

Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1)

English

A round-up of your free support

First to reward outstanding academic achievement

First assessment for the reformed Pearson Edexcel International GCSE (9–1) English qualifications took place in June 2018 for UK students. The Pearson Edexcel International GCSE remains comparable to the reformed UK 'gold standard' GCSE qualification, ensuring recognition as a world-class qualification so students can progress wherever they want to.

With many more international students taking their first assessment of the reformed International GCSE English this June, we've put together this handy infographic about the support available to you and your students.
