- the ability to express themselves fluently, spontaneously and appropriately in a range of speaking contexts with little obvious searching for expressions or use of avoidance strategies
- the skills necessary for further study or employment, either in Spanish-speaking countries or where Spanish is used as the main medium of communication for business and commerce

Qualification abbreviations used in this specification

The following abbreviations appear in this specification:

International Advanced Subsidiary – IAS

Qualification at a glance

Qualification overview

Pearson Edexcel International Advanced Subsidiary in Spanish
This qualification consists of two externally assessed units.

The International Advanced Subsidiary is the first half of the International Advanced Level qualification and consists of two IAS units, Units 1 and 2. This qualification may be awarded as a discrete qualification or may contribute 50 per cent towards the International Advanced Level qualification.

Pearson Edexcel International Advanced Level in Spanish
This qualification consists of four externally assessed units.

The International Advanced Level consists of the two IAS units (Units 1 and 2) plus two IA2 units (Units 3 and 4). Students wishing to take the International Advanced Level must, therefore, complete all four units.

Course of study
The structure of these qualifications allows teachers to construct a course of study that can be taught and assessed as either:

- distinct modules of teaching and learning with related units of assessment taken at appropriate stages during the course; or
- a linear course assessed in its entirety at the end.

- Debate on any issue chosen by the student followed by a discussion of at least two further issues chosen by the teacher/examiner from any of the IAL general topic areas (GTAs).

Assessment overview

Section A: Presentation and debate – Requires students to demonstrate the effectiveness of their Spanish-language skills by presenting and taking a clear stance on any issue of their choice for about one minute. Students will then interact with the teacher/examiner as they defend and justify their views for up to four minutes.

Section B: Discussion – The teacher/examiner initiates a spontaneous discussion on at least two further issues, moving the conversation away from the students’ chosen issue. If these further issues relate to the IAS GTAs, then they do not have to be rooted in Spanish-language culture. However, if these issues relate to the IA2 specific GTAs, they must be rooted in Spanish-language culture.

Students will be expected to use debating skills and argument to discuss their chosen issue. They will be assessed on their reading and research skills in their chosen issue, as well as their communication skills and quality of spoken language.

Centres must record the presentation and discussion for all students and submit the recording(s) electronically to Pearson (see Administrative support guide on our website for further guidance).

1.2 Assessment information

• This unit assesses speaking skills.
• First assessment: June 2017.
• The assessment is 8-10 minutes (plus 15 minutes’ preparation time).
• The assessment is out of 40 marks.
• The assessment consists of two sections with four questions in Section A and a discussion in Section B.
• All questions are set in one of the four general topic areas (GTAs).
• The use of dictionaries is not permitted.
• Students must inform the teacher/examiner which two GTAs they have chosen before the assessment via an Oral topic form (OR1) (which can be found in Appendix 7: Oral assessment forms). One copy of the form must be given to the teacher/examiner no more than three weeks in advance of the examination.
• Assessment time should be divided equally between Sections A and B. However, if students complete the answers to the questions in Section A in less than four minutes, the teacher/examiner should ensure that the discussion in Section B is extended, in order that the total assessment time is at least eight minutes, however, without exceeding 10 minutes. Responses that go over ten minutes will not be assessed.
• Assessments will be conducted by teachers/examiners in one of two prescribed assessment windows; either in November/December or in April/May in any single year. Dates for the assessment period will be confirmed at the start of each academic year. The assessment period will not always be continuous or be the same period each year, for example it will need to accommodate the Easter break, which may change from year to year. Please note that the oral examinations must be undertaken on one day only unless your centre has a large cohort, in which case it is possible to undertake them on consecutive days. (A typical maximum would be 15 students per teacher per day.)
• Complete, unedited recordings of all assessments must be submitted to Pearson for external marking. Please see the Administrative support guide for more information.
• All assessments will be marked against assessment criteria that can be found in the Pearson Edexcel International A Level in Spanish Sample Assessment Materials (SAMs) documents and in this specification.
• Students are only permitted to complete this assessment once per session.
• Students must sign the Student speaking authentication sheet (CAS) (which can be found in Appendix 7: Oral assessment forms) on completion of the assessment.
• Teacher/examiners must complete the CAS form and return it to Pearson along with the examination recordings and the completed OR1 forms.
Section A (Spoken response)

For this section:

- students identify in advance two out of the four GTAs that they wish their discussion to be based on; they will only be assessed on one of these GTAs during the examination
- students should inform the teacher/examiner no more than three weeks in advance of the assessment which two GTAs they have selected via an Oral topic form (OR1)
- a number of different stimulus cards will be produced by Pearson for each of the four GTAs: these will be issued on a random-allocation basis following the order prescribed by Pearson – the teacher/examiner does not choose the order of the cards. The sequencing grid will appear in the Instructions to the teacher/examiner booklet for each series.
- the teacher/examiner will give the student a stimulus card based on one of the subtopics from the student’s two chosen GTAs
- each stimulus card will contain two short paragraphs on a subtopic
- students will have 15 minutes to prepare for this section, during which they can make notes that they can refer to during their discussion (maximum of one side of A4 paper)
- the assessment for Section A will start immediately after the 15 minutes’ preparation time so students can recall their prepared thoughts easily
- students have approximately four minutes’ discussion time for this section.

