Question 5 ☐ Question 6 ☐

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 36 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 52 MARKS
Pearson Edexcel GCSE (9–1)

History

Paper 1: Thematic study and historic environment
Option 10: Crime and punishment in Britain, c1000–present and Whitechapel, c1870–c1900: crime, policing and the inner city

Sample assessment materials for first teaching
September 2016
Sources Booklet

Paper Reference
1HI0/10

Do not return this booklet with the question paper.
Sources for use with Section A.

Source A: An artist’s impression of a scene in the Whitechapel district of London in 1888. It was printed in the Penny Illustrated Paper, a cheap weekly newspaper. The police constable is from H Division. The building behind him is a police station.

A mob in Spitalfields
Source B: From an article in The Times newspaper, October 1888. The Times was a national newspaper, mainly read by the upper classes.

Many critical comments have been made about police failures in connection with the Whitechapel murders. However, it should be remembered that this type of woman chooses to go alone to the place where she has agreed to meet a man.

Some weeks ago, plain-clothes policemen were ordered to patrol this crime-ridden area of Whitechapel and to watch any man or woman seen together in suspicious circumstances.

At about the time when the Mitre Square murder was being committed two of the extra men who had been put on duty were nearby. They would have seen any man and woman going together to Mitre Square.

Therefore the police suspect that the murderer had made an appointment with his female victim and they went to the place separately.

Acknowledgments

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.
History
Paper 1: Thematic study and historic environment
Option 11: Medicine in Britain, c1250–present and The British sector of the Western Front, 1914–18: injuries, treatment and the trenches

Sample assessment materials for first teaching
September 2016
Time: 1 hour 15 minutes

You must have:
Sources Booklet (enclosed)

Instructions

• Use black ink or ball-point pen.
• Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
• There are two sections in this question paper. Answer Questions 1 and 2 from Section A. From Section B, answer Questions 3 and 4 and then EITHER Question 5 OR Question 6.
• Answer the questions in the spaces provided – there may be more space than you need.

Information

• The total mark for this paper is 52.
• The marks for each question are shown in brackets – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.
• The marks available for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology are clearly indicated.

Advice

• Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
• Check your answers if you have time at the end.

Turn over
SECTION A: The British sector of the Western Front, 1914–18: injuries, treatment and the trenches

Answer Questions 1 and 2.

1 Describe two features of the support trench system on the Western Front.

Feature 1

Feature 2

(Total for Question 1 = 4 marks)
2 (a) Study Sources A and B in the Sources Booklet.

How useful are Sources A and B for an enquiry into the problems involved in performing operations on the Western Front?

Explain your answer, using Sources A and B and your knowledge of the historical context.

(8)
(b) Study Source B.

How could you follow up Source B to find out more about the problems involved in performing operations on the Western Front?

In your answer, you must give the question you would ask and the type of source you could use.

Complete the table below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Detail in Source B that I would follow up:</th>
<th>Question I would ask:</th>
<th>What type of source I could use:</th>
<th>How this might help answer my question:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(Total for Question 2 = 12 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 16 MARKS
SECTION B: Medicine in Britain, c1250–present

Answer Questions 3 and 4. Then answer EITHER Question 5 OR 6.

3 Explain one way in which people’s reactions to the plague in Britain were similar in the fourteenth and seventeenth centuries.

(Total for Question 3 = 4 marks)
4 Explain why there was rapid change in the treatment of illness in Britain during the twentieth century.

You may use the following in your answer:

• magic bullets
• high-tech treatment

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain two more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 4 = 12 marks)
Explain why there was rapid change in the treatment of illness in Britain during the twentieth century.

- high-tech treatment
- magic bullets

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER Question 5 OR Question 6.

Spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology will be assessed in this question.

EITHER

5 ‘There was little progress in medicine in Britain during the Renaissance period (c1500–c1700).’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• the work of William Harvey
• bloodletting and purging

You must also use information of your own.

(Total for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)
(Total for Question 5 = 20 marks)

OR

6 ‘Jenner’s vaccination against smallpox was a major breakthrough in the prevention of disease in Britain during the period c1700–c1900.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• cowpox
• cholera

You must also use information of your own.

(Total for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)
(Total for Question 6 = 20 marks)
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ✗. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ✗ and then indicate your new question with a cross ✗.

Chosen question number:

Question 5 ✗  Question 6 ✗

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]
History
Paper 1: Thematic study and historic environment
Option 11: Medicine in Britain, c1250–present
and The British sector of the Western Front, 1914–18:
injuries, treatment and the trenches

Sample assessment materials for first teaching September 2016
Sources Booklet

Do not return this booklet with the question paper.
Sources for use with Section A.

Source A: From an account by Reverend Leonard Pearson, who was the army chaplain at Casualty Clearing Station 44 during the Battle of the Somme (1916).

I spent most of my time giving anaesthetics. I had no right to be doing this because I had no medical qualifications, but we were simply so rushed. We couldn’t get the wounded into the hospital quickly enough and the journey from the battlefield was simply terrible for these poor lads. It was a question of operating as quickly as possible. If they had to wait their turn in the normal way, until the surgeon was able to perform the operation with a doctor giving the anaesthetic, it would have been too late for many of them. As it was, many died. We all simply had to help and do anything that was needed.

Source B: From the diary of Oswald Robertson, written on 30 November 1917. He was an army surgeon working on the Western Front during the First World War.

Men were horribly mutilated – many were dying when brought into the ward. All the beds were full and we began putting stretchers on the floor. Blood everywhere – clothes soaked in blood, pools of blood in the stretchers, streams of blood dropping from the stretchers to the floor. My rubber apron was one solid red smear. All we could do was try to stop the bleeding and get the patients as comfortable as possible. I could only transfuse an occasional patient. The majority had to take their chance and go through the operation as best they could.

Acknowledgments

Source A adapted from Lyn Macdonald, The Roses of No Man’s Land, Penguin, 1980, 2013; Source B adapted from an unpublished diary.

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.
S49232A

Sources for use with Section A.

Source A: From an account by Reverend Leonard Pearson, who was the army chaplain at Casualty Clearing Station 44 during the Battle of the Somme (1916).

I spent most of my time giving anaesthetics. I had no right to be doing this because I had no medical qualifications, but we were simply so rushed. We couldn’t get the wounded into the hospital quickly enough and the journey from the battlefield was simply terrible for these poor lads. It was a question of operating as quickly as possible. If they had to wait their turn in the normal way, until the surgeon was able to perform the operation with a doctor giving the anaesthetic, it would have been too late for many of them. As it was, many died. We all simply had to help and do anything that was needed.

Source B: From the diary of Oswald Robertson, written on 30 November 1917. He was an army surgeon working on the Western Front during the First World War.

Men were horribly mutilated – many were dying when brought into the ward. All the beds were full and we began putting stretchers on the floor. Blood everywhere – clothes soaked in blood, pools of blood in the stretchers, streams of blood dropping from the stretchers to the floor. My rubber apron was one solid red smear. All we could do was try to stop the bleeding and get the patients as comfortable as possible. I could only transfuse an occasional patient. The majority had to take their chance and go through the operation as best they could.

Acknowledgments

Source A adapted from Lyn Macdonald, The Roses of No Man’s Land, Penguin, 1980, 2013; Source B adapted from an unpublished diary.

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.

Turn over
SECTION A: London and the Second World War, 1939–45

Answer Questions 1 and 2.

1 Describe two features of the East End of London that made it a target for the German Blitz.

Feature 1

Feature 2

(Total for Question 1 = 4 marks)
2 (a) Study Sources A and B in the Sources Booklet.

How useful are Sources A and B for an enquiry into what was done to protect civilians in London from bombing raids?

Explain your answer, using Sources A and B and your own knowledge of the historical context.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
(b) Study Source A.

How could you follow up Source A to find out more about what was done to protect civilians in London from bombing raids?

In your answer, you must give the question you would ask and the type of source you could use.

Complete the table below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Detail in Source A that I would follow up:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Question I would ask:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>What type of source I could use:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>How this might help answer my question:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(Total for Question 2 = 12 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 16 MARKS
SECTION B: Warfare and British society, c1250–present

Answer Questions 3 and 4. Then answer EITHER Question 5 or 6.

3 Explain one way in which the reporting of war in Britain was different in the coverage of the Crimean War and the Iraq War (2003).

(Total for Question 3 = 4 marks)
4 Explain why recruitment to the army in Britain has changed so much since 1900.

You may use the following in your answer:

- conscription
- National Service

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain two more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 4 = 12 marks)
Explain why recruitment to the army in Britain has changed so much since 1900.

You must use the following in your answer:

- National Service
- conscription

You may use information of your own.

