

'It is important for Muslims to obey all the laws in the Shariah'.

~~Rega~~ In context to today's world ~~the~~ not every law can be used. For example, the Prophet S.A.W said ^{that the punishment} ~~about a woman~~ ~~for~~ theft would be the having the hands of the thief cut off.

This law ~~does not~~ ^{though} correct cannot be used in today's time for it is too brutal of a crime and if ~~can~~ ^{used} used, then would most probably result in Islamophobic people in all parts of the world 'misinterpreting the ^{law} ~~act~~ as an act of extremism by a ^{terrorist} ~~radical~~ terrorist. By obeying certain laws of Shariah, the ~~is~~ image of Islam and Muslims will be further ruined as it will give out an impression of Muslims and Islam ^{being} ~~rather~~ in favour of violence when in reality, the followers and the religion support peace ^{and are} ~~and are~~ against problems being resolved with violence. This is why, instead now in Muslim countries, if a person steals something, he must pay a fine instead.

~~Another example is of~~
