Today's BTEC in Creative Media Production

BTEC

Right for you, right for your future

Sophie Stacey – Outstanding BTEC Creative Media Production Student of the Year 2014

Sophie studied the BTEC Level 3 National Extended Diploma in Creative Media Production after feeling that the AS levels she was studying were not giving her the practical experience in film making that she wanted. She set herself challenges to include her community interests in her coursework, using her film and media skills in supporting her local Alzheimers charity. She is on target to achieve a Distinction grade and has been accepted at university to study Digital Film Production.
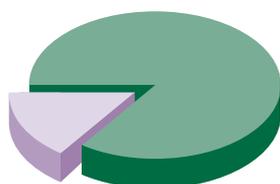

2014 Winner

Progress with your studies

50%+

More than 50% of 20- to 30-year-olds going on to higher education have progressed via studying a BTEC†

85%

85% of BTEC students who progressed to further studies expect to derive long-term career-related benefits from their BTEC study*

Succeed in your career

79%

79% of BTEC students who progressed into employment consider BTEC as an important stepping stone towards their dream job*

62%

62% of large companies have recruited employees with a BTEC qualification

† www.which.co.uk/university   * Independent research carried out by London Economics 2010    YouGov Large Business Research, February 2011

Henry Gale – Outstanding BTEC Creative Media Production Student of the Year 2013

Henry was a high-achieving student during his level 3 studies which included a BTEC Level 3 National in Creative Media Production. He progressed on to a BA course in Film Production at university. In the first year of his BTEC National course, Henry's submission was the only level 3 student film screened in the National Student Film Festival drama category. Another film about psychosis was considered by two national charities. Henry now writes a blog for the charity Time to Change, promoting positive attitudes to mental health.

2013 Winner

Learn how you can study BTEC as a standalone course, or alongside GCSEs and A levels, at www.btec.co.uk

PEARSON