(Total for Question 4 = 12 marks)
Answer EITHER Question 5 OR Question 6.

Spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology will be assessed in this question.

EITHER

5 ‘The creation of the New Model Army (1645) was a turning point in the composition of the army in Britain in the period c1500–c1700.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

16

You may use the following in your answer:

• a standing army
• the use of cavalry, c1500–c1700

You must also use information of your own.

(Total for spelling, punctuation grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)
(Total for Question 5 = 20 marks)

OR

6 ‘The use of artillery was the main reason why warfare changed during the period c1700–c1900.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

16

You may use the following in your answer:

• the use of infantry squares during the Battle of Waterloo
• the use of artillery during the Crimean War

You must also use information of your own.

(Total for spelling, punctuation grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)
(Total for Question 6 = 20 marks)
How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

The creation of the New Model Army (1645) was a turning point in the composition of the army in Britain in the period c1500–c1700.

The use of artillery was the main reason why warfare changed during the period c1700–c1900.

You must also use information of your own.

Total for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks

Total for Question 6 = 20 marks

Total for Question 5 = 20 marks

Chosen question number:

Question 5

Question 6

[TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 36 MARKS

TOTAL FOR PAPER = 52 MARKS]

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]
Sources for use with Section A.

Source A: From the memories of Constance Holt, who was editor of a magazine during the war. She was interviewed about the Blitz for the book Don’t You Know There’s A War On?, published in 1989.

Most of the tube stations were taken over as shelters, as there weren’t enough big public shelters that people could get to. Russell Square Station was one of these. I remember on several occasions coming back from the theatre by tube, and when I got out at Russell Square, bunks had been put all along the platform, and you’d see women doing up their curlers and getting ready for bed. Of course, you’d try not to look at them because they were in their ‘bedrooms’.

I remember there was a little bit of snobbery about stations. I heard one woman say, ‘Oh, us and our family go to Regent’s Park now, it’s nicer people.’ And the children used to go for rides on the tube. At least their mothers knew where they were, and it was much safer than the street.

Source B: A photograph showing Anderson shelters being delivered to houses in central London in February 1939.

Acknowledgments

Source A adapted from Jonathan Croall, Don’t you know there’s a War on? Voices from the Home Front, The History Press, 2006; Source B © Stephenson/Stringer/Getty Images.

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.
Sources for use with Section A.

Source A:
From the memories of Constance Holt, who was editor of a magazine during the war. She was interviewed about the Blitz for the book Don’t You Know There’s A War On?, published in 1989.

Most of the tube stations were taken over as shelters, as there weren’t enough big public shelters that people could get to. Russell Square Station was one of these.

I remember on several occasions coming back from the theatre by tube, and when I got out at Russell Square, bunks had been put all along the platform, and you’d see women doing up their curlers and getting ready for bed. Of course, you’d try not to look at them because they were in their ‘bedrooms’.

I remember there was a little bit of snobbery about stations. I heard one woman say, ‘Oh, us and our family go to Regent’s Park now, it’s nicer people.’ And the children used to go for rides on the tube. At least their mothers knew where they were, and it was much safer than the street.

Source B:
A photograph showing Anderson shelters being delivered to houses in central London in February 1939.

Acknowledgments
Source A adapted from Jonathan Croall, Don’t you know there’s a War on? Voices from the Home Front, The History Press, 2006; Source B © Stephenson/Stringer/Getty Images.

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.
SECTION A: Spain and the ‘New World’, c1490–c1555

Answer ALL Questions in this section.

1 Explain two consequences of the New Laws (1542).

Consequence 1:

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

Consequence 2:

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

[The live question paper will contain four more answer lines.]

(Total for Question 1 = 8 marks)
2 Write a narrative account analysing the key events of 1519–21 that led to the Aztec surrender.

You may use the following in your answer:
- Cortes's expedition (1519)
- the capture of Tenochtitlan (1521)

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 8 marks)
3 Explain two of the following:

- The importance of the Treaty of Tordesillas (1494) for Spanish exploration. (8)

- The importance of Balboa’s claim of authority over the Pacific (1513) for the Spanish empire. (8)

- The importance of the capture of Atahualpa (1533) for the Spanish defeat of the Incas. (8)

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)
The importance of the capture of Atahuallpa (1533) for the Spanish defeat of the Incas.

The importance of Balboa’s claim of authority over the Pacific (1513) for the Spanish empire.

The importance of the Treaty of Tordesillas (1494) for Spanish exploration.

Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑️. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒️ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑️.

☐ The importance of the Treaty of Tordesillas (1494) for Spanish exploration.

☐ The importance of Balboa’s claim of authority over the Pacific (1513) for the Spanish empire.

☐ The importance of the capture of Atahualpa (1533) for the Spanish defeat of the Incas.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Indicate your SECOND choice on this page.

Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the Treaty of Tordesillas (1494) for Spanish exploration.

☐ The importance of Balboa’s claim of authority over the Pacific (1513) for the Spanish empire.

☐ The importance of the capture of Atahuallpa (1533) for the Spanish defeat of the Incas.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 32 MARKS
SECTION B: Medieval depth options
Answer EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5.

EITHER
Option B1: Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, c1060–88
Question 4

OR
Option B2: The reigns of King Richard I and King John, 1189–1216
Question 5
Option B1: Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, c1060-88

Answer Question 4(a), 4(b) and EITHER 4(c)(i) OR 4(c)(ii).

4 (a) Describe two features of the Witan.

(4)

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why there was a disputed succession to the English throne when William I died.

(12)

You may use the following in your answer:

- Normandy
- Bishop Odo

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The main reason William I was able to keep control of England in the years 1066–75 was the building of castles.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• The design of motte and bailey castles
• Lanfranc and the Church

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘The main consequence of the appointment of Lanfranc as Archbishop of Canterbury in 1070 was an increase in Norman control of England.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• Archbishop Stigand
• monasteries

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box 🗙. If you change your mind, put a line through the box 🗙 and then indicate your new question with a cross 🗙.

Chosen question:    (c)(i)  ❌  (c)(ii)  ❌

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 4 = 32 marks)
If you answer Question 5, put a cross in this box ☒.

Option B2: The reigns of King Richard I and King John, 1189-1216

Answer Question 5(a), 5(b) and EITHER 5(c)(i) OR 5(c)(ii).

5 (a) Describe two features of knight service in the years 1189–1216.

(4)

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why there were anti-Jewish pogroms in 1189–90.

You may use the following in your answer:

- moneylending
- the coronation of King Richard I

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The loss of Normandy was the main consequence of England’s involvement in fighting overseas in the years 1189–1204.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer. (16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• war against Philip II of France
• Richard I’s ransom

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘King John’s attempts to raise money were the main reason for the barons’ rebellion of May–June 1215.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer. (16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• taxes
• loss of land

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box □. If you change your mind, put a line through the box □ and then indicate your new question with a cross □.

Chosen question: (c)(i) □ (c)(ii) □

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 5 = 32 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 32 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 64 MARKS
History

Paper 2: Period study and British depth study

Option 21: Spain and the ‘New World’, c1490–c1555 and Tudor depth options

Sample assessment materials for first teaching September 2016

Time: 1 hour 45 minutes

You do not need any other materials.

Instructions

- Use black ink or ball-point pen.
- Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
- There are two sections in this question paper. Answer all questions from Section A and EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5 in Section B.
- Answer the questions in the spaces provided
  - there may be more space than you need.

Information

- The total mark for this paper is 64.
- The marks for each question are shown in brackets
  - use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.

Advice

- Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
- Try to divide your time equally between each section of the question paper.
- Check your answers if you have time at the end.
SECTION A: Spain and the ‘New World’, c1490–c1555

Answer ALL Questions in this section.

1 Explain two consequences of the New Laws (1542).

Consequence 1:

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

Consequence 2:

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

[The live question paper will contain four more answer lines.]

(Total for Question 1 = 8 marks)
2 Write a narrative account analysing the key events of 1519–21 that led to the Aztec surrender.

You may use the following in your answer:

- Cortes’s expedition (1519)
- the capture of Tenochtitlan (1521)

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 8 marks)
3 Explain two of the following:

- The importance of the Treaty of Tordesillas (1494) for Spanish exploration. (8)
- The importance of Balboa’s claim of authority over the Pacific (1513) for the Spanish empire. (8)
- The importance of the capture of Atahualpa (1533) for the Spanish defeat of the Incas. (8)

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)
Indicate your FIRST choice on this page.

Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the Treaty of Tordesillas (1494) for Spanish exploration.

☐ The importance of Balboa’s claim of authority over the Pacific (1513) for the Spanish empire.

