INFORMATION

The total mark for this paper is 80

The marks for EACH question are shown in brackets – use this as a guide as to how much time to spend on each question.

There may be spare copies of some diagrams in case you need them.

You may be provided with a shape for Question 2

You may be provided with a model for Question 17 and also formula models for Question 17

They are NOT accurate.
