Unit P302

Topic: What are the British perception of America and why?

AO1

A focussed question is identified and developed. The project plan is clear and detailed timings are present. A good level of organisational skill is shown and clear records kept within the Activity Log

- Band 3

AO2

A fully documented, extensive and varied Bibliography is given. Excellent referencing is used throughout. Dates of source access and clear links to the origin of material are given throughout the project. Interviews and questionnaires are piloted and data gathered successfully, unfortunately from a restrictive sample. More could have been made of the literature review to indicate critical selection of sources

- High Band 3

AO3

The investigation is well structured and reads well due to coherent linking and effective use of headings. Trends and patterns are identified and the questionnaire shows a good deal of thought and Health and safety is considered. Data is statistically tested and a Man-U test carried out. Conclusions are limited by the small sample questioned but the hypothesis is addressed and an 'answer' found. There are suggestions for further work. A high level of language is used throughout

– Band 3

AO4

The learner shows a high level of insight and self-awareness. Limitations in the process are analysed in detail. A succinct and well structured presentation is given with effective use of slides. The evaluation section is detailed