☐ The importance of the capture of Atahualpa (1533) for the Spanish defeat of the Incas.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Indicate your SECOND choice on this page.

Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the Treaty of Tordesillas (1494) for Spanish exploration.

☐ The importance of Balboa’s claim of authority over the Pacific (1513) for the Spanish empire.

☐ The importance of the capture of Atahuallpa (1533) for the Spanish defeat of the Incas.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 32 MARKS
SECTION B: Tudor depth options
Answer EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5.

EITHER

Option B3: Henry VIII and his ministers, 1509–40

Question 4 Page XX

OR

Option B4: Early Elizabethan England 1558–88

Question 5 Page XX
If you answer Question 4, put a cross in this box ✗.

Option B3: Henry VIII and his ministers, 1509–40

Answer Question 4(a), 4(b) and EITHER 4(c)(i) OR 4(c)(ii).

4 (a) Describe two features of the Amicable Grant (1525).

Feature 1

Feature 2

(b) Explain why Anne Boleyn was executed in 1536.

(12)

You may use the following in your answer:

- the succession
- Thomas Cromwell

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘Wolsey’s failure to gain an annulment for Henry was the main reason why he fell from power in 1529.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:
- relations with Pope Clement VII
- the nobility

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘The main change for the English Church in the years 1534–40 was that it had to accept King Henry as its head.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:
- the Act of Supremacy
- the dissolution of the monasteries

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box \( \square \). If you change your mind, put a line through the box \( \times \) and then indicate your new question with a cross \( \square \).

Chosen question: \( (c)(i) \)  \( \square \) \( (c)(ii) \)  \( \square \)

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 4 = 32 marks)
Option B4: Early Elizabethan England, 1558–88

Answer Question 5(a), 5(b) and EITHER 5(c)(i) OR 5(c)(ii).

5. (a) Describe two features of the attempts to colonise Virginia in the 1580s.

(4)

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why the Throckmorton Plot (1583) was a threat to Queen Elizabeth.

You may use the following in your answer:
- Mary, Queen of Scots
- foreign threat

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The threat of invasion was Elizabeth’s main problem when she became queen in 1558.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:
- France
- Elizabeth’s legitimacy

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘Religion was the main cause of the Revolt of the Northern Earls in 1569–70.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:
- Catholic grievances
- the Earls of Northumberland and Westmorland

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box \( \Box \). If you change your mind, put a line through the box \( \cancel{\Box} \) and then indicate your new question with a cross \( \Box \).

Chosen question: \( (c)(i) \) \( \Box \) \( (c)(ii) \) \( \Box \)

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 5 = 32 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 32 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 64 MARKS
History

Paper 2: Period study and British depth study
Option 22: British America, 1713–83: empire and revolution and Medieval depth options

Sample assessment materials for first teaching
September 2016

Time: 1 hour 45 minutes

You do not need any other materials.

Instructions

- Use black ink or ball-point pen.
- Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
- There are two sections in this question paper. Answer all questions from Section A and EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5 in Section B.
- Answer the questions in the spaces provided
  – there may be more space than you need.

Information

- The total mark for this paper is 64.
- The marks for each question are shown in brackets
  – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.

Advice

- Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
- Try to divide your time equally between each section of the question paper.
- Check your answers if you have time at the end.

---

Turn over
SECTION A: British America, 1713–83: empire and revolution

Answer ALL questions in this section.

1 Explain two consequences of the French and Indian War for the American colonists in the years 1754–63.

Consequence 1:

..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................

Consequence 2:

..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................

[The live question paper will contain five more answer lines.]

(Total for Question 1 = 8 marks)
2 Write a narrative account analysing the ways in which piracy was suppressed in American waters in the years 1717–c1720.

You may use the following in your answer:

- George I’s Proclamation, 1717
- Governor Spotswood

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 8 marks)
3 Explain two of the following:

- The importance of the Paxton Boys (1763–64) for government in Pennsylvania.
  (8)

- The importance of the Boston Tea Party for relations with Britain, 1773–74.
  (8)

- The importance of the Battle of Saratoga (1777) for the American victory in the war.
  (8)

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)
Indicate your FIRST choice on this page.

Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the Paxton Boys (1763–64) for government in Pennsylvania.

☐ The importance of the Boston Tea Party for relations with Britain, 1773–74.

☐ The importance of the Battle of Saratoga (1777) for the American victory in the war.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Indicate your SECOND choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☑ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the Paxton Boys (1763–64) for government in Pennsylvania.

☐ The importance of the Boston Tea Party for relations with Britain, 1773–74.

☐ The importance of the Battle of Saratoga (1777) for the American victory in the war.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 32 MARKS
SECTION B: Medieval depth options

Answer EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5.

EITHER
Option B1: Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, c1060–88

Question 4

OR
Option B2: The reigns of King Richard I and King John, 1189–1216

Question 5
If you answer Question 4, put a cross in this box □.

Option B1: Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, c1060-88

Answer Question 4(a), 4(b) and EITHER 4(c)(i) OR 4(c)(ii).

4 (a) Describe two features of the Witan.

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why there was a disputed succession to the English throne when William I died.

(12)

You may use the following in your answer:

- Normandy
- Bishop Odo

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The main reason William I was able to keep control of England in the years 1066–75 was the building of castles.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• The design of motte and bailey castles
• Lanfranc and the Church

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘The main consequence of the appointment of Lanfranc as Archbishop of Canterbury in 1070 was an increase in Norman control of England.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• Archbishop Stigand
• monasteries

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ✗. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ✗ and then indicate your new question with a cross ✗.

Chosen question:

(c)(i) \[\square\]

(c)(ii) \[\square\]

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 4 = 32 marks)
If you answer Question 5, put a cross in this box □.

Option B2: The reigns of King Richard I and King John, 1189-1216

Answer Question 5(a), 5(b) and EITHER 5(c)(i) OR 5(c)(ii).

5  (a) Describe two features of knight service in the years 1189–1216.

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why there were anti-Jewish pogroms in 1189–90.

You may use the following in your answer:

- moneylending
- the coronation of King Richard I

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The loss of Normandy was the main consequence of England's involvement in fighting overseas in the years 1189–1204.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:
• war against Philip II of France
• Richard I’s ransom

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘King John’s attempts to raise money were the main reason for the barons’ rebellion of May–June 1215.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:
• taxes
• loss of land

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ✗. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ✗ and then indicate your new question with a cross ✗.

Chosen question:

(c)(i)

(c)(ii)

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 5 = 32 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 32 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 64 MARKS
Instructions

- Use black ink or ball-point pen.
- Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
- There are two sections in this question paper. Answer all questions from Section A and EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5 in Section B.
- Answer the questions in the spaces provided – there may be more space than you need.

Information

- The total mark for this paper is 64.
- The marks for each question are shown in brackets – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.

Advice

- Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
- Try to divide your time equally between each section of the question paper.
- Check your answers if you have time at the end.
SECTION A: British America, 1713–83: empire and revolution

Answer ALL Questions in this section.

1. Explain two consequences of the French and Indian War for the American colonists in the years 1754–63.

Consequence 1:

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

Consequence 2:

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

[The live question paper will contain five more answer lines.]

(Total for Question 1 = 8 marks)
2 Write a narrative account analysing the ways in which piracy was suppressed in American waters in the years 1717–1720.

You may use the following in your answer:

- George I’s Proclamation, 1717
- Governor Spotswood

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 8 marks)
3 Explain two of the following:

- The importance of the Paxton Boys (1763–64) for government in Pennsylvania.
  (8)

- The importance of the Boston Tea Party for relations with Britain, 1773–74.
  (8)

- The importance of the Battle of Saratoga (1777) for the American victory in the war.
  (8)

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)
The importance of the Paxton Boys (1763–64) for government in Pennsylvania.
The importance of the Boston Tea Party for relations with Britain, 1773–74.
The importance of the Battle of Saratoga (1777) for the American victory in the war.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Indicate your SECOND choice on this page.

Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the Paxton Boys (1763–64) for government in Pennsylvania.

☐ The importance of the Boston Tea Party for relations with Britain, 1773–74.

☐ The importance of the Battle of Saratoga (1777) for the American victory in the war.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 32 MARKS
SECTION B: Tudor depth options

Answer EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5.

EITHER

Option B3: Henry VIII and his ministers, 1509–40

Question 4

Page XX

OR

Option B4: Early Elizabethan England 1558–88

Question 5

Page XX
If you answer Question 4, put a cross in this box ☒.

Option B3: Henry VIII and his ministers, 1509–40

Answer Question 4(a), 4(b) and EITHER 4(c)(i) OR 4(c)(ii).

4 (a) Describe two features of the Amicable Grant (1525).

