

Which would you use: Spearman's or Pearson's? Justify why ...

Is there a relationship between temperature and ice cream sales?	Is there a relationship between how many weeks the contestants are in and the ranking of the contestants in Strictly Come Dancing in week 1
Is there a relationship between age and height?	Is there a relationship between the place a horse is in a race and the age of the horse?
Is there a relationship between how viscous chocolate is and how hot it is?	Is there a relationship between how well people do in a test and how many months they've been studying a subject?
Is there a relationship between how many books you read and your 'reading age'?	Is there a relationship between the number of stars awarded to a movie and the position it gets to in the movie charts?
Is there a relationship between age and intellect?	Is there a relationship between number of downloads and the highest chart position of a song?

