

BTEC QCF Assignment Checking Service Terms & Conditions

In submitting these BTEC QCF assignments you agree to our Terms and Conditions.

Terms and Conditions below:

- This is a free service to check your assignment briefs; however this service does not act as an OSCA accreditation for your centre. You will still have to attempt online standardisation in the available OSCA window.
- The Assignment Checking Service is only offered to approve BTEC centres, assignments briefs will not be checked for unapproved programmes.
- Centres agree that a maximum of 2 assignments are submitted per level and Principal Subject Area only.
- Only one assignment should be attached to each request.
- We aim to guide you on whether your assignment briefs are fit for purpose. The service does not provide an official sign off for your assignment briefs. During External Standards Verification, you must make this feedback available to your Standards Verifier as soon as possible.
- All assignment briefs you set in your centre and submitted through the Assignment Checking Service must still be internally verified within your centre. It is your responsibility to ensure that the assignments are completed to the required standard.
- The Assignment Checking Service is a one off feedback service only, no further review of revised assignments briefs will be available after the initial feedback is given.
- By taking advantage of this free service support, your centre will be allowing us to use assignments briefs for future initiatives.

BTEC NQF Assignment Checking Service Terms & Conditions

In submitting these BTEC NQF assignments you agree to our Terms and Conditions

Terms and Conditions below:

- This is a free service to check your assignment briefs; however this service cannot be used in lieu of the relevant Lead Internal Verifier/programme team Standardisation for your centre.
- The Assignment Checking Service is only offered to approved BTEC centres. We reserve the right to only check assignments for centres with approved programmes.
- Centres should not submit more than 2 units worth of assignments for checking.
- Only one assignment should be attached to each request.
- The service aims to guide you on whether your assignment briefs are fit for purpose. The service does not provide an official sign off for your assignment briefs and you must provide any feedback to your allocated Standards Verifier.
- All assignment briefs submitted through the Assignment Checking Service must still be internally verified within your centre. It is your responsibility to ensure that the assignments are completed to the required standard.
- The Assignment Checking Service should be used as a one off feedback service only. We reserve the right to refuse further review of revised assignments briefs after initial feedback is given.
- By taking advantage of this free support service, your centre will be allowing us to use assignments briefs for future initiatives.

BTEC Higher National Assignment Checking Service Terms & Conditions

In submitting these BTEC Higher National assignments you agree to our Terms and Conditions.

Terms and Conditions below:

- The Assignment Checking Service is only offered to approved BTEC centres, assignments briefs will not be checked for unapproved programmes.
- Centres agree that a maximum of 2 assignments are submitted per level (HNC or HND) and Principal Subject Area only.
- We aim to guide you on whether your assignment briefs are fit for purpose. The service does not provide an official sign off for your assignment briefs.
- All assignment briefs you set in your centre and submitted through the Assignment Checking Service must still be internally verified within your centre. It is your responsibility to ensure that the assignments are completed to the required standard.
- The Assignment Checking Service is a one off feedback service only, no further review of revised assignments briefs will be available after the initial feedback is given.
- By taking advantage of this free service support, your centre will be allowing us to use assignments briefs for future initiatives.