Section B (Discussion)

For this section:

- assessment continues without pause or interruption into this section
- the teacher/examiner will engage the student in a discussion based on the same GTA given on the stimulus card, but the discussion should move away from the main focus and subtopic(s) presented on the stimulus card
- the teacher/examiner should move the discussion on after two minutes to discuss a different subtopic in the same GTA as the stimulus card
- the teacher/examiner’s role is to try to stimulate students to produce their best performance, taking them to their ‘linguistic ceiling’ but being careful not to press on with questions of a certain difficulty if it becomes clear that a student cannot cope at that level
- interventions (questions, brief statements, instructions, comments, etc.) should always develop flexibly, building logically on what students have said
- students should not be allowed to produce rehearsed speeches; they should be encouraged to speak independently and spontaneously – students who repeat pre-learned or memorised material should be encouraged to produce more spontaneous discourse
- students have approximately four minutes’ discussion time.

Administration and general information about the conduct of the speaking assessment

Preparation time and notes

- The notes made during the preparation time should be a reference only, and students must not read out whole, prepared sentences.
- The preparation time must be supervised. It can take place either in the examination room with the teacher/examiner or outside of the room with an invigilator.
• Students are not permitted to write on the stimulus card.
• Students must return their notes and stimulus card to the teacher/examiner at the end of the assessment. Any notes made during the preparation time must be kept securely by the centre until 3 months after results have been released for the assessment.

Oral topic form (OR1)
• Students are allowed to refer to their Oral topic form (OR1), but they are not allowed to write additional notes on it. It will be checked by the teacher/examiner in the examination room.
• Scanned forms will not be accepted for submission to Pearson. Electronically completed forms must be sent as per guidance in the Administrative support guide. The sound files must be submitted electronically to Pearson via a Secure file transfer. Sound files sent to the Examiner on a USB or a CD through the post will not be accepted. Please refer to the Administrative Support Guide: Conducting oral examinations for further details.

Assessment window
It is usual for teachers to conduct the speaking assessment with their students during one of two timetabled assessment windows in November/December or in April/May. Information will be available on the Pearson qualifications website: qualifications.pearson.com

Sample assessment materials
Sample student and teacher/examiner cards for the tasks and marking criteria (including guidance of how these criteria are applied) can be found in the Pearson Edexcel International Advanced Level in Spanish Sample Assessment Materials (SAMs) documents.

Marking guidance
Marking guidance has been written to accompany the SAMs and is included with the SAMs booklet and in the specification. Please note that this guidance is for the use of the Pearson-appointed external examiner, who will mark the assessments. They are printed for reference only so as to aid understanding of how the criteria are applied.

1.3 Assessment criteria

General guidance on using levels-based mark schemes
There are five levels-based mark grids to be applied to the discussion. The mark grids are:
• quality of language (Accuracy) (AO3)
• quality of language (Range of lexis) (AO3)
• spontaneity and development (AO1)
• understanding (AO2)
• knowledge and understanding (AO1).

Deciding on a marking band
• First of all, the examiner will consider the performance as a whole and then decide which descriptors most closely match the performance and place it in that band. The descriptors for each band indicate the different features that will be seen in the student’s performance for that band.
• When assigning a band, the examiner will look at the overall quality of the performance and not focus disproportionately on small and specific parts where the student has not performed quite as well as the rest. If the performance covers different aspects of different bands of the mark scheme, the examiner will use a ‘best fit’ approach for defining the band.

Using grids with a range of marks within bands

• Then, the examiner will use the variability of the response to help decide the mark within the band that they have selected. For example, if the performance is predominantly band 5-8 with a small amount of band 9-12 material, it would be placed in band 5-8 but be awarded a mark near the top of the band because of the band 9–12 content.

• The examiner will modify the mark based on how securely the trait descriptors are met at that band.

Quality of language (Accuracy) (AO3)

The following mark grid assesses students’ ability to apply grammar and syntax accurately, as well as accuracy of pronunciation.

Unit 2: Understanding and written response

IAS compulsory unit

Externally assessed

2.1 Unit content

In this unit, students will develop their listening, reading and writing skills in Spanish, in relation to the four general topic areas (GTAs):

- Youth matters
- Lifestyle, health and fitness
- Environment and travel
- Education and employment.

The grammar list provided in Appendix 6 illustrates the level required for this qualification.