(4)

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why Anne Boleyn was executed in 1536.

You may use the following in your answer:

- the succession
- Thomas Cromwell

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘Wolsey’s failure to gain an annulment for Henry was the main reason why he fell from power in 1529.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:
• relations with Pope Clement VII
• the nobility
You must also use information of your own.

(16)

OR

(c) (ii) ‘The main change for the English Church in the years 1534–40 was that it had to accept King Henry as its head.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:
• the Act of Supremacy
• the dissolution of the monasteries
You must also use information of your own.

(16)
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ✗. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ✗ and then indicate your new question with a cross ✗.

Chosen question:

(c)(i)

(c)(ii)

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 4 = 32 marks)
Feature 1

Feature 2

(a) Describe two features of the attempts to colonise Virginia in the 1580s.

(4)
(b) Explain why the Throckmorton Plot (1583) was a threat to Queen Elizabeth.

You may use the following in your answer:

- Mary, Queen of Scots
- foreign threat

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The threat of invasion was Elizabeth’s main problem when she became queen in 1558.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• France
• Elizabeth’s legitimacy

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘Religion was the main cause of the Revolt of the Northern Earls in 1569–70.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• Catholic grievances
• the Earls of Northumberland and Westmorland

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ❑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ❑ and then indicate your new question with a cross ❑.

Chosen question:   (c)(i)   ❑   (c)(ii)   ❑

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 5 = 32 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 32 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 64 MARKS
SECTION A: The American West, c1835–c1895

Answer ALL questions in this section.

1. Explain two consequences of the Fort Laramie Treaty (1851).

   Consequence 1:
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...

   Consequence 2:
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...
   .......................................................................................................................... ...

[The live question paper will contain five more answer lines.]

(Total for Question 1 = 8 marks)
2 Write a narrative account analysing the ways in which the cattle industry grew in the years 1865–74.

You may use the following in your answer:

- the Goodnight-Loving Trail (1866)
- the introduction of barbed wire (1874)

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 8 marks)
3 Explain two of the following:

- The importance of the opening of the First Transcontinental Railroad (1869) for the settlement of the West. (8)

- The importance of the winter of 1886–87 for the cattle industry. (8)

- The importance of the Dawes Act (1887) for the way of life of the Plains Indians. (8)

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)
Indicate your FIRST choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☒. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☐ and then indicate your new answer with a cross ☒.

☐ The importance of the opening of the First Transcontinental Railroad (1869) for the settlement of the West.

☐ The importance of the winter of 1886–87 for the cattle industry.

☐ The importance of the Dawes Act (1887) for the way of life of the Plains Indians.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Indicate your SECOND choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☒. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new answer with a cross ☒.

☐ The importance of the opening of the First Transcontinental Railroad (1869) for the settlement of the West.

☐ The importance of the winter of 1886–87 for the cattle industry.

☐ The importance of the Dawes Act (1887) for the way of life of the Plains Indians.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 32 MARKS
SECTION B: Medieval depth options
Answer EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5.

EITHER
Option B1: Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, c1060–88

Question 4

Page XX

OR

Option B2: The reigns of King Richard I and King John, 1189–1216

Question 5

Page XX
If you answer Question 4, put a cross in this box □.

Option B1: Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, c1060-88

Answer Question 4(a), 4(b) and EITHER 4(c)(i) OR 4(c)(ii).

4  (a) Describe two features of the Witan.

(4)

Feature 1

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

Feature 2

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

Pearson Edexcel Level 1/Level 2 GCSE (9-1) in History – Sample Assessment Materials (Question Papers) – Issue 1 – October 2015 © Pearson Education Limited 2015
(b) Explain why there was a disputed succession to the English throne when William I died.

(12)

You may use the following in your answer:
- Normandy
- Bishop Odo

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The main reason William I was able to keep control of England in the years 1066–75 was the building of castles.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• The design of motte and bailey castles
• Lanfranc and the Church

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘The main consequence of the appointment of Lanfranc as Archbishop of Canterbury in 1070 was an increase in Norman control of England.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• Archbishop Stigand
• monasteries

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box 🗙. If you change your mind, put a line through the box 🗙 and then indicate your new question with a cross 🗙.

Chosen question:
(c)(i)

(c)(ii)

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 4 = 32 marks)
Option B2: The reigns of King Richard I and King John, 1189-1216

Answer Question 5(a), 5(b) and EITHER 5(c)(i) OR 5(c)(ii).

5  (a) Describe two features of knight service in the years 1189–1216.

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why there were anti-Jewish pogroms in 1189–90.

You may use the following in your answer:

- moneylending
- the coronation of King Richard I

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The loss of Normandy was the main consequence of England’s involvement in fighting overseas in the years 1189–1204.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• war against Philip II of France
• Richard I’s ransom

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘King John’s attempts to raise money were the main reason for the barons’ rebellion of May–June 1215.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• taxes
• loss of land

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑.

Chosen question:

(c)(i) ☐
(c)(ii) ☐

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 5 = 32 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 32 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 64 MARKS
Instructions

- Use black ink or ball-point pen.
- Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
- There are two sections in this question paper. Answer all questions from Section A and EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5 in Section B.
- Answer the questions in the spaces provided – there may be more space than you need.

Information

- The total mark for this paper is 64.
- The marks for each question are shown in brackets – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.

Advice

- Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
- Try to divide your time equally between each section of the question paper.
- Check your answers if you have time at the end.
SECTION A: The American West, c1835–c1895

Answer ALL questions in this section.

1 Explain two consequences of the Fort Laramie Treaty (1851).

Consequence 1:

Consequence 2:

[The live question paper will contain five more answer lines.]

(Total for Question 1 = 8 marks)
2 Write a narrative account analysing the ways in which the cattle industry grew in the years 1865–74.

You may use the following in your answer:

- the Goodnight-Loving Trail (1866)
- the introduction of barbed wire (1874)

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 8 marks)
3 Explain two of the following:

- The importance of the opening of the First Transcontinental Railroad (1869) for the settlement of the West. (8)

- The importance of the winter of 1886–87 for the cattle industry. (8)

- The importance of the Dawes Act (1887) for the way of life of the Plains Indians. (8)

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)
Indicate your FIRST choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☒. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new answer with a cross ☒.

☐ The importance of the opening of the First Transcontinental Railroad (1869) for the settlement of the West.

☐ The importance of the winter of 1886–87 for the cattle industry.

☐ The importance of the Dawes Act (1887) for the way of life of the Plains Indians.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Indicate your SECOND choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☑ and then indicate your new answer with a cross ✗.

☐ The importance of the opening of the First Transcontinental Railroad (1869) for the settlement of the West.

☐ The importance of the winter of 1886–87 for the cattle industry.

☐ The importance of the Dawes Act (1887) for the way of life of the Plains Indians.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 32 MARKS
SECTION B: Tudor depth options

Answer EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5.

EITHER

Option B3: Henry VIII and his ministers, 1509–40

Question 4

Page XX

OR

Option B4: Early Elizabethan England 1558–88

Question 5

Page XX
If you answer Question 4, put a cross in this box ☐.

Option B3: Henry VIII and his ministers, 1509–40

Answer Question 4(a), 4(b) and EITHER 4(c)(i) OR 4(c)(ii).

4 (a) Describe two features of the Amicable Grant (1525).

(4)

Feature 1

.............................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................

Feature 2

..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
(b) Explain why Anne Boleyn was executed in 1536.

You may use the following in your answer:
- the succession
- Thomas Cromwell

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘Wolsey’s failure to gain an annulment for Henry was the main reason why he fell from power in 1529.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

- relations with Pope Clement VII
- the nobility

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(ii) ‘The main change for the English Church in the years 1534–40 was that it had to accept King Henry as its head.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

- the Act of Supremacy
- the dissolution of the monasteries

You must also use information of your own.
If you answer Question 5, put a cross in this box □.

Option B4: Early Elizabethan England, 1558–88

Answer Question 5(a), 5(b) and EITHER 5(c)(i) OR 5(c)(ii).

5 (a) Describe two features of the attempts to colonise Virginia in the 1580s.

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why the Throckmorton Plot (1583) was a threat to Queen Elizabeth.

(12)

You may use the following in your answer:

• Mary, Queen of Scots
• foreign threat

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The threat of invasion was Elizabeth’s main problem when she became queen in 1558.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• France
• Elizabeth’s legitimacy

You must also use information of your own.

16

OR

(ii) ‘Religion was the main cause of the Revolt of the Northern Earls in 1569–70.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• Catholic grievances
• the Earls of Northumberland and Westmorland

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑️. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒️ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑️.

