

Section One: Title, objective, responsibilities

Title or working title of project (in the form of a question)

Gang Culture: Are teenagers turning to knives for respect?

Project objectives (eg, what is the question you want to answer? What do you want to learn how to do? What do you want to find out?):

- I want to find out why teenagers are turning to
- Does carrying a knife gain you respect?
- Is London the 'home' of knife crime?
- Are the government doing enough to stop knife crime from rising?

If it is a group project, what will your responsibilities be?

Section Two: Reasons for choosing this project

Reasons for choosing the project (eg, links to other subjects you are studying, personal interest, future plans, knowledge/skills you want to improve, why the topic is important)

I have chosen to do this project because I am very curious to learn more about knife. I want to do an insight into knife. I want to find out more information. I am also interested in this project because I have always been fascinated with knife crime and the topic links up with what I want to do in the future. I want to be able to understand knife crime by the end of the project.