What students need to learn

Students will learn to recognise and use the Spanish language in a variety of contexts and in relation to a prescribed range of general topic areas (GTAs):

2.2 Assessment information

- This unit assesses listening, reading and writing skills.
- First assessment: June 2017.
- The assessment is 2 hours and 30 minutes.
- The assessment is out of 90 marks.
- There are three sections: Section A assesses listening skills; Section B assesses reading and grammar skills and Section C assesses writing skills.
- Sections A and B consist of eight questions. Section C consists of one extended-writing task.
- Each question is set on any of the four general topic areas (GTAs).
- Students must answer all questions.
- The unit will include multiple-choice, short-open and open-response questions and one extended-writing question.
- The use of dictionaries is not permitted.

Section A: Listening (20 marks)

Students will be required to listen to a range of authentic material recorded in Spanish and to retrieve and convey information given in the recording by responding to a range of questions in Spanish. Students will need to show understanding of both the general sense and specific details conveyed. The questions will elicit non-verbal responses and short answers in Spanish.

Section B: Reading and Grammar (30 marks)

Students will be required to read authentic printed materials written in Spanish and to retrieve and convey information by responding to a range of questions in Spanish. The questions will elicit non-verbal responses and short answers in Spanish.

Questions are linked to a range of texts that test reading and comprehension skills.

Students will also need to understand and manipulate grammatical structures and word forms in Spanish by inserting the most appropriate wording to fill the gap, (the text for this exercise will be on the same topic as the previous reading text).
Section C: Writing (40 marks)

Students will write a 240–280 words essay, in Spanish, in response to a short stimulus written in Spanish, that relates to one of the general topic areas (GTAs) featured in Section 2.

Students will have individual control over the pace of this examination, including the listening element.

A CD recording will be provided for each student with the examination paper. Centres must ensure that students have access to equipment that permits individual listening (e.g. a CD player with headphones).

2.3 Assessment criteria

General guidance on using levels-based mark schemes

There are two levels-based mark grids to be applied to the essay. The mark grids are:

- content and communication (AO2)
- quality of language (Accuracy and range of lexis) (AO3).

Deciding on a marking band

- First of all, the examiner will consider the essay as a whole and then decide which descriptors most closely match the answer and place it in that band. The descriptors for each band indicate the different features that will be seen in the student’s answer for that band.

- When assigning a band, the examiner will look at the overall quality of the essay and not focus disproportionately on small and specific parts where the student has not performed quite as well as the rest. If the answer covers different aspects of different bands of the mark scheme, the examiner will use a ‘best fit’ approach for defining the band.

Using grids with a range of marks within bands

- Then, the examiner will use the variability of the response to help decide the mark within the band that they have selected. For example, if the response is predominantly band 5-8 with a small amount of band 9-12 material, it would be placed in band 5-8 but be awarded a mark near the top of the band because of the band 9–12 content.

- The examiner will modify the mark based on how securely the trait descriptors are met at that band.
Content and communication (AO2)

This mark grid assesses students’ ability to understand and respond in writing to written language.

| 1–4  | - The student has shown minimal ability to express ideas relevant to the narrative, report or description required, and ideas hardly follow a logical sequence.
- The piece is rarely coherent and there is so much digression that the overall theme or purpose of the piece is greatly obscured. |
| 5–8  | - The student has shown some basic ability to express ideas in a form that would be comprehensible to a native reader, with only occasional evidence of ideas following a logical sequence.
- The piece is occasionally coherent and while there is some digression from the topic, the overall theme or purpose is generally clear. |
| 9–12 | - The student has shown a moderate ability to express ideas in a form that would be comprehensible to a native reader, and some evidence of ideas following a logical sequence.
- The piece is sometimes coherent and there is digression from the topic, but the overall theme or purpose is clear. |
| 13–16| - The student has shown a good ability to express ideas in a form that would be comprehensible to a native reader, with much evidence of ideas following a logical sequence.
- The piece is mostly coherent and while there may be occasional ambiguity or digression from the topic, these appear to be aberrations in an otherwise pertinent piece of work. |
| 17–20| - The student has shown an excellent ability to express ideas in a logical sequence, and errors do not interfere with the comprehension.
- The piece is entirely coherent and while there may be very minor ambiguities or digression from the topic, the piece is confident, fluent, pertinent and purposeful. |
Quality of language (Accuracy and range of lexis) (AO3)

Unit 3: Understanding and spoken response

IA2 compulsory unit

Externally assessed

3.1 Unit content

Students will develop their presentation skills in Spanish, by presenting and defending their own views on their chosen issue while sustaining a debate.

Students can choose any issue, and they are not restricted to any of the prescribed general topics areas in the other units.

Students will develop their debating skills by defending their views and sustaining discussions.

The grammar list provided in Appendix 6 illustrates the level required for this qualification.