Chosen question:  (c)(i) ☐  (c)(ii) ☐

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 5 = 32 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 32 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 64 MARKS
Instructions

- Use black ink or ball-point pen.
- Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
- There are two sections in this question paper. Answer all questions from Section A and EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5 in Section B.
- Answer the questions in the spaces provided – there may be more space than you need.

Information

- The total mark for this paper is 64.
- The marks for each question are shown in brackets – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.

Advice

- Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
- Try to divide your time equally between each section of the question paper.
- Check your answers if you have time at the end.
SECTION A: Superpower relations and the Cold War, 1941–91

Answer ALL questions in this section.

1 Explain two consequences of the Cuban Missile Crisis (1962).

Consequence 1:

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

Consequence 2:

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

[The live question paper will contain four more answer lines.]

(Total for Question 1 = 8 marks)
2 Write a narrative account analysing the key events of the Berlin Crisis, 1948–49.

You may use the following in your answer:

- Stalin’s fears
- the Airlift

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 8 marks)
3 Explain two of the following:

- The importance of the events in Hungary in 1956 for the development of the Cold War. (8)

- The importance of the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia (1968) for relations between the US and the Soviet Union. (8)

- The importance of Gorbachev's 'new thinking' for Soviet control of Eastern Europe. (8)

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)
The importance of Gorbachev’s ‘new thinking’ for Soviet control of Eastern Europe.

The importance of the events in Hungary in 1956 for the development of the Cold War.

The importance of the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia (1968) for relations between the US and the Soviet Union.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Indicate your SECOND choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☑ and then indicate your new answer with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the events in Hungary in 1956 for the development of the Cold War.

☐ The importance of the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia (1968) for relations between the US and the Soviet Union.

☐ The importance of Gorbachev’s ‘new thinking’ for Soviet control of Eastern Europe.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)
SECTION B: Medieval depth options

Answer EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5.

EITHER

Option B1: Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, c1060–88

Question 4  Page XX

OR

Option B2: The reigns of King Richard I and King John, 1189–1216

Question 5  Page XX
If you answer Question 4, put a cross in this box ☐.

Option B1: Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, c1060-88

Answer Question 4(a), 4(b) and EITHER 4(c)(i) OR 4(c)(ii).

4 (a) Describe two features of the Witan.

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why there was a disputed succession to the English throne when William I died.

(12)

You may use the following in your answer:

- Normandy
- Bishop Odo

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The main reason William I was able to keep control of England in the years 1066–75 was the building of castles.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

- The design of motte and bailey castles
- Lanfranc and the Church

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘The main consequence of the appointment of Lanfranc as Archbishop of Canterbury in 1070 was an increase in Norman control of England.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

- Archbishop Stigand
- monasteries

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑.

Chosen question:
(c)(i) ☐
(c)(ii) ☐

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 4 = 32 marks)
If you answer Question 5, put a cross in this box.

Option B2: The reigns of King Richard I and King John, 1189-1216

Answer Question 5(a), 5(b) and EITHER 5(c)(i) OR 5(c)(ii).

5  (a) Describe two features of knight service in the years 1189–1216.

(4)

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why there were anti-Jewish pogroms in 1189–90.

You may use the following in your answer:

• moneylending
• the coronation of King Richard I

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The loss of Normandy was the main consequence of England’s involvement in fighting overseas in the years 1189–1204.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• war against Philip II of France
• Richard I’s ransom

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘King John’s attempts to raise money were the main reason for the barons’ rebellion of May–June 1215.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• taxes
• loss of land

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☒. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☒.

Chosen question: (c)(i) ☐ (c)(ii) ☐

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 5 = 32 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 32 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 64 MARKS
History

Paper 2: Period study and British depth study
Option 27: Superpower relations and the Cold War, 1941–91
and Tudor depth options

Sample assessment materials for first teaching
September 2016
Time: 1 hour 45 minutes

You do not need any other materials.

Instructions

• Use black ink or ball-point pen.
• Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
• There are two sections in this question paper. Answer all questions from Section A and EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5 in Section B.
• Answer the questions in the spaces provided
  – there may be more space than you need.

Information

• The total mark for this paper is 64.
• The marks for each question are shown in brackets
  – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.

Advice

• Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
• Try to divide your time equally between each section of the question paper.
• Check your answers if you have time at the end.
SECTION A: Superpower relations and the Cold War, 1941–91

Answer ALL questions in this section.

1. Explain two consequences of the Cuban Missile Crisis (1962).

Consequence 1:

Consequence 2:

[The live question paper will contain four more answer lines.]

(Total for Question 1 = 8 marks)
2 Write a narrative account analysing the key events of the Berlin Crisis, 1948–49.

You may use the following in your answer:

- Stalin’s fears
- the Airlift

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 8 marks)
3 Explain two of the following:

- The importance of the events in Hungary in 1956 for the development of the Cold War. \( (8) \)

- The importance of the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia (1968) for relations between the US and the Soviet Union. \( (8) \)

- The importance of Gorbachev’s ‘new thinking’ for Soviet control of Eastern Europe. \( (8) \)

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)
Indicate your FIRST choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new answer with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the events in Hungary in 1956 for the development of the Cold War.

☐ The importance of the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia (1968) for relations between the US and the Soviet Union.

☐ The importance of Gorbachev’s ‘new thinking’ for Soviet control of Eastern Europe.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Indicate your SECOND choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new answer with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the events in Hungary in 1956 for the development of the Cold War.

☐ The importance of the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia (1968) for relations between the US and the Soviet Union.

☐ The importance of Gorbachev’s ‘new thinking’ for Soviet control of Eastern Europe.
SECTION B: Tudor depth options

Answer EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5.

EITHER

Option B3: Henry VIII and his ministers, 1509–40

Question 4    Page XX

OR

Option B4: Early Elizabethan England 1558–88

Question 5    Page XX
If you answer Question 4, put a cross in this box.

Option B3: Henry VIII and his ministers, 1509–40

Answer Question 4(a), 4(b) and EITHER 4(c)(i) OR 4(c)(ii).

4  (a) Describe two features of the Amicable Grant (1525).

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why Anne Boleyn was executed in 1536.

You may use the following in your answer:

- the succession
- Thomas Cromwell

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘Wolsey’s failure to gain an annulment for Henry was the main reason why he fell from power in 1529.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• relations with Pope Clement VII
• the nobility

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘The main change for the English Church in the years 1534–40 was that it had to accept King Henry as its head.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• the Act of Supremacy
• the dissolution of the monasteries

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑.

Chosen question:
(c)(i) ☐
(c)(ii) ☐

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 4 = 32 marks)
If you answer Question 5, put a cross in this box ☒.

Option B4: Early Elizabethan England, 1558–88

Answer Question 5(a), 5(b) and EITHER 5(c)(i) OR 5(c)(ii).

5  (a) Describe two features of the attempts to colonise Virginia in the 1580s.

* (4)

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why the Throckmorton Plot (1583) was a threat to Queen Elizabeth.

You may use the following in your answer:

- Mary, Queen of Scots
- foreign threat

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The threat of invasion was Elizabeth’s main problem when she became queen in 1558.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• France
• Elizabeth’s legitimacy

You must also use information of your own.

(16)

OR

(c) (ii) ‘Religion was the main cause of the Revolt of the Northern Earls in 1569–70.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• Catholic grievances
• the Earls of Northumberland and Westmorland

You must also use information of your own.

(16)
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑️. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒️ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑️.

Chosen question: (c)(i) ☐  (c)(ii) ☐

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 5 = 32 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 32 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 64 MARKS
Use black ink or ball-point pen.
Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
There are two sections in this question paper. Answer all questions from Section A and EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5 in Section B.
Answer the questions in the spaces provided – there may be more space than you need.

The total mark for this paper is 64.
The marks for each question are shown in brackets – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.

Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
Try to divide your time equally between each section of the question paper.
Check your answers if you have time at the end.
SECTION A: Conflict in the Middle East, 1945–95

Answer ALL questions in this section.

1 Explain two consequences of the continued dispute over the Suez Canal, 1967–73.

Consequence 1:

[The live question paper will contain four more answer lines.]

(Total for Question 1 = 8 marks)
2 Write a narrative account analysing the key events of 1945–48 that led to the creation of Israel.

You may use the following in your answer:
- the attack on the King David Hotel (1946)
- the UN vote on partition (1947)

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 8 marks)
3 Explain two of the following:

- The importance of the Cairo Conference (1964) for the Arab states in the years 1964–73. (8)

- The importance of the Munich Olympics (1972) for international attitudes to the Palestinian problem. (8)

- The importance of President Sadat’s visit to Israel (1977) for relations between Israel and Egypt in the years 1977–79. (8)

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)
Indicate your FIRST choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new answer with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the Cairo Conference, 1964 for the Arab states in the years 1964–73.

