Research sheet one

Research sheet two

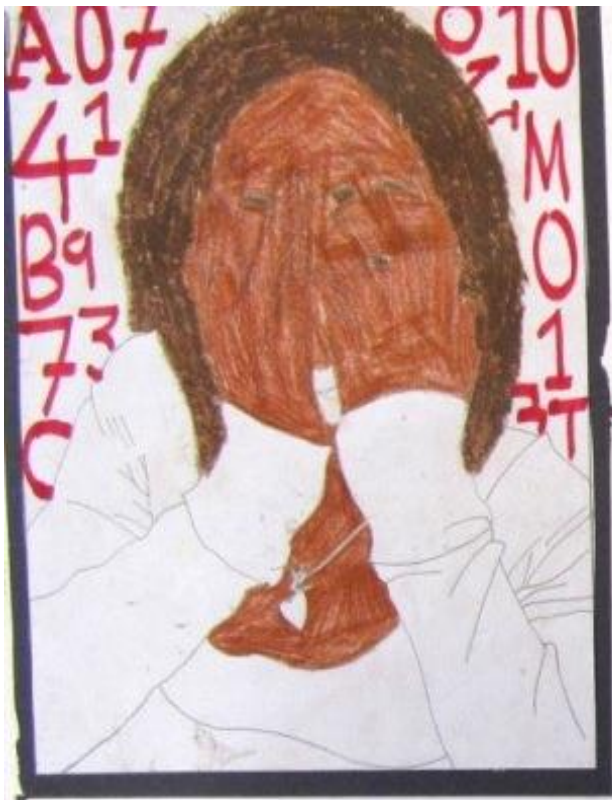

This artwork is called Haida Art by Paul Win who is a Haida, Heiltsuk artist from Kitimat, British Columbia was born in 1973 and is a natural form artist. I choose his artwork because it is beautiful and is simplistic he uses paint to do his work. I used water colour instead. It is called Haida Whale.

This artwork is known as the Haida Wolf it is also done by Paul Windsor and I choose it because it just triggers something in me. He did it in colour but I decided to do it in water colour pencil.

Research sheet three

I decided to combined my embarrassed girl artwork with my encryption artwork and make it look like a poster. I used Pastels, Colour pencils and a marker.

I combined my finger print man with my safe printing and my symbols grid to make this artwork I used Colourpencils, Pen and a printout.

This is a combination of my police banner and a the broken window figure and put them together. I used pastels and tracing paper.