3.2 Assessment information

- This unit assesses speaking skills.
- First assessment: January 2018.
- The assessment is 11-13 minutes.
- The assessment is out of 40 marks and marked holistically, though some marks are allocated specifically to the debate.
- The assessment consists of a debate between the teacher/examiner and the student on an issue chosen by the student, followed by a discussion of at least two further issues chosen by the teacher/examiner.
- Pearson will not provide any assessment cards for this unit.
- The presentation is on any chosen issue by the student.
- The unit will contribute 15% towards the overall weighting for the IAL qualification.
- Assessments will be conducted by teachers/examiners in one of two prescribed assessment windows; either in November/December or in April/May in any single year. Dates for the assessment period will be confirmed at the start of each academic year. The assessment period will not always be continuous or be the same period each year, for example it will need to accommodate the Easter break, which may change from year to year. Please note that the oral examinations must be undertaken on one day only unless your centre has a large cohort, in which case it is possible to undertake them on consecutive days. A typical maximum would be 15 students per teacher per day.
- Students must complete an Oral chosen issue form (OR3) (which can be found in Appendix 7: Oral assessment forms) no more than three weeks in advance of the assessment, on which they must write a brief statement in Spanish, indicating their stance on their chosen issue. A copy of this form must be given to the teacher/examiner before the assessment. Students can take a copy of this form into the examination and may refer to this at any point during the assessment. The electronically completed Oral chosen issue form (OR3) must be sent with the recording to Pearson. Scanned forms will not be accepted for submission. Electronically completed forms must be sent as per guidance in the Administrative support guide. The sound files must be submitted electronically to Pearson via a Secure file transfer. Sound files sent to the Examiner on a USB or a CD through the post will not be accepted. Please refer to the Administrative Support Guide: Conducting oral examinations for further details.

- Complete, unedited recordings of all assessments must be submitted to Pearson for marking. Please see the Administrative support guide for more information.

- All assessments will be marked against assessment criteria that can be found in the Pearson Edexcel International A Level in Spanish Sample Assessment Materials (SAMs) documents and in this specification.

- Students are only permitted to complete this assessment once per session.

- Students must sign the Student speaking authentication sheet (CAS) (which can be found in Appendix 7: Oral assessment forms) on completion of the assessment.

- Teacher/examiners must complete the CAS form and return it to Pearson along with the examination recordings and completed OR3 forms.

Section A (debate)

For this section:

- students have a free choice of a subject of interest – it does not need to relate to any of the general topic areas (GTAs) studied

- the subject of interest must not be based on the topic, literary work or film studied for Unit 4 but can focus on a wider exploration of the author or film-maker of those works studied

- examples of suitable issue statements that make the student’s stance on the issue clear could include, ‘I think that university education should be free to all students’, or ‘In my opinion, the ban on smoking in public places is wrong’. Please note that these are given only as a very general indication of the sort of possible issues and stances that students might consider

- students must initiate and conduct their own research and develop their research skills when investigating their subject of personal interest (see the subsequent bullet points for examples of suitable sources that students can use as a starting point for their research)

- students will be assessed on the breadth and depth of their research in their presentation. As such, students should mention Spanish-language newspaper and magazine articles, online written sources, journals, literary texts and any other suitable Spanish-language written source that can be referenced

- students may refer to other authentic Spanish-language sources they have used in their research during the debate. These could include films, television, radio, online audio-visual material and interviews

- in the assessment, students have approximately one minute to outline their stance on their chosen issue followed by approximately four minutes debate on the issue.

Section B (further issues)

For this section:

- assessment continues without pause or interruption into this section

- the teacher/examiner must introduce at least two further issues for discussion. Students must not know in advance of the assessment which further issues the teacher/examiner will choose for discussion, these must be unpredictable elements of the assessment

- the teacher/examiner should cover a range of issues for discussion across the centre
• students will be rewarded for the ability to respond to the spoken language, so it is important that the teacher/examiner’s questions are sufficiently challenging both linguistically and conceptually to allow the student to access the full range of marks

• the teacher/examiner must ensure that the unpredictable issues in this unit are linked to the GTAs described in the specification. All students at IA2 will be expected to have covered the seven GTAs to some degree, and students who are able to demonstrate good knowledge of any of these areas should be rewarded accordingly

• unpredictable issues which relate to the four IAS/IAL general topic areas do not have to refer to Spanish-speaking culture, although they may. However, issues which relate to the three IA2 specific general topic areas must refer to Spanish-speaking culture.

• the teacher/examiner must not require the student to produce any very detailed or specialised knowledge in the follow-on unpredictable discussions

• in the assessment, students have approximately 6 to 8 minutes’ discussion time.

Administration and general information about the conduct of the speaking assessment

Oral chosen issue form (OR3)

• Students must submit an Oral chosen issue form (OR3) to the teacher/examiner in advance of the assessment.

• Students must declare on their form the issue for their debate and include a statement that indicates the stance that they are taking on the particular issue.

• Students are allowed to refer to their Oral chosen issue form (OR3), but they are not allowed to write additional notes on it. It will be checked by the teacher/examiner in the examination room.

• Scanned forms will not be accepted for submission to Pearson. Electronically completed forms must be sent as directed in the Administrative support guide.