☐ The importance of the Munich Olympics (1972) for international attitudes to the Palestinian problem.

☐ The importance of President Sadat’s visit to Israel (1977) for relations between Israel and Egypt in the years 1977–79.
Indicate your SECOND choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☑ and then indicate your new answer with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the Cairo Conference, 1964 for the Arab states in the years 1964–73.

☐ The importance of the Munich Olympics (1972) for international attitudes to the Palestinian problem.

☐ The importance of President Sadat’s visit to Israel (1977) for relations between Israel and Egypt in the years 1977–79.

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 32 MARKS
SECTION B: Medieval depth options

Answer EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5.

EITHER

Option B1: Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, c1060–88

Question 4

Page XX

OR

Option B2: The reigns of King Richard I and King John, 1189–1216

Question 5

Page XX
If you answer Question 4, put a cross in this box □.

Option B1: Anglo-Saxon and Norman England, c1060-88

Answer Question 4(a), 4(b) and EITHER 4(c)(i) OR 4(c)(ii).

4  (a) Describe two features of the Witan.

   Feature 1

   Feature 2
(b) Explain why there was a disputed succession to the English throne when William I died.

(12)

You may use the following in your answer:

- Normandy
- Bishop Odo

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The main reason William I was able to keep control of England in the years 1066–75 was the building of castles.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:
- The design of motte and bailey castles
- Lanfranc and the Church

You must also use information of your own.

(16)

OR

(c) (ii) ‘The main consequence of the appointment of Lanfranc as Archbishop of Canterbury in 1070 was an increase in Norman control of England.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:
- Archbishop Stigand
- monasteries

You must also use information of your own.

(16)
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑️. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☑️ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑️.

Chosen question:  (c)(i) ☑️ (c)(ii) ☑️

(The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.)

(Total for Question 4 = 32 marks)
Option B2: The reigns of King Richard I and King John, 1189–1216

Answer Question 5(a), 5(b) and EITHER 5(c)(i) OR 5(c)(ii).

5 (a) Describe two features of knight service in the years 1189–1216.

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why there were anti-Jewish pogroms in 1189–90.

You may use the following in your answer:

- moneylending
- the coronation of King Richard I

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The loss of Normandy was the main consequence of England’s involvement in fighting overseas in the years 1189–1204.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• war against Philip II of France
• Richard I’s ransom

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘King John’s attempts to raise money were the main reason for the barons’ rebellion of May–June 1215.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

(16)

You may use the following in your answer:

• taxes
• loss of land

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑️. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒️ and then indicate your new question with a cross ☑️.

Chosen question:
(c)(i) ☐  (c)(ii) ☐

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 5 = 32 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 32 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 64 MARKS
History

Paper 2: Period study and British depth study
Option 29: Conflict in the Middle East, 1945–95
and Tudor depth options

Sample assessment materials for first teaching
September 2016
Time: 1 hour 45 minutes

You do not need any other materials.

Instructions

- Use black ink or ball-point pen.
- Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
- There are two sections in this question paper. Answer all questions from Section A and EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5 in Section B.
- Answer the questions in the spaces provided
  - there may be more space than you need.

Information

- The total mark for this paper is 64.
- The marks for each question are shown in brackets
  - use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.

Advice

- Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
- Try to divide your time equally between each section of the question paper.
- Check your answers if you have time at the end.
SECTION A: Conflict in the Middle East, 1945–95

Answer ALL questions in this section.

1 Explain two consequences of the continued dispute over the Suez Canal, 1967–73.

Consequence 1:

[The live question paper will contain four more answer lines.]

Consequence 2:

(Total for Question 1 = 8 marks)
2 Write a narrative account analysing the key events of 1945–48 that led to the creation of Israel.

You may use the following in your answer:

- the attack on the King David Hotel (1946)
- the UN vote on partition (1947)

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 8 marks)
3 Explain two of the following:

- The importance of the Cairo Conference (1964) for the Arab states in the years 1964–73.
  (8)

- The importance of the Munich Olympics (1972) for international attitudes to the Palestinian problem.
  (8)

- The importance of President Sadat’s visit to Israel (1977) for relations between Israel and Egypt in the years 1977–79.
  (8)

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)
Indicate your FIRST choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new answer with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the Cairo Conference, 1964 for the Arab states in the years 1964–73.

☐ The importance of the Munich Olympics (1972) for international attitudes to the Palestinian problem.

☐ The importance of President Sadat’s visit to Israel (1977) for relations between Israel and Egypt in the years 1977–79.
Indicate your SECOND choice on this page.

Indicate which part you are answering by marking a cross in the box ☑. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ☒ and then indicate your new answer with a cross ☑.

☐ The importance of the Cairo Conference, 1964 for the Arab states in the years 1964–73.

☐ The importance of the Munich Olympics (1972) for international attitudes to the Palestinian problem.

☐ The importance of President Sadat’s visit to Israel (1977) for relations between Israel and Egypt in the years 1977–79.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 3 = 16 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 32 MARKS
SECTION B: Tudor depth options

Answer EITHER Question 4 OR Question 5.

EITHER

Option B3: Henry VIII and his ministers, 1509–40

Question 4

OR

Option B4: Early Elizabethan England 1558–88

Question 5
If you answer Question 4, put a cross in this box □.

Option B3: Henry VIII and his ministers, 1509–40

Answer Question 4(a), 4(b) and EITHER 4(c)(i) OR 4(c)(ii).

4  (a) Describe two features of the Amicable Grant (1525).

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why Anne Boleyn was executed in 1536. (12)

You may use the following in your answer:
- the succession
- Thomas Cromwell

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘Wolsey’s failure to gain an annulment for Henry was the main reason why he fell from power in 1529.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:
- relations with Pope Clement VII
- the nobility

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘The main change for the English Church in the years 1534–40 was that it had to accept King Henry as its head.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:
- the Act of Supremacy
- the dissolution of the monasteries

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box □. If you change your mind, put a line through the box □ and then indicate your new question with a cross □.

Chosen question:  (c)(i) □  (c)(ii) □

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 4 = 32 marks)
Answer Question 5(a), 5(b) and EITHER 5(c)(i) OR 5(c)(ii).
5  (a) Describe two features of the attempts to colonise Virginia in the 1580s.

Feature 1

Feature 2
(b) Explain why the Throckmorton Plot (1583) was a threat to Queen Elizabeth.

You may use the following in your answer:

- Mary, Queen of Scots
- foreign threat

You must also use information of your own.
Answer EITHER (c)(i) OR (c)(ii)

EITHER

(c) (i) ‘The threat of invasion was Elizabeth’s main problem when she became queen in 1558.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• France
• Elizabeth’s legitimacy

You must also use information of your own.

OR

(c) (ii) ‘Religion was the main cause of the Revolt of the Northern Earls in 1569–70.’

How far do you agree? Explain your answer.

You may use the following in your answer:

• Catholic grievances
• the Earls of Northumberland and Westmorland

You must also use information of your own.
Indicate which question you are answering by marking a cross in the box ✅. If you change your mind, put a line through the box ✗ and then indicate your new question with a cross ✅.

Chosen question:

(c)(i)    ✗   (c)(ii)    ✗

[The live question paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 5 = 32 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 32 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 64 MARKS
SECTION A

Answer both questions.

Study Source A below and then answer Question 1.

Source A: From a diary entry for March 1918 by Drozdovsky, a colonel in a White army. Here he describes the events in a village that had previously been under Bolshevik control.

Our White cavalry entered the village and put to death the Bolshevik leaders. The people of this village are so brutal - the Bolshevik leaders were not thinking of murdering them, but the peasants, their women and even children, insistently demanded their death. After the execution, we ordered the village population to deliver without pay the best cattle, pigs and bread for our detachment*.

*detachment – a group of White soldiers numbering over 2,000 men.
1 Give two things you can infer from Source A about the White army in the Civil War.

Complete the table below to explain your answer.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>(i) What I can infer:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Details in the source that tell me this:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>(ii) What I can infer:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Details in the source that tell me this:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(Total for Question 1 = 4 marks)
2 Explain why the Bolsheviks were able to seize power in Russia in October 1917.

You may use the following in your answer:
- food shortages
- the leadership of Trotsky

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain two more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 12 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 16 MARKS
SECTION B
For this section, you will need to use the sources and interpretations in the Sources/Interpretations Booklet.

3 (a) Study Sources B and C.

How useful are Sources B and C for an enquiry into the effects of collectivisation on the Soviet Union in the years 1928–41?

