Are my grades correct?

Talk to your school or college about your grades. They will consider if you have grounds for appeal. Based on the information provided by the exam board, your school or college will decide whether to appeal on your behalf.

I'm not happy with my results/grades

Your school or college should have an appeals process to follow. If you are concerned there is no process then you can contact us.

I do not have grounds for an appeal and I am unhappy with my grade.

You can sit the assessments in the autumn series or in 2021. Speak to your school or college for more information about the assessments that will be available OR visit our website.

I disagree with my school or colleges decision not to appeal.

Your school or college should have an appeals process to follow. If you are concerned there is no process then you can contact us.

There are no grounds for appeal

There are grounds for an appeal

I'm still unhappy with my grades.

School or college happy with outcome

If your appeal is unsuccessful then your grade will not change.

If successful, centre results may change.

I have concerns about bias, discrimination and lack of integrity at my centre when determining the centre assessment grade and rank order.

You should speak to your centre in the first instance or it may be appropriate to contact us directly.

There are no grounds for appeal

Appeal is unsuccessful

Appeal is successful

I disagree with my school or colleges decision not to appeal.

If successful, centre results may change.

Your school or college will submit an appeal on your behalf to the exam board.

If successfull, centre results may change.