To plan, deliver and assess your new BTEC programme effectively, it's important that you have your BTEC team in place. This could involve as few as two members of staff as one person can take on several BTEC roles at the same time though you may prefer to increase this depending on the size of your school or department. Here's a summary of the roles you will need in place:

Head of Centre (Head teacher)

Formally responsible for the management and delivery of BTEC in your school. Their main responsibility is to ensure that your school acts in accordance with our conditions of approval, regulations and any other terms and conditions or policies. Download your Head of Centre activity timeline on our website.

Quality Nominee (QN)

Our main point of contact for quality assurance in your school and responsible for ensuring effective management of your BTEC programmes. Visit our Quality Nominee Support Hub at at: quals.pearson.com/BTECQNhub Download your Quality Nominee activity timeline on our website.

Exams Officer (EO)

Our point of contact for administration at your school. The Exams Officer is responsible for ensuring learners are registered on time and correctly. Visit our Exams Officers page at: quals.pearson.com/BTECexamsofficers Download your Exams Officer activity timeline on our website.

Programme Leader (PL)

Your Programme Leader has overall responsibility for the effective delivery and assessment of BTEC qualifications. For Entry to Level 3 qualifications in schools, the Programme Leader (PL) often also acts as Lead Internal Verifier (LIV) depending on size of school. Download your Programme Leader Activity timeline on our website

Lead Internal Verifier (LIV)

A Lead Internal Verifier acts as a single point of accountability for quality assurance across a subject area. For Entry to Level 3 qualifications in schools, the Lead Internal Verifier (LIV) often also acts as Programme Leader (PL) depending on size of school. Download your Lead Internal Verifier Activity timeline on our website

Internal Verifiers (IV)

Internal Verifiers are responsible for ensuring assessment decisions are consistent across the programme. Internal Verifiers are usually Assessors also, but as an Internal Verifier, you cannot Internally Verify your own assignment briefs and assessment decisions. Download your Internal Verifier activity timeline on our website

Assessor (Teacher)

Assessors are your course teachers so are responsible for teaching and assessing learners against the unit specification and following the rules of assessment. Please note, an Assessor cannot also act as Internal Verifier for their own assignment briefs or assessment decisions. Download your Assessor activity timeline on our website

We've teams of BTEC experts in place to help you with every aspect of delivering your new BTEC course as well as a wide range of resources to download and free training courses you can sign-up for.

Here's a summary of how to get in touch, if you are at all unsure who to contact your Account Specialist will be happy to direct you to the right person.