Assessment window

It is usual for teachers to conduct the speaking assessment with their students during one of two timetabled assessment windows in November/December or in April/May. Information will be available on the Pearson qualifications website: qualifications.pearson.com

Sample assessment materials

Sample marking criteria (including guidance of how these criteria are applied) can be found in the Pearson Edexcel International Advanced level in Spanish Sample Assessment Materials (SAMs) documents.

Marking guidance has been written to accompany the SAMs and is included with the SAMs booklet. Please note that this guidance is for the use of the Pearson-appointed external examiner, who will mark the assessments. They are printed for reference only so as to aid understanding of how the criteria are applied.
3.3 Assessment criteria

General guidance on using levels-based mark schemes

There are five levels-based mark grids to be applied to the presentation and debate. The mark grids are:

- spontaneity and development (AO1)
- quality of language (Accuracy) (AO3)
- quality of language (Range of lexis) (AO3)
- reading and research (AO2)
- critical analysis (AO4).

Deciding on a marking band

- First of all, the examiner will consider the performance as a whole and then decide which descriptors most closely match the performance and place it in that band. The descriptors for each band indicate the different features that will be seen in the student’s performance for that band.

- When assigning a band, the examiner will look at the overall quality of the performance and not focus disproportionately on small and specific parts where the student has not performed quite as well as the rest. If the performance covers different aspects of different bands of the mark scheme, the examiner will use a ‘best fit’ approach for defining the band.

Using grids with a range of marks within bands

- Then, the examiner will use the variability of the performance to help decide the mark within the band that they have selected. For example, if the performance is predominantly band 6-10 with a small amount of band 11-15 material, it would be placed in band 6-10 but be awarded a mark near the top of the band because of the band 11–15 content.

- The examiner will modify the mark based on how securely the trait descriptors are met at that band.

Unit 4: Research, understanding and written response

IA2 compulsory unit

Externally assessed

4.1 Unit content

In this unit, students will develop their listening, reading and writing skills in Spanish. They will develop their ability to listen and respond in Spanish, while learning about the seven general topic areas (GTAs):

- Youth matters
- Lifestyle, health and fitness
- Environment and travel
- Education and employment
- Technology in the Spanish-speaking world
- Society in the Spanish-speaking world
- Ethics in the Spanish-speaking world.

Students will also develop their ability to write in Spanish by studying one from a prescribed set of topics, literary texts and films in Spanish:

- Geography topic
- History topic
- Literary texts (literature)
- Films.

The grammar list provided in Appendix 6 illustrates the level required for this qualification.
What students need to learn

Students will learn to recognise and use the Spanish language in a variety of contexts and in relation to a prescribed range of general topic areas (GTAs). The unit draws upon seven GTAs and a prescribed set of topics, literary texts and films:

4.2 Assessment information

This unit assesses listening, reading and writing skills.

- First assessment: June 2018.
- The assessment is 2 hours and 30 minutes.
- The assessment is out of 90 marks.
- There are three sections: Section A assesses listening skills, Section B assesses reading and grammar skills and Section C assesses writing skills.
- Sections A and B consist of eight questions. Section C consists of one extended-writing task.
- In Section C, a choice of 2 questions will be offered for each topic, literary text or film.
- Students must answer only one question in Section C.
- The unit will contribute 35% towards the overall weighting for the IAL qualification.

Section A: Listening (20 marks)

Students will be required to listen to a range of authentic recorded material in Spanish and to retrieve and convey information given in the recording by responding to a range of questions in Spanish. Students will need to show understanding of both the general sense and specific details conveyed. The questions will elicit non-verbal responses and short answers in Spanish.

Section B: Reading and Grammar (30 marks)

Students will be required to read authentic printed materials written in Spanish and to retrieve and convey information by responding to a range of questions in Spanish. The questions will elicit non-verbal responses and short answers in Spanish.

Questions are linked to a range of reading comprehension exercises.

Students will also need to understand and manipulate grammatical structures in Spanish by rewriting phrases using the words or expressions given to them in brackets (the phrases to be rewritten will be taken from the texts used in Section B).

Section C: Writing (40 marks)

Students must answer one question, in Spanish, that relates to a topic, a literary text or a film chosen from the prescribed list featured in section 4.1 (Set topics, literary texts and films). A choice of two questions will be offered for each of the prescribed topics, literary texts and films. Students should write 300-400 words. The assessment rewards students for communicating relevant information effectively as well as for the quality of the Spanish language produced. See assessment criteria in section 4.3.

Students will have individual control over the pace of this examination, including the listening element.

A CD recording will be provided for each student with the examination paper. Centres must ensure that students have access to equipment that permits individual listening (e.g. a CD player with headphones).
4.3 Assessment criteria

General guidance on using levels-based mark schemes

There are three levels-based mark grids to be applied to each individual essay that makes up the written response to works. The mark grids are:

- content and communication (AO2)
- quality of language (Range of lexis) (AO3)
- critical analysis (AO4), organisation and development (AO3).