Explain your answer, using Sources B and C and your knowledge of the historical context.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
(b) Study Interpretations 1 and 2. They give different views about the effects of collectivisation on the Soviet Union in the years 1928–41.

What is the main difference between these views?

Explain your answer, using details from both interpretations.
(c) Suggest one reason why Interpretations 1 and 2 give different views about the effects of collectivisation on the Soviet Union in the years 1928–41.

You may use Sources B and C to help explain your answer.

(4)
Up to 4 marks of the total for part (d) will be awarded for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology.

(d) How far do you agree with Interpretation 2 about the effects of collectivisation on the Soviet Union in the years 1928–41?

Explain your answer, using both interpretations and your knowledge of the historical context.

(20)
(d) How far do you agree with Interpretation 2 about the effects of collectivisation on the Soviet Union in the years 1928–41?

Explain your answer, using both interpretations and your knowledge of the historical context.

..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
...................................................................................................................
Acknowledgements

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.
Sources/interpretations for use with Section B.

Source B: A government poster created in 1930 and distributed in the Soviet Union. The text says ‘The Machine Tractor Station [MTS] is the key part of Collectivisation. Get a Tractor! Let’s Double and Triple the Machine Tractor Stations.’
Source C: From an article in a British newspaper, published in 1933. It was based on the journalist’s recent experiences of a walking tour in the Ukraine area of the Soviet Union.

‘How are things with you?’ I asked one old man. He looked around anxiously to see that no soldiers were about. ‘We have nothing, absolutely nothing,’ he said, ‘The soldiers have taken everything away.’ It was true. The famine is an organised one. Some of the food that has been taken away is being exported to foreign countries. It is also true that whole villages have been exiled. I saw a group of twenty peasants being marched off under escort. This is such a common sight that it no longer even causes curiosity.

The overwhelming majority of the peasants opposed collectivisation. Villages were surrounded by soldiers with machine guns and forced to collectivise. Masses of peasants were transported to Siberia. Other peasants slaughtered cattle, smashed tools and burned crops rather than hand them over to the collective farms. There was a serious famine from 1932 to 1933 which caused the death of between six and ten million peasants.

The collective farms, despite all their inefficiencies, did grow more food than the tiny, privately-owned holdings had done. 30–40 million tons of grain was produced every year. Collectivisation also meant the introduction of mechanisation into the countryside where, previously, the peasants had never seen a tractor. Now, two million previously-backward peasants learned to drive a tractor. New methods of farming were taught by 110,000 engineering and agricultural experts. The countryside was indeed transformed.

Acknowledgements

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd. will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.
Instructions

- Use black ink or ball-point pen.
- Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
- Answer all questions in Sections A and B.
- Answer the questions in the spaces provided – there may be more space than you need.

Information

- The total mark for this paper is 52.
- The marks for each question are shown in brackets – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.
- The marks available for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology are clearly indicated.

Advice

- Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
- Try to answer every question.
- Check your answers if you have time at the end.
SECTION A
Answer both questions.

Study Source A below and then answer Question 1.

Source A: From Hitler and I, by Otto Strasser, published in 1940. Strasser was a leading member of the Nazi Party in its early years. Here he remembers a conversation with Hitler in 1925.

I remember one of my first conversations with him. It was nearly a quarrel. ‘Power!’ screamed Adolf. ‘We must have power!’

‘Before we gain it’, I replied firmly, ‘let us decide what we propose to do with it. Our programme is too vague; we must construct something which will last.’

Hitler, who even then could hardly bear contradiction, thumped the table, saying sharply, ‘Power first! Afterwards we can act as events occur.’
1. Give two things you can infer from Source A about Hitler’s leadership of the Nazi Party in the 1920s.

Complete the table below to explain your answer.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>(i) What I can infer:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Details in the source that tell me this:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(ii) What I can infer:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Details in the source that tell me this:</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total for Question 1 = 4 marks
2 Explain why there was opposition in Germany to the Treaty of Versailles (1919).

You may use the following in your answer:

- military terms
- territorial terms

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain two more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 12 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 16 MARKS
SECTION B

For this section, you will need to use the sources and interpretations in the Sources/Interpretations Booklet.

3 (a) Study Sources B and C.

How useful are Sources B and C for an enquiry into the attitudes of young people towards the Hitler Youth movement?

Explain your answer, using Sources B and C and your knowledge of the historical context.

(8)

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
(b) Study Interpretations 1 and 2. They give different views about the attitudes of young people towards the Hitler Youth movement.

What is the main difference between these views?

Explain your answer, using details from both interpretations.

..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
(c) Suggest one reason why Interpretations 1 and 2 give different views about the attitudes of young people towards the Hitler Youth movement.

You may use Sources B and C to help explain your answer.

(4)
Up to 4 marks of the total for part (d) will be awarded for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology.

(d) How far do you agree with Interpretation 2 about the attitudes of young people towards the Hitler Youth movement?

Explain your answer, using both interpretations and your knowledge of the historical context.

[The live paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)
(Total for Question 3 = 36 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 36 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 52 MARKS
(d) How far do you agree with Interpretation 2 about the attitudes of young people towards the Hitler Youth movement?

Up to 4 marks of the total for part (d) will be awarded for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology.

(Total for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)

(Total for Question 3 = 36 marks)

TOTAL FOR PAPER = 52 MARKS
Sample assessment materials for first teaching
September 2016
Sources/Interpretations Booklet

Do not return this booklet with the question paper.
Sources/interpretations for use with Section B.

Source B: From a private letter, written by a Hitler Youth member to a friend in Germany in 1936.

What is life like in this camp, which is supposed to be the best example of all the Hitler Youth camps? There is little enthusiasm. We don’t have a minute of the day to ourselves. This isn’t camp life, no sir! It’s army life. Drill starts right after a very small breakfast. We would like to have athletics but there isn’t any. Instead we have military exercises, down in the mud, till our tongues hang out of our mouths. We have only one wish: sleep, sleep and more sleep.

Source C: From a book about the Hitler Youth, published in 1954. A Hitler Youth leader is remembering what the Hitler Youth was like in the mid-1930s.

What I liked about the Hitler Youth was the comradeship. I was full of enthusiasm when I joined the Jungvolk* at the age of ten. I can still remember how deeply moved I was when I heard the club mottoes: ‘Jungvolk’ are hard. They can keep a secret. They are loyal. They are comrades.’ And then there were the trips, especially camping! Is anything nicer than enjoying the beauty of the homeland in the company of one’s comrades?

*Jungvolk – this was a section of the Hitler Youth for boys between the ages of 10 and 14.

Many young people were attracted by the exciting and interesting activities of the youth movements. There were many outdoor events such as camping and hiking as well as sports. Some enjoyed the military aspects of the youth movements, the uniforms, the marching and the discipline. Other young people liked the music that was a frequent part of cultural activities or the military parades. There was great comradeship among the Hitler Youth.

The movement became less popular towards the late 1930s as the activities became increasingly focused on preparations for war and the discipline became more strict when membership became compulsory. There was a growing resentment at the way Hitler Youth leaders acted as if they were better than members who were barely younger than they were. Some youngsters began to kick against the restrictions of the Hitler Youth.

Acknowledgments

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.
Instructions

- Use black ink or ball-point pen.
- Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
- Answer all questions in Sections A and B.
- Answer the questions in the spaces provided – there may be more space than you need.

Information

- The total mark for this paper is 52.
- The marks for each question are shown in brackets – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.
- The marks available for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology are clearly indicated.

Advice

- Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
- Try to answer every question.
- Check your answers if you have time at the end.
SECTION A

Answer both questions.

Study Source A below and then answer Question 1.

The great mass of Red Guards, with red flags and portraits of Chairman Mao held high, came from all directions into Tiananmen Square. These young fighters, each carrying the bright, red-covered Quotations from Chairman Mao, formed a magnificent stream of red. They recited, again and again, passages from Chairman Mao's writing. When Chairman Mao drove past the ranks, many of them wrote the same words in their copies of the book: 'At 1.10 pm on 18 October the most, most happy and most unforgettable moment in my life, I saw Chairman Mao, the never-setting red sun!'
1  Give two things you can infer from Source A about support for Mao Zedong in 1966.

Complete the table below to explain your answer.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>(i) What I can infer:</th>
<th>Details in the source that tell me this:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>(ii) What I can infer:</th>
<th>Details in the source that tell me this:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total for Question 1 = 4 marks
2 Explain why the Great Leap Forward failed to achieve its aims.

You may use the following in your answer:

- backyard furnaces
- Mao’s leadership

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain two more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 12 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 16 MARKS
SECTION B

For this section, you will need to use the sources and interpretations in the Sources/Interpretations Booklet.

