Welcome

Our new suite of Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) qualifications has been refreshed to meet the needs of you and your students, to keep the content up-to-date and relevant. Designed to understand today’s global learner, respect local contexts and ensure a global standard, the suite has been developed to align with UK government intentions to raise standards.

This guide has been designed to provide you with in-depth information about the key features of the new Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English Language A, English Language B and English Literature.

Before we go into detail about English, we wanted to give you an overview of what the overall changes to the Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) suite of qualifications are.

Why choose Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1)?

With over 3.4 million students, in 97 countries, studying Pearson qualifications worldwide, we offer internationally recognised qualifications to schools, colleges and employers globally. We are also the UK's largest academic and vocational Awarding Organisation.

Our new suite of International GCSE (9–1) qualifications is designed to:

Be more relevant for international students

With more international content, including the addition of further international content topics and the use of local contexts where possible.

Reward outstanding academic achievement

By introducing a new 9–1 grading scale, with the new grade 9 representing a new level of attainment, you can differentiate your top performing students. There's also greater differentiation in the middle of the scale, with three grades (6, 5, and 4) rather than two grades (B and C).

Contain embedded transferable skills

Developing skills such as problem-solving and verbal reasoning, skills that are valued by universities and employers, supporting students to seamlessly progress to higher-level study.

Provide detailed exam analysis with ResultsPlus

ResultsPlus is a service unique to Pearson that provides free online in-depth mock and actual exam performance analysis, supporting teachers to plan improvements in teaching and learning, driving attainment.

Offer a wider range of teaching and learning materials, resources and training

This support includes schemes of work, Getting Started guides, exemplar materials, ExamWizard, comprehensive textbooks and interactive resources, digital services and tailored teacher training.

Support progression to further study

Developed with the help of teachers and higher-education representatives, they provide seamless progression to further study, including A levels and beyond.

Why choose Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English qualifications?

We listened to feedback from all parts of the international school community, including a large number of teachers. The changes we've made will engage students and give them skills that will support progression to further study of English Language, English Literature and a wide range of other subjects.

Clear and straightforward question papers

Our question papers are clear and provide sufficient challenge and support for students of all ability ranges. Our mark schemes are straightforward so that the assessment requirements are clear.

Reward outstanding academic achievement

To ensure that we fully align with UK government intentions to raise standards, and that international students have the same opportunity to be rewarded for outstanding academic achievement, our new qualifications use a new 9–1 grading scale, instead of the A*–G grading scale that you are used to.

- The new grade 9 represents a new level of attainment and has been introduced to differentiate your top performing students.
- The bottom of the grade 7 broadly aligns with the bottom of the grade A.
- There is also greater differentiation in the middle of the scale with three new grades (6, 5 and 4) rather than two grades (B and C).
- The bottom of the grade 4 broadly aligns with the bottom of the grade C.
- The bottom of the grade 1 broadly aligns with the bottom of the grade G.

Comparable to GCSE

We have designed our Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English Language A, B and English Literature qualifications to be of a broad equivalent standard to Pearson's regulated Edexcel GCSE qualifications. This ensures that Pearson Edexcel International GCSEs (9–1) are recognised globally and provide learners with the same progression routes.

Support progression to A Level

Our Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English Language A, B and English Literature qualifications enable successful progression to A Level and beyond. Through our world-class qualification development process, we have consulted with International Advanced Level and GCE A Level teachers, as well as university professors, to validate the appropriateness of this qualification including the content, skills and assessment structure.

At Pearson Edexcel, we provide English Language A, B and English Literature qualifications to offer teachers the choice and flexibility to select a specification that best meets the needs of their learners. Each English specification has been designed to develop and stretch students in different ways.

Why choose Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English Language A?

- Designed for international students: We have ensured that the anthology texts are engaging, suitable for all students and that they include a diverse range of international authors.

 - construct and convey meaning in written language, matching style to audience and purpose.
- Development of spoken language skills: Students are able to develop their speaking and listening skills through an optional endorsement.

Feedback from teachers on the English Language A specification

“The qualification continues to test a broad range of skills through the study of an interesting and varied range of material in the Anthology. The materials are addressing a range of cultural backgrounds and therefore this will appeal to an international market as well as to schools here in the UK.

This refreshed qualification retains many of the familiar components but seems to have streamlined the assessment model in an appropriate way. For example, simplifying the nature of the assessment of writing within the examination is a welcome revision which will ensure that Paper 1 will be less daunting.”

Joy Gray, English Teacher at Millfield School, UK.

“The course is appropriate for an international cohort, and I believe will provide appropriate stretch and challenge whilst ensuring, as far as possible, that the assessment and texts are accessible to the full range of students. The added commentary task in the coursework option ensures parity between centres who decide to follow the 100% examination route.

In preparation for the exam, students should develop the skills of interpretation, analysis and evaluation. Text types studied will include a range of non-fiction forms, and students will be given the opportunity to practise a range of non-fiction writing techniques and planning and proofreading skills.”

