Delivering Pearson Edexcel GCSE (9-1) Physical Education and BTEC Sport

Our qualifications for Pearson Edexcel GCSE (9-1) in Physical Education and BTEC Sport both nurture skills and knowledge for progression to further study and employment. They help students develop important transferable skills for progression to the next level, including numeracy, communication, an understanding of practical performances, as well as vital skills for leading a healthy and active lifestyle.

The world beyond the classroom

New research conducted by the UK based charity Education and Employers has for the first time demonstrated that encounters with the world of work have a positive impact on young people’s results at KS4. We’re proud that all of our Edexcel GCSE (9-1) Physical Education and BTEC Sport qualifications use real-life scenarios and are developed with employers and higher education experts – so learners will demonstrate the high standards of knowledge, practical skills and understanding required for further study and employment.

Common content between qualifications

Pearson Edexcel GCSE (9-1) in Physical Education and BTEC Sport both involve planning, carrying out, analysing and reviewing a training programme or personal exercise plan. Each qualification covers fitness and methods of training, and both have a practical unit, where student ability is assessed for the Pearson Edexcel (9-1) in Physical Education qualification.

Both qualifications cover anatomy and physiology, with greater focus and emphasis on this in GCSE Physical Education than in BTEC Sport.
