

Timeline for 2024 GCSEs in French, German and Spanish

Autumn 2022

- September: Year 7 and Year 8 students studying MFL will be taking new 2024 qualifications.
- 26 September: 'Effective strategies for integrating teaching and learning of phonics' training event. Book now.
- November: First submission of draft Specification and Sample Assessment Materials to Ofqual for GCSE French. Draft materials will be made available online to centres.
- November to December: Online and in-person launch events with teachers will be made available for booking.

Spring 2023

- January: First feedback on submission from Ofqual expected.
- January to March: Online and in-person launch events with teachers will be made available for booking.
- Expected accreditation of GCSE French will trigger submission of GCSE German and Spanish draft materials.
- As soon as GCSE German and Spanish are submitted to Ofqual, draft materials will be made available online to centres.

Summer 2023

- Expected accreditation of GCSE German and Spanish.

Autumn 2023

- September: Final year 10 cohort completing the current (2016) GCSE French, German and Spanish qualifications.
- Training events on delivering and assessing the new qualification.
- Publication of additional support materials.

Spring to Summer 2024

- Training events on delivering and assessing the new qualification.
- Publication of additional support materials.

Autumn 2024

- September: First Year 10 cohort starting the new (2024) GCSE French, German and Spanish qualifications.
- Continued training opportunities on application of the mark criteria and delivery of the speaking assessments.

Summer 2025

- Final assessment of the current (2016) GCSEs in French, German and Spanish.

Autumn 2025

- September: Second year 10 cohort starting the new (2024) GCSE French, German and Spanish qualifications.

Summer 2026

- First assessment of the new (2024) GCSEs in French, German and Spanish.