Deciding on a marking band

- First of all, the examiner will consider the essay as a whole and then decide which descriptors most closely match the answer and place it in that band. The descriptors for each band indicate the different features that will be seen in the student’s answer for that band.
- When assigning a band, the examiner will look at the overall quality of the essay and not focus disproportionately on small and specific parts where the student has not performed quite as well as the rest. If the answer covers different aspects of different bands of the mark scheme, the examiner will use a ‘best fit’ approach for defining the band.

Using grids with a range of marks within bands

- Then, the examiner will use the variability of the response to help decide the mark within the band that they have selected. For example, if the response is predominantly band 7-9 with a small amount of band 10-12 material, it would be placed in band 7-9 but be awarded a mark near the top of the band because of the band 10–12 content.
- The examiner will modify the mark based on how securely the trait descriptors are met at that band.

Administration and general information

Entries, resitting of units

Entries

Details of how to enter students for the examinations for these qualifications can be found in our International Information Manual. A copy is made available to all examinations officers and is available on our website, qualifications.pearson.com.

Students should be advised that, if they take two qualifications in the same subject, colleges, universities and employers are very likely to take the view that they have achieved only one of the two qualifications. Students or their advisers who have any doubts about subject combinations should check with the institution to which they wish to progress before embarking on their programmes.

Resitting of units

Students can resit any unit irrespective of whether the qualification is to be cashed in. If a student resits a unit more than once, only the better of the two most recent attempts of that unit will be available for aggregation to a qualification grade. Please refer to the Entry, Aggregation and Certification document on our website: qualifications.pearson.com/IAL-entry-certification-procedures.

Access arrangements, reasonable adjustments, special consideration and malpractice

Equality and fairness are central to our work. Our equality policy requires all students to have equal opportunity to access our qualifications and assessments, and our qualifications to be awarded in a way that is fair to every student.

We are committed to making sure that:

- students with a protected characteristic (as defined by the UK Equality Act 2010) are not, when they are undertaking one of our qualifications, disadvantaged in comparison to students who do not share that characteristic
- all students achieve the recognition they deserve for undertaking a qualification and that this achievement can be compared fairly to the achievement of their peers.
Language of assessment

Assessment of these qualifications will be available in Spanish only. All student work must be in Spanish.

We recommend that students are able to read and write in English at Level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Access arrangements

Access arrangements are agreed before an assessment. They allow students with special educational needs, disabilities or temporary injuries to:

- access the assessment
- show what they know and can do without changing the demands of the assessment.

The intention behind an access arrangement is to meet the particular needs of an individual student with a disability without affecting the integrity of the assessment. Access arrangements are the principal way in which awarding bodies comply with the duty under the Equality Act 2010 to make 'reasonable adjustments'.

Access arrangements should always be processed at the start of the course. Students will then know what is available and have the access arrangement(s) in place for assessment.

Reasonable adjustments

The Equality Act 2010 requires an awarding organisation to make reasonable adjustments where a student with a disability would be at a substantial disadvantage in undertaking an assessment. The awarding organisation is required to take reasonable steps to overcome that disadvantage.

A reasonable adjustment for a particular student may be unique to that individual and therefore might not be in the list of available access arrangements.

Whether an adjustment will be considered reasonable will depend on a number of factors, including:

- the needs of the student with the disability
- the effectiveness of the adjustment
- the cost of the adjustment; and
- the likely impact of the adjustment on the student with the disability and other students.

An adjustment will not be approved if it involves unreasonable costs to the awarding organisation, timeframes or affects the security or integrity of the assessment. This is because the adjustment is not ‘reasonable’.

Special consideration

Special consideration is a post-examination adjustment to a student's mark or grade to reflect temporary injury, illness or other indisposition at the time of the examination/assessment, which has had, or is reasonably likely to have had, a material effect on a student’s ability to take an assessment or demonstrate their level of attainment in an assessment.
Further information

Please see our website for further information about how to apply for access arrangements and special consideration.

For further information about access arrangements, reasonable adjustments and special consideration please refer to the JCQ website: www.jcq.org.uk.

Student malpractice

Student malpractice refers to any act by a student that compromises or seeks to compromise the process of assessment or which undermines the integrity of the qualifications or the validity of results/certificates.

Student malpractice in examinations must be reported to Pearson using a JCQ Form M1 (available at www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/malpractice). The form can be emailed to pqsmalpractice@pearson.com or posted to: Investigations Team, Pearson, 190 High Holborn, London, WC1V 7BH. Please provide as much information and supporting documentation as possible. Note that the final decision regarding appropriate sanctions lies with Pearson.

Failure to report malpractice constitutes staff or centre malpractice.

