General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

St Paul taught that people who believe in Jesus and the resurrection must also believe that they can look forward to an afterlife • The resurrection is the most important event as it is a sign of the power of Jesus, even over death, this proves that Jesus is God – no one but God can conquer death. Arguments against the statement: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some Catholics think it is of greater significance to focus on remembering the events of Holy Week as Catholics can renew their faith in Jesus. They are reminded that they need to serve one another and put themselves last • It is more significant to focus on the crucifixion as this reminds Catholics of the salvation brought about by Jesus, his death enabled people to have a close relationship with God again • Some Catholics believe that Christmas is more significant because without the birth of Jesus there would have been no Christianity and no salvation from sins; at Christmas God became a man in Jesus so that people could be reconciled with God. Accept any other valid response. Candidates who do not consider different viewpoints within the religious tradition or non-religious viewpoints (as instructed in the question) cannot achieve marks beyond Level 2.	15
