

Effective internal verification of assignment briefs and assessment decisions – quick quiz

1. Internal verification of the assignment brief must take place prior to issuing the brief to students.
True
False
2. Internal verification of the assignment brief is an annual requirement.
True
False
3. You do not need to internally verify a Pearson authorised assignment brief.
True
False
4. If a unit has multiple assignments, you can delay internal verification of assessment decisions until the end of the unit when all assignments are complete.
True
False
5. You should internally verify 25% of assessment decisions
True
False
6. During internal verification of assessment decisions, if a student's achievement is not agreed, you should provide feedback to the assessor explaining why and set clear actions.
True
False
7. Students should receive their assessment record with feedback after the assessment decisions for the assignment have been internally verified.
True
False
8. We must internally verify all resubmissions.
True
False

9. Internal verification of resubmissions can be detailed on the initial submission IV document.

True

False

10. If the assignment brief is fit for purpose or assessment decisions are accurate, feedback to the assessor on the related IV document is not required.

True

False

11. You should only sign and date the IV of the assignment brief/assessment decisions forms once all actions are complete and it is fit for purpose / assessment decisions are agreed.

True

False