Staff/centre malpractice

Staff and centre malpractice includes both deliberate malpractice and maladministration of our qualifications. As with student malpractice, staff and centre malpractice is any act that compromises or seeks to compromise the process of assessment or which undermines the integrity of the qualifications or the validity of results/certificates.

All cases of suspected staff malpractice and maladministration must be reported immediately, before any investigation is undertaken by the centre, to Pearson on a JCQ Form M2(a) (available at www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/malpractice).

The form, supporting documentation and as much information as possible can be emailed to pqsmalpractice@pearson.com or posted to: Investigations Team, Pearson, 190 High Holborn, London, WC1V 7BH. Note that the final decision regarding appropriate sanctions lies with Pearson.

Failure to report malpractice itself constitutes malpractice.

More-detailed guidance on malpractice can be found in the latest version of the document JCQ General and vocational qualifications Suspected Malpractice in Examinations and Assessments, available at www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/malpractice.
Awarding and reporting

The Pearson Edexcel International Advanced Subsidiary in Spanish will be graded on a five-grade scale from A to E. The Pearson Edexcel International Advanced Level in Spanish will be graded on a six-point scale A* to E. Individual unit results will be reported. Only Units 1 and 2 will contribute to the International Advanced Subsidiary grade. All four units will contribute to the International Advanced Level grade.

The first certification opportunity for the Pearson Edexcel International Advanced Subsidiary in Spanish will be in June 2017. The first certification opportunity for the Pearson Edexcel International Advanced Level in Spanish will be in June 2018. A pass in an International Advanced Subsidiary subject is indicated by one of the five grades A, B, C, D, E, of which grade A is the highest and grade E the lowest. A pass in an International Advanced Level subject is indicated by one of the six grades A*, A, B, C, D, E, of which grade A* is the highest and grade E the lowest. Students whose level of achievement is below the minimum judged by Pearson to be of sufficient standard to be recorded on a certificate will receive an unclassified U result.

Unit results

Students will receive a uniform mark between 0 and the maximum uniform mark for each unit.

The uniform marks at each grade threshold for each unit are:

Student recruitment and progression

Pearson follows the JCQ policy concerning recruitment to our qualifications in that:
- they must be available to anyone who is capable of reaching the required standard
- they must be free from barriers that restrict access and progression
- equal opportunities exist for all students.

Prior learning and other requirements

There are no prior learning or other requirements for these qualifications.

Students who would benefit most from studying these qualifications are likely to have a Level 2 qualification such as a GCSE in Spanish.

Progression

Students can progress from these qualifications to further study at university level. In addition, the study of one language at AS Level and A Level can facilitate and help promote the learning of other languages. The qualification may also add to an individual’s employability profile, particularly for companies based globally. Students can progress to a wide range of careers in areas such as journalism and media, education, science, medicine, the civil service, sales, marketing, retail, and charities.

Appendix 2: Pearson World Class Qualification design principles

Pearson’s World Class Qualification design principles mean that all Edexcel qualifications are developed to be rigorous, demanding, inclusive and empowering.

We work collaboratively to gain approval from an external panel of educational thought-leaders and assessment experts from across the globe. This is to ensure that Edexcel qualifications are globally relevant, represent world-class best practice in qualification and assessment design, maintain a consistent standard and support learner progression in today’s fast-changing world.

Pearson’s Expert Panel for World-Class Qualifications is chaired by Sir Michael Barber, a leading authority on education systems and reform. He is joined by a wide range of key influencers with expertise in education and employability.

“I’m excited to be in a position to work with the global leaders in curriculum and assessment to take a fresh look at what young people need to know and be able to do in the 21st century, and to consider how we can give them the opportunity to access that sort of education.” Sir Michael Barber.
Endorsement from Pearson’s Expert Panel for World Class Qualifications for the International Advanced Subsidiary (IAS)/International Advanced Level (IAL) development process

December 2015

“We were chosen, either because of our expertise in the UK education system, or because of our experience in reforming qualifications in other systems around the world as diverse as Singapore, Hong Kong, Australia and a number of countries across Europe.

We have guided Pearson through what we judge to be a rigorous world class qualification development process that has included, where appropriate:

- extensive international comparability of subject content against the highest-performing jurisdictions in the world
- benchmarking assessments against UK and overseas providers to ensure that they are at the right level of demand
- establishing External Subject Advisory Groups, drawing on independent subject-specific expertise to challenge and validate our qualifications.

Importantly, we have worked to ensure that the content and learning is future oriented, and that the design has been guided by Pearson’s Efficacy Framework. This is a structured, evidenced process which means that learner outcomes have been at the heart of this development throughout.

We understand that ultimately it is excellent teaching that is the key factor to a learner’s success in education but as a result of our work as a panel we are confident that we have supported the development of Edexcel IAS and IAL qualifications that are outstanding for their coherence, thoroughness and attention to detail and can be regarded as representing world-class best practice.”

Appendix 3: Transferable skills

The need for transferable skills

In recent years, higher-education institutions and employers have consistently flagged the need for students to develop a range of transferable skills to enable them to respond with confidence to the demands of undergraduate study and the world of work.

