Dear Examinations officer,

International Advanced Level Greek: IAS XGK01 & IAL YGK01

We are getting in touch to let you know about the change to availability of Pearson Edexcel IAS & IAL Greek in the January examination series.

IAS & IAL Greek will be withdrawn from the January examination series from January 2023. This is because majority of candidates, including those resitting, now sit examinations in the May/June series only.

This subject will continue to be available in the May/June examination series.

The assessment structure will be as follows:

Units	January series 2023 onward	May/June series continues as normal
