

Exemplar b) 1

Umar (r.a) was a man who was feared in Makkah and when he did something, no one dared to defy him. When he converted to Islam, he announced it to the people of Makkah and dared them to touch him. This gave morale to believers and ~~the~~ they were not in the hiding anymore.

Exemplar b) 2

- Umar (R.A) was very brave man
- He had a powerful heart which enables the nonmuslims to fear him.
- the Shaitan never follows where Umar (R.A.W) passes.
- Muslims were excited when he converted to Islam