A few of the key activities that need to be carried out are included, but with obvious omissions. Information is obtained from a few sources. Some of the information gathered and sources used have limited relevance to the project objectives. There is limited application of information to the project outcome. Some documentary sources are identified in a bibliography, although this may not be clear enough to allow the sources to be retrieved. There is limited information about any non-documentary information sources used, which is likely to include information about what learners did.	Information is obtained from a range of sources, including at least two types of information source. Most of the information gathered and sources used are relevant to the project objectives. The information gathered is applied to the project outcomes. Documentary sources are identified in a bibliography clearly enough for the sources to be easily retrieved. There is clear information about any non-documentary information sources used, which is likely to include information about what learners did, and where and when they did it.

Level 1, AO3: Develop and realise

Mark band 1	Mark band 2
Project outcomes that are mainly written Ideas are developed in a way that shows limited understanding of the topic. There is limited evidence of supporting arguments. The project is likely to be sufficiently clear in most places for the reader to understand with some effort. Information is generally presented in a logical order but there will be limited evidence of structuring/connections between different parts of the text and some of the information within the project may have limited relevance. There are frequent errors in the use of language¹ which are intrusive and often interfere with communication. Project outcomes that involve the creation of an artefact or design The artefact or design is produced but may be incomplete. It is likely that some of the relevant resources² obtained by the learner are used with limited success in realising the project outcome in a way that addresses the project objectives. Limited understanding of the topic is apparent. There is limited evidence of development of ideas or that alternative designs have been produced. There is some supporting information which is sufficiently clear in most places to be understood with some effort.	Project outcomes that are mainly written Ideas are developed in a way that shows some understanding of the topic. There is an answer to the question. There is some evidence of supporting arguments and some consideration of alternative viewpoints or interpretations. The project is likely to be sufficiently clear for the reader to understand without too much effort. Information is generally presented in a logical order with some structuring/connections between different parts of the text and the information within the project is generally relevant. There are some errors in the use of language which may sometimes be intrusive, but these tend not to interfere with communication. The project includes some relevant features of effective presentation³. Project outcomes that involve the creation of an artefact or design The artefact or design is produced and presented in an appropriate format. It is likely that most of the relevant resources obtained by the learner are used with reasonable success in realising the finished project outcome in a way that addresses the project objectives. Some understanding of the topic is apparent. There is some evidence of development of ideas and that alternative designs have been produced. There is some supporting information about both of these which is sufficiently clear to be understood without much effort. The evidence produced includes a few features of effective presentation⁴.

² For example equipment, technology, materials

³ See page 15 – features of effective presentation for written outcomes

⁴ See page 14 – features of effective presentation for artefacts/designs

Project outcomes that are ephemeral The performance, event (etc) takes place. There is likely to be a little evidence of preparation/rehearsal. Some of the relevant resources⁵ for the performance/event have been obtained by the learner, and are used with limited success in realising the project outcome in a way that addresses the project objectives. Limited understanding of the topic is apparent. There is limited supporting information to describe the stages that have been gone through or how ideas have developed. This information is sufficiently clear in most places to be understood with some effort.	Project outcomes that are ephemeral The performance, event (etc) takes place. Level 1, AO4: Review

Mark band 1	Mark band 2
Overall the review of the project and their own learning and performance is brief and may be unclear in places. The learner can identify which of their objectives were or were not met. They show limited ability to assess how successful the project has been and how well they have managed. They is some attempt to identify the skills and knowledge that they have developed during the project. There are one or two brief ideas for follow up work in the same or other areas of study or interest.	As a whole, the review of the project and their own learning and performance is developed and clear The learner can identify which of their objectives were or were not met and give reasons for success or lack of it. They show that they can assess how successful the project has been and how well they have managed They can describe the skills and knowledge that they have developed during the project. There are several clear ideas for follow up work in the same or other areas of study or interest.

Assessment Object	Moderator Comments	Marks
AO1	The PPF and the activity log are in the back of the folder. All sections of the PPF are completed with project objectives, reasons, project activities. However, time scales are limited and do not reflect the 60 GLH. An activity log is also included however there are no changes recorded during the course of the project. Overall, the marks sit in MB2 with an additional mark for independence which has been indicated by the assessor.	Mark Band 2
AO2	The learner has included evidence of two types of research (primary and secondary) News papers articles from the internet, videos from the internet. A bibliography is also included to support the research. This evidence clearly sits in marks band 2 with a mark for independence.	Mark Band 2
AO3	The learner includes detailed evidence to support the project title and objectives and has clearly applied the evidence in the development and realisation of the project. This evidence clearly sits in marks band 2 with a mark for independence.	Mark Band 2
AO4	The learner has included a review (Conclusion and Evaluation) which identifies the skills and knowledge learnt during the project together with follow up ideas. However the learner does not identify which of the objectives were met or not in the review. Therefore this work sits in MB1 with a mark for independence.	Mark Band 2
