

(c) Choose one religion and explain how its followers explain the existence of suffering in the world.

People may say that if god is ^{omnipotent} ~~belovant~~ ^{Q01c} then he is all loving and would want to stop suffering, if he is omnipotent, all powerfull then he could stop suffering. However Christians believe that suffering is caused by humans and god has given humans freedom free will. Christians also believe that suffering prepares us to meet god again and this life is just a test. god does not cause suffering but he lets it happen for ^{example} ~~instance~~ if someone died by an illness he may go needed then back in heaven because there work was done on earth.
