

Examiners' Report/
Principal Examiner Feedback

Summer 2014

Pearson Edexcel GCSE
in Urdu(5UR04/01)
Paper 4: Writing in Urdu

Edexcel and BTEC Qualifications

Edexcel and BTEC qualifications are awarded by Pearson, the UK's largest awarding body. We provide a wide range of qualifications including academic, vocational, occupational and specific programmes for employers. For further information visit our qualifications websites at www.edexcel.com or www.btec.co.uk. Alternatively, you can get in touch with us using the details on our contact us page at www.edexcel.com/contactus.

Pearson: helping people progress, everywhere

Pearson aspires to be the world's leading learning company. Our aim is to help everyone progress in their lives through education. We believe in every kind of learning, for all kinds of people, wherever they are in the world. We've been involved in education for over 150 years, and by working across 70 countries, in 100 languages, we have built an international reputation for our commitment to high standards and raising achievement through innovation in education. Find out more about how we can help you and your students at: www.pearson.com/uk

Summer 2014

Publications Code UG040191*

All the material in this publication is copyright

© Pearson Education Ltd 2014

GCSE Urdu
Unit 4 Writing in Urdu
Examiner Report

Unit 4 is an internally assessed and externally marked unit that emphasises on active use and manipulation of language. Total number of marks for this unit is 60 (30 for each task) and are awarded for communication and content, knowledge and application of language and accuracy in the target language. Candidates are required to submit two pieces of work written under controlled conditions. All candidates are asked to write at least 100 words per task for grades F-C. Candidates who are aiming for grades C-A* will have to demonstrate extended writing skills producing 200+ words per task. The prescribed themes for the unit are 'Media and Culture', 'Sport and Leisure', 'Travel and Tourism' and 'Business, Work and Employment'. Apart from the above, centre devised options are also available for the students as well as teachers in order for them to adapt the tasks according to the suitability and abilities of the candidates. Here, the teachers' guidance plays a crucial role in order to reach the maximum potential. The candidates must complete each task individually, and following the preparation period (up to 6 hours) they have up to one hour to complete the task.

Centres have a choice to either use stimulus material published by Edexcel, or devise their own. The two pieces have to differ in purpose, content and from the speaking assessments (Unit 2). The stimulus could just be a title, or it could include bullet points written either in English or in target language. Bullet points are usually given in order to instruct the candidates if they could or should respond to some or all of the points. Edexcel provides a new set of tasks every two years and there is an adequately large bank of tasks that already exists. Also, there is no time bar on selecting the previous tasks. For weaker candidates there is another option available, i.e. to complete two shorter tasks rather than a longer one, thus submitting four pieces of writing. These two/four pieces have to be produced in two assessment sessions.

Range and Suitability of topics/tasks

'Travel and Tourism' and 'Sport & Leisure' were the topics well received by candidates and there were some very coherent, interesting and engaging pieces of writing submitted. Somehow students found 'Business, Work and Employment' very daunting since very few candidates attempted this theme while 'Media and Culture' was also attempted by fewer candidates. It is pleasing to note that most centres have now been applying the new specification since 2009 and having embraced the opportunities that it offers, they have adjusted well to its demands. Most centres complied with the requirements and consequently their candidates produced qualitative and appropriate work and coping well with the demands of this unit secured good grades. Candidates, in general, had been well prepared by centres for this component.

Suitability of tasks

Teachers are free to adapt the existing tasks or produce their own. In this case,

- an essay title supported by open-ended bullets could be a suitable task;
- As the specification requires students to communicate in writing for a variety of purpose, teachers must ensure that the formal assessments used enable students to demonstrate their ability to use language for different purposes and
- Although there is no upper limit, the centres must keep in mind the fact that it is the quality not the quantity that matters once the minimum target is met (i.e. 200 words).

Unfortunately, a small minority of centres still seem to be unaware of the basic requirements of the assessment criteria. As a direct result the following points were highlighted where the candidates were unable to reach their maximum potential:

- a. Incomplete tasks submitted;
- b. Irrelevant tasks were also submitted e.g. on the theme of Sports & Leisure, under the heading 'My favourite sports personality' the candidates submitted comprehensive essays on 'Mohammad Ali Jinnah' and even 'Prophet Mohammad (pbuh);
- c. From the disparity in the quality of two pieces of work submitted by the same candidate it was rightly construed that one piece had been written earlier and later on the second piece was attempted. In such cases, when clearly the candidate had done better after he has been practising the language for some times, for the benefit of the candidates, the centres should defer taking up the control assessments towards the end of the course. Centres must remember that the students are allowed to undertake more than two controlled writing assessments and then the best out of them may be submitted to Edexcel for marking, hence securing better grades for their candidates;
- d. only one task was submitted while the candidate was clearly capable of writing well for the examination purpose;
- e. Extraneously composed information prevented students from gaining better grades. This was more obvious when the candidates used centre-devised options and attempted to produce pieces of writing without task and no bullet points. A candidate may write without sticking to the topic, for example under the heading of 'My Town' three out of four paragraphs may be on personal appearance, family introduction, education etc. and finally the town was discussed in approximately twenty words. Such works indicate very lucidly that the candidates – have not used the opportunity of the preparation period (up to 6 hours) and consequently achieved very low grades. Such essays also lacked in opinion or justification and resulted in lower marks.

Topic only option

- Topic only option' is also acceptable however it was noted that generally the tasks submitted under such headings were just narratives and lacked in opinion and justifications.

Teachers must realize that in order to take candidates' work to the higher band for marking, more than one tense should be used along with some evidence of using;

- Present participles
- Present subjunctive
- Past participles
- Past infinitives
- Variety of tenses
- Subordination
- Past infinitives
- Present participles
- Present subjunctive
- Adverbial phrases
- Conjunctions
- Comparative and superlative adjectives and adverbs

Administration

For administrative purpose Centres should make sure that the below items are attached with each candidate's work;

1. Two tasks and stimuli along with two essays
2. CA4 - Candidate Notes Form(optional)
3. CM4 – Candidate Mark Sheet for Unit 4 (compulsory) duly signed by the teacher and candidate

All the above required forms are available online in the document Administrative Support Guide (Instructions for the Conduct of the Examination and Controlled Assessment - ICE) 2014.

Grade Boundaries

Grade boundaries for this, and all other papers, can be found on the website on this link:

<http://www.edexcel.com/iwantto/Pages/grade-boundaries.aspx>