Faye Banks, English Teacher at Al Yasmina Academy, Abu Dhabi.

Why choose Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English Language B?

- Designed for international students: We have ensured that the texts used within the assessment are engaging, suitable for all students and that they include a diverse range of international authors.
- Broad and deep development of students' skills: The design of the new Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English Language B qualification aims to extend students' knowledge by broadening and deepening skills, for example, students develop the ability to:
 - read and respond to materials from a variety of sources
 - make comparisons between texts and analyse the ways in which writers achieve their effects
 - construct and convey meaning in written language, matching style to audience and purpose.
- Development of spoken language skills: Students are able to develop their speaking and listening skills through an optional endorsement.

Optional Spoken Language Endorsement

- A recorded presentation (10 mins. max) to a teacher or wider audience that includes the teacher (such as a speech or talk or formal debate or dialogue) plus response to questions or prompts.

The differences between Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English Language A and B

The key differences between Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English Language A and B are that Specification B uses unseen texts and is assessed through one, three-hour examination, with no optional coursework route, whereas Specification A has either 2 exams or 1 exam and coursework. Students are assessed on both anthology and unseen texts.

In specification B, there is also an emphasis on reworking the texts for a given audience, enabling students to show their ability to respond to a directed writing task. This type of question does not appear in Specification A but is a skill that is considered important beyond International GCSE.

The extended writing task in Specification B is allotted more time for completion than in Specification A, which may appeal to those students who enjoy creative writing.

Why choose Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English Literature?

- Designed for international students: We have ensured that the anthology texts are engaging, suitable for all students and that they include a diverse range of international authors and poets. The texts include poetry, prose and drama.
- Coursework and examination options: We have provided alternative assessment routes to suit different school and student needs across the world.
- Broad and deep development of students' skills: The design of the new Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English Literature qualification aims to extend students' knowledge by broadening and deepening skills, for example, students develop the ability to:
 - engage with and develop the ability to read and respond to a wide range of literary texts from around the world
 - develop an appreciation of the ways in which authors use literary effects and develop the skills needed for literary study
 - explore authors' use of language to create effects
 - find enjoyment in reading literature
 - through the literary heritage component, learners will also engage with texts such as Romeo and Juliet, Great Expectations and Pride and Prejudice.

Feedback from teachers on the English Literature specification

The examined units test a good range of literature from a range of cultures, with old favourite texts retained and joined by a collection of new material.

The papers seem more streamlined now in the refreshed model but the familiar features of the current qualification have been retained, providing reassurance to teachers.

Students will have experience of comparing texts, analysis, close critical reading and constructing essays on all 3 genres.

Candidates will also be used to reading around the texts, for example, to discover more about the contexts, which is also an important part of the in-depth study required when one progresses beyond GCSE level. The experience which they will gain in understanding and writing about the methods and devices used by writers will also furnish them with valuable knowledge and skills in approaching further study of literature.

Candidates will undoubtedly become better communicators as they will have frequent opportunities to express their ideas and opinions, both individually and in groups to peers, teachers and perhaps wider audiences too.

In addition, the qualification will provide opportunities for candidates to enhance employability skills, depending on how it is taught. For example, they can learn how to improve their performance and how to advance their learning, becoming reflective learners. Skills of critical thinking; reasoning, analysing and problem solving, negotiation and collaboration are also likely to be improved. There is also opportunity to embed and improve IT skills in the day to day learning environment.

Joy Gray, English Teacher at Millfield School, UK.

The international flavour of the texts is enhanced with several of the anthology poetry texts deriving from international authors.

The specification is fully co-teachable with the International GCSE English Language course. Students who study both will greatly benefit from the transferable skills learnt across the two subjects.

The content with the inclusion of a compulsory Shakespeare or literary heritage text, provides the course with more stretch and challenge which supports the progression to the new GCE qualifications.

Faye Banks, English Teacher at Al Yasmina Academy, Abu Dhabi.

Developing transferable skills valued by universities and employers

In recent years, universities and employers have highlighted the need for students and graduates to develop a range of transferable skills, often referred to as 'soft skills', to enable them to better meet the demands of undergraduate study and the world of work.

In fact, universities and employers consider transferable skills to be the largest skills gap overall.

1 in 6

employers have difficulty finding candidates with the skills they require¹

54%

of companies say that skills shortages impact their ability to serve their customers²

1 in 3

skills in a job posting is a "soft skill"¹

of university professors do not think students have the research skills needed for degree-level study³

Redeveloping our International GCSEs has ensured we meet the needs of today's learners to support their progression to universities and employment worldwide. We've embedded transferable skills in the qualifications and resources. This means teachers help students develop these skills while they teach, rather than having to add something additional to their lessons, and students are aware of the skills they're developing. These skills are highly valued by universities and employers.