The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) defines skills, or competencies, as 'the bundle of knowledge, attributes and capacities that can be learned and that enable individuals to successfully and consistently perform an activity or task and can be built upon and extended through learning.'[1]

To support the design of our qualifications, the Pearson Research Team selected and evaluated seven global 21st-century skills frameworks. Following on from this process, we identified the National Research Council’s (NRC) framework [2] as the most evidence-based and robust skills framework, and have used this as a basis for our adapted skills framework.

The framework includes cognitive, intrapersonal skills and interpersonal skills.

The NRC framework is included alongside literacy and numeracy skills.

The skills have been interpreted for this specification to ensure they are appropriate for the subject. All of the skills listed are evident or accessible in the teaching, learning and/or assessment of the qualifications. Some skills are directly assessed. Pearson materials will support you in identifying these skills and developing these skills in students.

The table overleaf sets out the framework and gives an indication of the skills that can be found in Spanish and indicates the interpretation of the skill in this area. A full subject interpretation of each skill, with mapping to show opportunities for student development is given on the subject pages of our website: qualifications.pearson.com

Appendix 4: Level 3 Extended Project qualification

What is the Extended Project?
The Extended Project is a standalone qualification that can be taken alongside International Advanced Level (IAL) qualifications. It supports the development of independent learning skills and helps to prepare students for their next step – whether that be higher education or employment. The qualification:

- is recognised by higher education for the skills it develops
- is worth half of an International Advanced Level (IAL) qualification at grades A*–E
- carries UCAS points for university entry.

The Extended Project encourages students to develop skills in the following areas: research, critical thinking, extended writing and project management. Students identify and agree a topic area of their choice for in-depth study (which may or may not be related to an IAL subject they are already studying), guided by their teacher.

Students can choose from one of four approaches to produce:

- a dissertation (for example an investigation based on predominately secondary research)
- an investigation/field study (for example a practical experiment)
- a performance (for example in music, drama or sport)
- an artefact (for example creating a sculpture in response to a client brief or solving an engineering problem).

The qualification is non-examination assessment based and students are assessed on the skills of managing, planning and evaluating their project. Students will research their topic, develop skills to review and evaluate the information, and then present the final outcome of their project.

The Extended Project has 120 guided learning hours (GLH) consisting of a 40-GLH taught element that includes teaching the technical skills (for example research skills) and an 80-GLH guided element that includes mentoring students through the project work. The qualification is 100% internally assessed and externally moderated.

How to link the Extended Project with Spanish
The Extended Project creates the opportunity to develop transferable skills for progression to higher education and to the workplace through the exploration of either an area of personal interest or a topic of interest from within the Spanish qualification content.

Through the Extended Project, students will develop skills that support their study of Spanish, including:

- conducting, organising and using research
- independent reading in the subject area
- defining a hypothesis to be researched using Spanish-language sources
- presenting research in writing
- evaluating arguments
- critical thinking.
In the context of the Extended Project, critical thinking refers to the ability to identify and develop arguments for a point of view or hypothesis and to consider and respond to alternative arguments. This supports the development of evaluative skills, through evaluating arguments, and using qualitative and quantitative evidence to support informed judgements and put forward strong arguments in Spanish.

Types of Extended Project related to Spanish

Students may produce a dissertation on any topic that can be researched and argued, for example a controversial issue such as euthanasia, the impact of terrorism, or adoption.

A dissertation might involve an investigation such as:

- the impact of Spanish film on the Western world
- an investigation into the ease of emigration for citizens of Spanish-speaking countries.

The dissertation uses secondary research sources to provide a reasoned defence or a point of view, with consideration of counter-arguments.

An alternative might be an investigative project or field study involving the collection of data from primary research, for example:

- a study of the impact of unemployment in a Spanish-speaking community
- a statistical survey of changing social attitudes towards stem cell research.

Using the Extended Project to support breadth and depth

In the Extended Project, students are assessed on the quality of the work they produce and the skills they develop and demonstrate through completing this work. Students should demonstrate that they have extended themselves in some significant way beyond what they have been studying in Spanish. Students can demonstrate extension in one or more dimensions:

- deepening understanding – where a student explores a topic in greater depth than in the specification content. This could be an in-depth exploration of a subtopic within a topic
- broadening skills – where a student learns a new skill. This might be learning a new statistical technique that can be used in the analysis of either primary or secondary data collected by the student
- widening perspectives – where the student’s project spans different subjects. A student studying Spanish with Geography may wish to research the impact of tourism on a particular Spanish-speaking region or locality. A student studying Spanish with medicine may wish to investigate new advances in therapies conducted by Spanish research facilities.

A wide range of information to support the delivery and assessment of the Extended Project, including the specification, teacher guidance for all aspects, an editable scheme of work and exemplars for all four approaches, can be found on our website.