3 (a) Study Sources B and C.

How useful are Sources B and C for an enquiry into the aims of the Hundred Flowers campaign, 1956–57?

Explain your answer, using Sources B and C and your knowledge of the historical context.

[The live question paper will contain one more page of answer lines.]
(b) Study Interpretations 1 and 2. They give different views about the aims of the Hundred Flowers campaign, 1956–57.

What is the main difference between these views?

Explain your answer, using details from both interpretations.

.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...
.......................................................................................................................... ...

(4)
(c) Suggest one reason why Interpretations 1 and 2 give different views about the aims of the Hundred Flowers campaign, 1956–57.

You may use Sources B and C to help explain your answer.

(4)
(d) How far do you agree with Interpretation 2 about the aims of the Hundred Flowers campaign, 1956–57?

Explain your answer, using both interpretations and your knowledge of the historical context.

![Answer lines]

[The live paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)

(Total for Question 3 = 36 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 36 MARKS

TOTAL FOR PAPER = 52 MARKS
(d) How far do you agree with Interpretation 2 about the aims of the Hundred Flowers campaign, 1956–57?
Explain your answer, using both interpretations and your knowledge of the historical context.

..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................

[The live paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)

(Total for Question 3 = 36 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 36 MARKS

TOTAL FOR PAPER = 52 MARKS
Acknowledgments

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.
Sources/interpretations for use with Section B.

Source B: From an article in a Chinese national newspaper, 27 May 1957, about the Hundred Flowers Campaign. This newspaper had previously played a leading role in criticising Mao.

Since April, all available wall space around the dining hall of Peking University has become filled with posters, many criticising the Party. At one corner there was the ‘democratic wall’ and at another corner there was the ‘garden of freedom’. Some articles were written by individuals, others by groups of students. According to statistics compiled by one student, by May 22, over 500 bulletins had been issued. In Peking University with its glorious revolutionary tradition, more than 8,000 young people had become inflamed with enthusiasm.

Source C: From an article written by Mao and distributed to groups within the Chinese Communist Party in late May 1957. He was writing about the Hundred Flowers campaign.

We shall let the Rightists go wild for a time and reach the climax of their criticisms. The more they go wild, the better for us. As we expected and hoped, poisonous weeds have been growing side by side with fragrant flowers. The more outrageous the conduct of the Right, the more quickly will they show themselves up. They will be seen as doing the opposite of co-operating with the Communist Party and accepting its leadership, as they pretended in the past. Didn’t we say long ago that all poisonous weeds must be uprooted?
Interpretation 1: From Mao, the Unknown Story, by J Chung and J Halliday, published in 2005.

In February 1957, Mao announced that he was inviting criticisms of the Communist Party. He sounded reasonable, criticising Stalin for his ‘excessive’ purges in the Soviet Union, and giving the impression there were going to be no more of these in China. He said ‘Let a hundred flowers bloom.’ Few guessed that Mao was setting a trap, and that he was inviting people to speak out so that he could then use what they said as an excuse to victimise them. Mao’s targets were intellectuals and the educated, who were the people most likely to speak out.

Interpretation 2: From How successful was The Hundred Flowers Movement?, a history website.

The Hundred Flowers campaign was established to allow intellectuals to discuss problems and possible solutions. At first there was little response. Only minor issues were debated and there was little constructive criticism. In spring 1957 Mao stated that he wanted criticism to encourage healthy debate. He hoped that socialist ideals would be seen as the best way forward. In some ways the Hundred Flowers campaign was quite successful after Mao’s requests for debate. Millions of letters were sent offering opinions.

Acknowledgements

Source B adapted from www.marxists.org/archive/cliff/works/1959/05/chinawilt.htm;
Source C adapted from www.marxists.org/reference/archive/mao/selected-works/volume-5/mswv5_61.htm;
Interpretation 1 taken from J Chang and J Halliday, Mao: The Unknown Story © Vintage 2007;
Interpretation 2 © www.schoolhistory.org.uk

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd. will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.
Instructions
- Use black ink or ball-point pen.
- Fill in the boxes at the top of this page with your name, centre number and candidate number.
- Answer all questions in Sections A and B.
- Answer the questions in the spaces provided – there may be more space than you need.

Information
- The total mark for this paper is 52.
- The marks for each question are shown in brackets – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.
- The marks available for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology are clearly indicated.

Advice
- Read each question carefully before you start to answer it.
- Try to answer every question.
- Check your answers if you have time at the end.
SECTION A

Answer both questions.

Study Source A below and then answer Question 1.

Source A: A poster published by the Women’s Political Council in 1955. The WPC was a civil rights organisation in Montgomery. The poster was distributed in Montgomery on the first day of the bus boycott.
1. Give two things you can infer from Source A about civil rights for black Americans in the 1950s.

Complete the table below to explain your answer.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>(i) What I can infer:</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Details in the source that tell me this:

| | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(ii) What I can infer:

| | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Details in the source that tell me this:

| | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total for Question 1 = 4 marks
2 Explain why there was progress in the civil rights movement in the years 1961–65.

You may use the following in your answer:

- President Kennedy
- the Washington Peace March, 1963

You must also use information of your own.

[The live question paper will contain two more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for Question 2 = 12 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 16 MARKS
SECTION B

For this section, you will need to use the sources and interpretations in the Sources/Interpretations Booklet.

3 (a) Study Sources B and C.

How useful are Sources B and C for an enquiry into attitudes in the USA towards involvement in the Vietnam War?

Explain your answer, using Sources B and C and your knowledge of the historical context.

(8)
(b) Study Interpretations 1 and 2. They give different views about attitudes in the USA towards involvement in the Vietnam War.

What is the main difference between these views?

Explain your answer, using details from both interpretations.

(4)
(c) Suggest one reason why Interpretations 1 and 2 give different views about attitudes in the USA towards involvement in the Vietnam War.

You may use Sources B and C to help explain your answer.

(4)
Up to 4 marks of the total for part (d) will be awarded for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology.

(d) How far do you agree with Interpretation 2 about attitudes in the USA towards involvement in the Vietnam War?

Explain your answer, using both interpretations and your knowledge of the historical context.

(20)

[The live paper will contain three more pages of answer lines.]

(Total for spelling, punctuation, grammar and use of specialist terminology = 4 marks)
(Total for Question 3 = 36 marks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION B = 36 MARKS
TOTAL FOR PAPER = 52 MARKS
(d) How far do you agree with Interpretation 2 about attitudes in the USA towards involvement in the Vietnam War?

Explain your answer, using both interpretations and your knowledge of the historical context.

(20)

..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..........................................................................................................................
..................................................................................................................
Acknowledgments

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.
Sources/interpretations for use with Section B.

Source B: A photograph published in the USA in a national newspaper in 1967. It shows a march by supporters of the war in Vietnam. The placards refer to the number of people in different countries who suffered under communist rule.

Source C: From an interview given in 2003 by a US student who dropped out of university to work for the anti-war movement shortly after the Tet Offensive of 1968. The interview was for an oral history of the war in Vietnam.

I joined the anti-war movement and began writing against the war, organizing, doing anything I could. I had been watching television. But what was I watching? I was watching slaughter. I had this feeling that outside my windows Vietnamese were dying and I couldn’t stop it. It was like Vietnam had somehow come all the way into our living rooms. The main thing is that the war built up this anger to a point where you did things you previously couldn’t have imagined doing.
Interpretation 1: From GCSE Modern World History by B Walsh, published in 1996.

Public opinion was turning against the war even before the Tet Offensive. After it, the war became very unpopular. Many Americans felt deeply uncomfortable with what was going on in Vietnam. The Vietnam War was a media war. Television showed prisoners being tortured or executed or women and children watching with horror as their house was set on fire. There were anti-war protests all over the country. Thousands began to ‘draft dodge’ – refusing to serve in Vietnam when called up. There were thousands of demonstrations in universities across the USA against the war.

Interpretation 2: From Vietnam 1950–75 by S Waugh and J Wright, published in 2010.

The opposition to the war was not as great as claimed. In 1964, 85 per cent of Americans supported the government policy on the war. Even as late as 1970, after the invasion of Cambodia, an opinion poll showed 50 per cent approved. There were a number of active and enthusiastic supporters of the war who were concerned about the spread of communism in Asia. For example, in May 1970, over 200 hard-hat construction workers were cheered when they attacked a peaceful crowd of anti-war protestors.

Acknowledgements

Every effort has been made to contact copyright holders to obtain their permission for the use of copyright material. Pearson Education Ltd. will, if notified, be happy to rectify any errors or omissions and include any such rectifications in future editions.