Assessment Objective:

Understand and respond to spoken language (AO1)

Section AQuestion 1:*Specification Topic: Activities

Most of the candidates answered this question correctly. The topic and the vocabulary used was quite relevant to the candidates.

Question 2:Specification Topic: Friends

This question has been answered correctly by most of the candidates.

Question 3:Specification Topic: School

This year, the candidates were more successful in answering this question than the previous years. However, very few candidates tick more than three boxes and lost marks.

Most candidates find it easier to follow the text and find the names on the table and the correct box. They must have prepared better and practised more using the past papers.

Question 4:Specification Topic: Careers

The candidates find the text about 'Family' interesting. Nearly all candidates attempted the question, and some scored very good marks. Those who ticked more than three boxes lost marks.

Question 5:Specification Topic: Holidays

a) The majority of candidates responded to this question correctly. However, some provided answers such as, "She likes swimming," which did not address the actual question regarding Nilgün's reason for preferring to swim on Türkiye's south coast.

b) Some candidates wrote about how Soner spend the time in the evening rather than what sports he does.

c) Many candidates answered this question correctly.

d) Most candidates answered this question correctly. The answers varied such as happy, relaxed.

Question 6:Specification Topic: Local area

This question was answered by most of the candidates correctly. Those who mixed up right and left lost marks. The candidates are advised to improve their vocabulary on directions.

Question 7:Specification Topic: Interests

This question was answered by most of the candidates correctly.

Question 8:Specification Topic: Jobs

(a) Most candidates answered this question correctly. Some gave "Because they do not have experience" as an answer, some gave "The employers want to employ more experienced people." They were awarded full marks.

(b) Most of the candidates answered this question correctly. The common mistake was "The employers do not read the CVs".

(c) This question answered by many candidates correctly.

Question 9:Specification Topic: School Subjects

This question was answered by most of the candidates.

Question 10:Specification Topic: Campaigns and good causes

This question was a bit challenging for the candidates. Some answered all questions correctly. However, some candidates found it hard to answer question (a) they wrote "the date" wrong and question (b) which was a discriminator. Question (d) was a recall question and answered nearly by all candidates.

Question 11Specification Topic: Traditional music

This question was answered correctly by the candidates who read the rubric carefully. They managed to choose three correct answers. Very few who ticked more than three boxes unfortunately lost marks.

Candidates are advised to read the rubric carefully and use the example to understand what is required to get full marks.

Question 12:Specification Topic: School trips

This question was answered by some of the candidates correctly. Common mistakes were (a) instead of 'history of the place', "the date". (b) the year was written wrong. (d) This recall question was answered correctly by nearly all the candidates.

Section B

Question 13:

Specification Topic: Çevremizi koruyalım

The number of the candidates who scored high marks were quite high this year.

Question 14:

Specification Topic: Sosyal Yaşam

This question was answered correctly by many candidates.
